FATTY IN BAD AGAIN; CITED BEFORE COURT

CULVER CITY, Calif., Jan. 10. (UP)—Fatty Arbuckle, who used to entertain the movie public with his elephantine antics, today was cited to appear before the city council and explain why a big drum boom in his Plantation Cafe fell into the early morning hours.

Specifically, he must show good reason why his license should not be revoked, as demanded by irate residents.

Some 50 persons complained also to the council of "disorderly and indecent actions" on the part of patrons of the Plantation.

Mr. J. W. Sanders left Monday for Portland where he went to attend an insurance meeting.

J. B. McCulley shipped 700 sheep from Midland on Saturday to the Golden West Meat company at San Francisco.

Mr. Ralph Burcham was in Malin Monday and Tuesday from his camp. He reports the trapping fine this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith James are moving into the Jim Eliff home on Lakeview avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Eliff have moved to Klamath Falls.
