Gilda Gray in a Mother Role

Gilda Gray, famed exponent of the shimmy, and of recent note in the divorce courts, is shown here in another role—a mother greeting her son. The picture was taken in Milwaukee where Gilda, whose maiden name was Mary Michalsky, met her son by her first marriage, Milton Gersick, 14. Gilda recently sued for divorce from Gil Boag, former manager, and Boag filed a reply charging her with misconduct with her present manager, C. D. Krepps, with whom she recently returned from Europe.

TWO DROWN AS SHIP FOUNDERS

BREMEN, Germany, Jan. 7. (AP)—All but two members of the crew of the German steamer Ruedelheim which developed a leak about 500 miles east of Newfoundland, were rescued yesterday by the American steamer Saguache. The men lost were the third engineer and the ship's carpenter who were drowned.

Word of the disaster was received by the owners of the German freighter from the captain of the Saguache. The message told of the rescue and said that the German freighter had sprung a leak during a storm making it imperative to take off the crew as the vessel was doomed.

The American captain added that he would land the Ruedelheim's crew either at Portland or Halifax. He placed the scene of the disaster at 44 degrees west longitude 47.95 north latitude, which is about 500 miles due east of Cape Race.

The Ruedelheim, a 5,600-ton freighter, sailed from Emden on December 18 for Boston and New York.

The Saguache, which visits Scandinavian ports, sailed from Gothenburg on December 24 for Portland, Boston and New York.

Hygienic rules for cooking and eating were embodied in the Hindu religious laws to ensure their observance and they are observed to this day by all except the unorthodox.
