Beatings Made Fighter Good

Theodore Worrell Miller

By NEA Service

Theodore Worrell Miller wanted to be a rascal when he matriculated at the University of Florida and he went out to seek vainglory with the muscle twisters and bone crushers. But he didn't last long.

The boxing coach saw him and the boxing coach was desperately in need of a bantamweight for the team and he persuaded Theodore to give up wrestling. He joined the boxing team and had a narrow escape from being ordered off the squad.

He lost every match in which he competed his first year—seven of them—and the coach was about convinced that he wouldn't do. But he kept plugging and in his second year he won the bantamweight championship of the Southern Conference, the South-eastern A. A. U. and was runner-up in the finals for the National A. A. U. He is a favorite for the national title this year.

AT THE THEATRES

PELICAN

"Four Sons" Closes Tonight
"Four Sons," Fox production, is playing the last time tonight at the Pelican.

Briefly, it is the simple, intensely human story of a mother and her four sons. The theme is faith—the faith of the mother in humanity. In spite of all the troubles that beset the old lady, her confidence remains unbroken.

There are contrasting backgrounds of America and Bavaria during the War. It is not a War picture, however, there being only a flash of the battle field, depicting the meeting of the two brothers in opposing armies. This scene is one of the emotional highlights of the picture.

The role of the mother is beautifully portrayed by Margaret Mann, the sixty year old extra who achieved film fame through her remarkable performance in this production. The four sons are no less admirably played by James Hall, Charles Morton, Francis X. Bushman, Jr., and George Meeker.

Rex Beach Story Tomorrow

The famous Rex Beach best-selling novel, "The Michigan Kid," has been made into a sensational motion picture and will open at the Pelican Theatre tomorrow with Conrad Nagel and Renee Adoree in the stellar roles.

The story takes place in Alaska during the gold rush of '98, and is replete with thrilling incidents mellowed by a beautiful love. In the supporting cast are Lloyd Whitlock, Fred Emmetton, Adolph Miller, Maurice Murphy, Virginia Grey and Dick Palm. Irvin Willat directed.

Rex Stratton at the console of the Wurlitzer will play the season's best waltz hits, and Harry Borel and the Pelican Theatre Orchestra will render selections from "The Desert Song," the tunes of which are melodies long to be remembered.

FINE TREES

"The World at Her Feet"
A geometrical handling of plot, which makes a parallelogram of the familiar triangle, is used in the new Paramount picture starring Florence Vidor in "The World at Her Feet" is being shown the last time tonight at the Pine Tree.

Two young married couples are involved in a merry intrigue of love making and suspected infidelity with a comedy relief "divorce detective de luxe" introduced at just the proper time.

"Sal of Singapore"

The story in brief deals with the shanghaiing of Sal, a pretty girl frequenter of waterfront dives, by Captain Erickson, a hard-boiled sailor. He has found a child wife, and the two become interested in the child which indirectly is responsible for the subsequent love romance between Sal and the Captain. Captain Sunday, a sea-man sailor, abducts Sal and when Erickson learns the truth, he boards Sunday's vessel and one of the most thrilling fist fights ever screened results. Erickson is the victor and by way of reprisal he directs Sunday to officiate at his marriage with Sal. With the babe, they begin life anew.

LIBERTY

"Wild West Romance"

"Wild West Romance," Fox Films production, will unfold on the silver screen of the Liberty Theatre the last time tonight, offers a wholly refreshing novelty.

The star, Rex Bell, cowboy discovery is declared by many to be one of the finest specimens of American manhood yet to grace the screen.

The action of "Wild West Romance" is laid in a small Western town. A gang of outlaws operating under the leadership of Drake Martin seizes the mine payroll and, to shift the blame, plant part of the money in Bell's shack.

However, Bell befriends a tiny mite who has run away from an orphanage, and together they stage a successful comeback after a series of dramatic adventures.

Hoot Gibson Tomorrow

Hoot Gibson, Universal's rollicking cowboy screen ace, gallops to the goal of another hit as "The Rawhide Kid," his latest Western production which will be the feature attraction at the Liberty theatre tomorrow. Along with the usual quota of high-speed action, there is a generous spicing of humor and a love story that will warm the cockles of your heart. Directed by Del Andrews the play is presented by an unusual cast, including Georgia Hale, Tom Langham, William H. Strauss, Frank Hagney, and Harry Todd on hand to provide the comedy relief role. The picture is from the story "The Lion and the Lamb" by Peter R. Kyne.
