PROJECTS NEED FEDERAL LOANS

SALEM, Ore., Feb. 21, (AP)—Briggs and Carlin, both of Jackson county, introduced a memorial to the house Tuesday afternoon memorializing congress to provide financial assistance in re-financing constructed feasible irrigation projects on the same basis as the U. S. reclamation projects. These projects are in direct competition in amounts not to exceed their economic value as determined by surveys made by federal agencies, says the memorial.

"It would be good government to loan federal funds without interest to relieve farmers on existing meager irrigation district farms who are pioneering the development," says the memorial.

LEON TROTZKY SERIOUSLY ILL

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 21, (AP)—Far from having been removed to Angora, Leon Trotsky lies so ill in the Russian consulate where that to move him at all would be dangerous, it is believed.
