

BRIEF NEWS —OF— KLAMATH

At the Brown Home—

Mrs. T. B. Cleavenger and son, Jess Fairchild, of Albany, who have been the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Brown of 918 Owen street for the past week, left today for Crater Lake. They will spend several days visiting at points en route home where Mr. Fairchild is employed as clerk for C. D. Bradford grocery. Mrs. Cleavenger was very much in love with Southern Oregon.

Returned From Resort—

Mrs. A. L. Crawford and Mrs. C. H. Daggett and children have returned from Lake o' The Woods where they spent the past week on an outing. While at the resort they enjoyed a huckleberry picking party.

Visiting at Jones Home—

Buddy Rose, nephew of Mrs. Wilbur Jones, is visiting at the Jones home from Phoenix, Oregon. He will spend at least two weeks here.

Miss Glaab Leaving—

Miss Ethel Glaab, daughter of Mrs. Emma Cole will leave on Sunday for Portland to resume her training at the Good Samaritan hospital. Miss Glaab with her mother and sister, Miss Elizabeth Glaab have been enjoying a delightful motor trip to various points of interest during the past two weeks. Miss Glaab has enjoyed a month's vacation from her duties.

Visiting Here—

Miss Ethel Gaskill of Craig, Missouri, is enjoying her first visit west and is in Klamath Falls for a fortnight as the house guest of her cousin, Mrs. H. W. Bathiany. The first of this coming week, Miss Gaskill with Mrs. Carrie Olds, mother of Mrs. Bathiany, will leave for Canada where they will spend some time visiting with relatives and friends.

Spending Vacation Here—

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Webber of Medford are enjoying a vacation in Klamath Falls visiting relatives and friends. They plan to return home this week-end.

Returned Home—

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Rutherford of Medford visited here briefly enroute home from an outing spent at Diamond Lake.

Visiting at McDougal Home—

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. McDougal of Sacramento, California, are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. McDougal enroute north to Portland, Idaho and on to Nevada, where they will visit before returning south. The southern visitors are making the trip by motor.

Miss Hennessey Left—

Miss Wilma Hennessey of Sacramento, California, who has been the house guest of Mrs. Lucille Davis for the past fortnight, left for her home today. Miss Hennessey planned to remain here for several days longer but was called home on account of the illness of her uncle.

Bathiany's Leaving—

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bathiany and two children, Ruth Mary and Robert, will leave the first of the week for Yellowstone National Park, where they will enjoy a two weeks' vacation. They are making the trip by motor.

From the East—

This morning Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wilson left for Crater Lake after having spent Thursday in the city visiting. They are eastern guests, registering from Green Bay, Wisconsin.

Tourists Registered—

A total check of tourists at the information office of the chamber of commerce on Thursday showed 85. Most of the tourists were enroute to Crater Lake and other resorts on outings.

Stallings' Have Moved—

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Stallings have moved to the Klamath View auto park where they will make their home. Mr. and Mrs. Stallings are part owners of the park.

Mr. and Mrs. Fout Have Girl—

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Fout at the Klamath General hospital this morning.

style luncheons, salads and other tempting foods will be served.

R. D. Morgan, registered pharmacist, will be in charge of the store. Others employed in the store will include: George W. Gray, Louise Reger, Kenneth Cruickshank, Ruth Auten, Lillian Beacker and R. Oakley. Mr. Magill will spend part of his time here and part in Bend, where he owns the two leading drug stores.

At all times, attractive window displays will be featured. Mr. Cruickshank, who has charge of the interior decorating, will have charge of the windows.

A. F. Graham company furnished the cement, plaster and floor compound for new establishment; F. R. Olds, the painter; Claude Davis installed the linoleum and the Big Basin Lumber company furnished the interior wood trim.

Mr. Magill, owner, is one of the leading drug store men of Oregon. He is a graduate of Oregon State college. For the past 11 years Mr. Magill has been in business in Bend and is attracted to Klamath Falls, which he believes to be one of the leading industrial centers of the Pacific coast, several months ago.

Novel balloons will be presented to the children tomorrow. Each lady visitor will be given a rose bud.
