

NEWS IN BRIEF

Teachers Returning—

After an adventurous summer of travel, Miss Melvina Dillingham, accompanied by Miss Jerry Jarvis and Miss Vera Jungmann will return the last of the week in order to be in readiness for the coming school year. The three girls have been many miles by automobile since leaving here the last of May. They have made the entire trip in Miss Dillingham's automobile and besides traveling over the western states they have visited a large number of the middlewestern states. They were reported to have reached Bend yesterday, where they expect to stay until Saturday.

Visits From Chiliquin—

Mrs. Charles DuFault, who is revising the Klamath and Modoc Indian register, is in town for a few days from Chiliquin receiving medical treatment. Mrs. DuFault says that the register shows about 1255 Indians now on the reservation. It is expected that some of this number will be stricken off the register as not being direct blood descendants of the Klamath, Modoc and Plate tribes.

To Attend Fight—

Joseph J. Tehaney, prominent San Francisco automobile man, accompanied by a party of four from the Bay metropolis, have arrived from the south to be the guests of Promoter Joe Bickerstaff, fight promoter, at the double main-event fight card Friday night. While visiting here Bickerstaff, known as "Tex", will show them developments and possibilities.

Youth to Preach—

Robert Milan, graduate of the Klamath county high school and former football star for the local eleven, will be here the first Sunday in September to hold a meeting at the First Baptist church. Young Milan comes from Texas to Klamath Falls.

Missionary Society Meets—

The Missionary Society of the First Baptist church will hold a combined business and social meeting in the church parlors at Eighth and Washington streets, Thursday afternoon at 2.30.

Leave For Port—

C. A. Henderson, county agent, and G. R. Hyslop, chief of the farm crops department of extension department of the Oregon state college, Corvallis, left this morning for Wood River valley where they will visit several farms in the locality. Mr. Hyslop inspected demonstration crops on the Klamath project yesterday in the annual crop tour.

Visits County Clubs—

To confer with county clubs on the proposition of preparing their exhibits for their division of the county fair, County Club Leader Frank W. Sexton last night spent the evening in Merrill and Malin. Mr. Sexton said today that if present indications were a criterion, county club exhibits at the county fair this year would exceed any exhibited at a previous fair.
