Cubs Slide Back to Third Place in 14 Inning Defeat

(By the Associated Press)
Back home at the hub, the Boston Braves are suffering from the same little malady that made them so feared last year—a disease that impels them to rise from the depths of the second division and smile defiantly at the Phillies.

"Deal Off" But Jack Enjoyed The Reception

By AL DEMAREE
(Former Pitcher N. Y. Giants)

Baseball has its own peculiar styles of humor. McGraw once fined me five dollars for not backing up third base, after pitching a winning game.

Fred Clark fined Hans Wagner for hitting a home run and not bunting as he had ordered.

"Jack Hendricks, the Cincinnati manager," says Sam Murr-barger, "is not only an able leader, but a cruel humorist." I know! Some years ago, when he had the Ft. Wayne club, I was his secretary and trainer, and when Jack came to Indianapolis, with $150,000 in his jeans, with the intention of buying the Indianapolis club, I naturally gave him a glad welcome. The fans were overjoyed to know it and headed by yours truly, turned out to meet him.

At noon it was announced that the deal was all assured, and Jack appointed me secretary for 1914 at a royal salary. In the evening I gave Jack and many friends a wine supper; there were speeches, songs, rose-colored prophecies for next season. Then we all escorted Hendricks to the train, with a brass band and banners, hurriedly improvised, bearing the legend, "Our Leader—Jack Hendricks—Champion, 1914." At the depot there were more speeches and all Indianapolis the new secretary, wrung the hand of the Moses who was to lead us out of the desert of defeat. Some evening!

And just as the train pulled out, Hendricks leaned out from the rear rail of the last car, and remarked: "I forgot to tell you, Sam, but the deal is off!"

ROLLAND GARROS STADIUM, AUTEUIL, France, July 27. (A. P.)—Big Bill Tilden today defeated his old rival, Rene Lacoste of France, in the first match of the Davis Cup challenge round by scores of 1-6, 6-4, 6-4, 2-6, 6-3.

The American veteran came from behind after dropping the first set and outlasted the French master of machine-like strokes in one of the most gruelling five set struggles these tennis giants have ever waged.

By winning Tilden gave his team a flying start in its drive to regain the Davis Cup from the French who captured it a year ago in the United States.

Tilden's victory was his first over Lacoste in the last five times they have met and it can be set down as an upset.

MISSIONS WIN FROM BEAVERS

Indians Lose Sixteenth Straight Game—Stars Tie for Lead

Three Beaver pitchers fell before the batting onslaught of the missions who took the short series by winning 10 to 5. Ortman, Beaver hurler, held the Bells down until the fourth and then allowed three runs to pile in. The veteran Ponder replaced him and was later supplanted by Couch, Keesey and Smith made circuit clouts. Batteries: Pillette, Bronzel, Baldwin and Sypers; Ortman, Ponder, Couch and Whitney.

Los Angeles came from behind in the eighth and turned what looked like certain defeat into victory, winning from the Oaks, 4 to 3. Two doubles and a walk in the eighth filled the bases and a long drive against the boards brought in the winning tallies. Batteries: Barfoot, Sandberg, Cooper, Reed.

Sacramento's defeat by the Seals and Hollywood's victory over the Indians brought the Stars into a tie for first honors with the league pacemakers. The Senators fell 6 to 2 at the hands of Walter Malls, San Francisco veteran pitcher who fanned seven of the Sacramento nine. The game was fairly even until the fourth and fifth when a batting spree netted the Seals the winning counts. Batteries: Malls, Sprinz, Kallio and Gould, Severid.

Hollywood took the four-game series from Seattle, giving the Seattle tribe their 16th straight defeat, 10 to 5. The Indians are within one game of tying Sacramento's record in 1927 of 17 consecutive defeats. Johnny Kerr, Star infielder and Art Ruble, Indian outfielder, collected homers. Batteries: McCabe, Brassler, C. Sullivan and Collard, Schmidt.
