KIDNAPED BOY LOCATED CLAIM

Los Angeles Youth Believed Held in Shack Near Eldorado.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 22.—Richard Grant, 11-year old Los Angeles boy, reportedly kidnapped last December by Harry Palmer, last night was believed held by his captor in a lonely shack between Eldorado and Lost Horse mines, ten miles from Quail Springs.

A boy and a man whose descriptions tallied closely with the missing pair, were seen in Quail Springs recently by a storekeeper. The man unwittingly disclosed that he and the boy were hiding north of the town, deputy sheriffs said.

Passes will be sent into the wilderness today. William J. Grant, the abducted boy's father, said that footprints found north of Quail Springs exactly match his boy's shoes.

PORTLANDERS FIGHT STREET WIDENING BILL

SALEM, Ore., Feb. 22.—House Bill 354, introduced by Angell of Multnomah, if enacted into law, would practically ruin Portland's $5,000,000 street widening and improvement program, outlined for the next two or three years, a large delegation of Portlanders told the senate judiciary committee Wednesday evening. An adverse report against the bill was urged.
