Signer: CHARLES McNARY.

Both legislators promised their support in raising additional funds to fight what has developed into a serious threat of the pine lumber industry.

Money is needed not only for control activities on federal land, but also for experimentation. ONE WIFE TOO MANY GETS HIM IN BAD

Ordinarily, it's pretty hard for a man to support one wife, but when Larry E. Lawrence (above), loan company teller, tried to support two he went to jail on a charge of embezzling $25,000. At the right is Mrs. Helen Lawrence, his first wife. At the left is his second, Mrs. Vivian Albanese Lawrence.

By NPA Service
CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 19.—Lawrence J. Lawrence earned $1650 a year as teller in a savings and loan company. But he had two wives, and all three of them had expensive tastes.

So Lawrence, today, is lodged in the county jail here awaiting grand jury action on a charge that he embezzled nearly $25,000 from his employer. In addition, he may be held as a bigamist.

First—in November of 1927—Lawrence married Mrs. Helen Lawrence. He established a home for her and began buying her expensive presents.

Then, a year later, he married Mrs. Vivian Albanese of Buffalo. He made a down payment on an expensive house and established her in it, with $2000 worth of furniture.

So each wife he represented himself as a bigamist, to account both for his periodical absences and for the big sums of money he had at his disposal. When Christmas came he showered expensive presents on them, saying that the "holiday liquor rush" was making him rich.

But just after the holidays the shortage was discovered and

Lawrence was arrested. He is said to have admitted his guilt. After he was put in jail, both wives came to see him, separately. They did not meet at the jail.

He kissed each one goodby, and said: "Don't come back, dear. I'm in a lot of trouble and there's no use bothering with me until I get out of jail."

And they went away, each promising to wait for him.

COP AWARDED $16,000

Ackerman, who says he is "84, hale and hearty," was given a verdict of $16,000 damages today in a suit charging Mrs. Margaret von Wedelstaedt and George Downs with malicious prosecution. Ackerman held that after he had closed a property deal with Mrs. von Wedelstaedt and her husband, providing that they keep him for life, they tried to hold him insane.

DORMITORY AT SCHOOL RAZED

Dawes House Burns to Ground in Spectacular Blaze Last Night

LAWRENCEVILLE, N. J., Jan. 19. (AP)—Dawes House, the largest dormitory at Lawrenceville school, was destroyed early this morning in a spectacular fire that sent students fleeing for their lives.

The dormitory, a rambling frame structure, donated to the famous preparator's school by Vice President Dawes, housed 43 students, three masters and three servants. Boys sleeping in the second story dormitories were roused just in time to escape. Among them was Dana Dawes, a son of the vice president.

Sylvan Schlopp, occupying quarters on the first floor was awakened by the roar of flames, and ran through the building shouting an alarm.

The flames were menacely close when the boys on the second floor were awakened by his calls. The stairways were spouting flames. The windows offered the only way of escape, with a long jump to ground. Some of the boys formed human chains by holding on to each other's hands and feet, and many escaped by climbing down the backs of their companions. Others leaped to the ground.

The loss exceeded $75,000. Collapsible coats, or coats with necklines that have narrow bands that end here or there with a bow or ornament are nearest.

A duplicate of the headpiece was purchased at a Pomona, Calif., store where N. B. Winslow, father of the missing boys, had purchased the original one. The second one was torn apart, rollers testified and figures in the sand were studied under the microscope.

Compared with similar figures in the original one they were found to tally exactly, the expert testified.
