to return to Klamath Falls where they have made their home for the past three years.

"While my plans are as yet rather indefinite, it is possible that Mrs. Dillon and myself will enter the furniture business in this city," Mr. Dillon said today.

For the past 25 years Mr. Austin, now proprietor, has been in the hotel business and at the present time owns the Hotel Taylor at Paso Robles, California, which he has operated for more than 13 years. Prior to coming to California, Mr. Austin was in the hotel business in British Columbia.

Mrs. Austin, now in Paso Robles, will join her husband within a few days. At the close of the school term in California their three children will come to Klamath Falls to make their future home.

"I plan to retain the present personnel and for the present have no definite plans to announce as to possible changes in the hotel," Mr. Austin stated this morning.

"This is my second visit to Klamath Falls and I became so interested upon my first visit that I am ready to cast my lot with the people of Klamath Falls and make this my future home," he concluded.

BUBBS RETURN FROM VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bubb returned home this morning from a month's vacation spent in Havana, Miami, Phoenix and Los Angeles. Mr. Bubb is cashier of the American National bank.

Leaving here with their two daughters, Virginia Jane and Mary Janet, Mr. and Mrs. Bubb first stopped in Los Angeles where they visited with Mrs. Bubb's mother, Mrs. L. Noel, who is south because of ill health. While Mr. and Mrs. Bubb went on the remainder of the trip, their daughters remained at Palo Alto.

They found beautiful weather on the entire trip. At Havana the weather was unusually warm, as at Miami where they spent some time. They found the trip from Miami to Havana by water most delightful. Tourists from all parts of the world were enjoying the southland.

fostered the Dornbecher hospital was explained. Only recently a permanent room has been taken in the hospital, not only for Elks, but anyone in need.

Some of the details of the national foundation fund which has been created were explained by Mr. DeLap. It is the plan of this branch to create a fund of $10,000,000 within the next ten years to be used in relief work throughout the country.

"The work will be done hand in hand with the American Red Cross," he said.

Jimmie Swanson, exalted ruler, told in a few brief remarks some of the plans being outlined by the past exalted rulers of the local lodge and members for the state convention. He then introduced John Boyle, chairman, who outlined some of the plans. Mr. Boyle thanked the merchants for the splendid co-operation already given the local lodge in making plans for the convention, at which more than 4000 guests are expected to attend.

Little Beth Cummings and Betty Reed, two of the cast of "Hello There," gave a clever burlesque which pleased the guests. They were introduced by Tom Richardson, president of the Lions club. Jack Bowring accompanied them at the piano.

A mixed quartet, composed of Dorothy Stevens, Marjorie Richardson, Jack Harney and Don Harlan, sang three selections. Mrs. Eloise McPherson accompanied at the piano.

Men and Women of KLAMATH FALLS
Do you feel incapable of advising your children on certain subjects when they seek your confidence?
Hear DR. CHAS. E. BARKER Friday, March 1st
WOMEN, 3:00—"A Mother's Responsibility to Her Daughter"—at the Public Library.
MEN, 7:30—"A Father's Responsibility to His Son"—at Fremont School Auditorium.
HOSTS—THE ROTARY CLUB
Dr. Barker's addresses are straightforward messages to Mothers and Fathers, the Young Men and Young Women. In the summer of 1919 he electrified the Convention of Rotary International, and by reason of the impression made upon the minds and hearts of the delegates he has been since then in constant demand by Rotary and other service clubs.
