KLAMATH

Neon Sign Hung Yesterday—

Another Neon sign was added to Main street yesterday, when a large attractive one was hung on the K. Sukerman building for The Klamath Clinic. The sign was purchased by Dr. E. Dietze, member of the clinic while on a recent visit to Portland. The sign reads "Klamath Clinic, Physicians and Surgeons." It is an attractive addition to the many expensive Neon signs hung along Main street during the past few months. To look along Main street at night, one realizes that thousands of dollars have been spent for signs by business and professional men during the past year.
