

FORGER DUPES MANY FAMILIES

Albert Wortheimer Arrested and Jailed; De-falcations of $65,000

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 25. (U. P.)—Albert Wortheimer let it be known he was a Yale graduate.

He also let it be known he was a Warner Bros. movie director.

He furthermore let it be known he could place children of certain wealthy "friends" in the movies.

He even occasionally let it be known that he was "Jack Sawyer."

That, police let it be known, was a rebuttal sketch of Wortheimer's recent history so far as it was known here this morning. At the same time they let it be known that Wortheimer was in jail here on spurious check charges.

This afternoon San Francisco, Los Angeles and Orem, Utah, police let it be known that Wortheimer was wanted in each of those cities on similar charges.

A police arithmetician, after comparing telegrams, let it be known that Wortheimer's alleged spurious checks had netted him $65,000 in the last few months.

Wortheimer had 85 cents in his pockets when arrested.

His bail was set at $1000.

Police let it be known he was still in jail tonight.

NO HONOR AMONG MEN, SAY CO-EDS

CLEVELAND, Jan. 25.—Men college students have no respect for the honor system. That's the charge that has been hurled by delegates to the 21st annual convention of the Women's Intercollegiate Association for Student Government, held at Western Reserve college for Women recently.

The honor system is failing, men fail to cooperate, according to Caroline Robinson from Swarthmore college, Pennsylvania. "We don't say that the men are not basically honorable, but they certainly aren't honorable when it comes to living up to the honor code that provides for not cheating in their school work," she said.

FIND HAUGHTY WOMAN GUILTY

Huntress Will Be Sentenced on Charge of Second Degree Assault

NEW YORK, Jan. 25. Mrs. Esther Evans De Forest, wife of a wealthy businessman, was found guilty of shooting her husband while carrying a revolver without a license, was found guilty of second degree assault by a jury here today. She will be sentenced January 29.

Judge Nott, presiding, commended the jury for its verdict.

"It is in accordance with the law and the facts," he said, "the charge of a woman who shoots a man and then forgets has been tried 100 times before."

He was referring to Mrs. Wilson's plea that when her husband, Daniel Wilson, prominent politician and attorney, cursed her, her mind went blank and she did not remember the shooting which followed.

NOTED SPANISH DANCER CHARGED WITH THEFT

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 25. (U. P.)—Luis Montoya, a Spanish dancer who recently withdrew a $1,000,000 damage suit charging Wallace Berry, film actor, with being the father of her child, was arrested here today on a charge of grand theft.

Mrs. Kelly accused Miss Montoya of taking her coat and other wearing apparel from her home.

GAME OF WILD WEST DEVELOPS INTO TRAGEDY

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Jan. 25. (AP)—Two 15-year-old boys sat down to a game of cards at the old west.

Iratt Stouenburgh placed a rusty horse pistol, a family relic, on the table near his hand. John Reynolds put his trust in a .22-caliber revolver topped a trigger.

The game started. Then to carry out the tradition of the frontier days they agreed. Stouenburgh picked up his pistol. "This," he said, "is the way they used to do it in the old days."

He leveled the gun at Reynolds and pulled the trigger.

When the smoke cleared Reynolds was found with a bullet through the forehead. He died a half hour later. Stouenburgh later recalled he had shown Reynolds how to load the pistol and had forgotten to remove the charge. The police said the shooting was accidental.
