

NEWS IN BRIEF

Covers Inaugural—

"Dolly" Dalrymple, feature writer for Associated Press, formerly with the Birmingham News at Birmingham, Alabama, has written Helen Dennis Brett, a personal friend of many years standing, that she is enjoying her visit to Washington, D. C., where she has been covering a number of features for Associated Press. Her most recent interesting story was of Mrs. Hoover, new mistress of the White House, and her family.

Miss Nitschlem Enjoying Trip—

Miss Albertina Nitschlem of the Blue Bird and Miss C. White have arrived in Honolulu, where they plan to remain for several weeks. Relatives and friends received the first letter from Miss Nitschlem today. She wrote of the interesting trip by water and of her luck at being champion shuffle-board player aboard the ship.

Woodcraft Have Splendid Meeting

More than 70 members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft attended the meeting last evening at Odd Fellows' hall. A delightful hour of music was enjoyed by the members. Mrs. Cummings had charge of the program. At the next meeting on Wednesday evening, March 27, Past G. N's will have charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes Moved—

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Barnes and family have moved into their attractive new home on North Sixth between Jefferson and Lincoln. Their old home on Jefferson will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Jones. Mr. Jones is superintendent of the state highway offices here.

Rebekahs Tonight—

Members of the Rebekah lodge will hold regular lodge session this evening at Odd Fellows' hall. Mrs. George Humphrey will preside as chairman of an informal program arranged for. Visiting members are extended a cordial invitation to attend.

From Fort Klamath—

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor of the Fort Klamath hotel were visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday. They attended the vaudeville at The Pelican theatre.

Mrs. Huggins At Moe's—

Mrs. Golda Huggins formerly of The Adrienne Stewart Shop of Medford has accepted a position in the ready to wear department of Moe's Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Abbey Home—

Following a lengthy trip in Kansas with relatives and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Abbey have returned home.

Davis in Bend—

E. A. Davis, oil man, returned from Bend where he transacted business the early part of the week.

Visited From Fort Klamath—

Mrs. Paul Wampler and Miss Ida Iriscow of Fort Klamath spent Wednesday in the city shopping.

Left For Bly—

N. J. Nyhart, contractor of Malin has left for Bly where road work on the highway will be started.

Harry Hunter Passed Away—

Harry Hunter, prominent land owner in Lake and Klamath counties, passed away at Toronto, Canada, last week according to word received here by the Favell-Utley firm. Mr. Hunter was head of the Hunter Land company and was half owner in the Hunter-Hewitt land company. Mr. Hunter purchased the property where the Hunter's Hot Springs hotel and the Kelly Sanitarium is located in Lakeview, more than 39 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Mosser Guests—

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Mosser of Ashland were guests in Klamath Falls today. Mr. Mosser is executive secretary of the Ashland chamber of commerce and presided as chairman of the forum luncheon at the chamber of commerce today when Ashland chamber of commerce members and the glue club of the Ashland Normal college entertained Klamath Falls people.

Mrs. Austin Here—

Mrs. Albert Austin, wife of Mr. Albert Austin, new owner of the Hotel Willard was a special guest at the chamber of commerce luncheon on Wednesday. Mrs. Austin is here for a short time visiting her husband from their home at Paso Robles, California. At the close of the school year, Mrs. Austin and their children will move to Klamath Falls to reside. Mrs. Austin will be welcomed in the social and civic clubs of this city.

Returned From The Dalles—

C. W. Flynn and children have returned to their home at Kirk from The Dalles where they have been since the passing of Mrs. Flynn. Mrs. Alice Paquet, mother-in-law of Mr. Flynn accompanied them.

Captain Lost Manuscript—

"Banner's History of the Pacific Coast," one of Captain Applegate's most treasured manuscripts, has been lost. Captain is of the opinion that the book was given to someone to read who has forgotten to return it.

Visited in Lakeview—

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Van Buskirk of this city spent the weekend in Lakeview with Mrs. Van Buskirk's niece, Mrs. John Simmons. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. David Stearns whom they had not seen in close to 30 years.

Baby Girl Born—

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Quick announce the birth of an eight pound baby girl at the Cottage Hospital on March fourth. Mrs. Quick before her marriage was Miss Erma Bryant of this city.

Here From Ashland—

Ike Fridgegar was among the Ashland people on the streets of Klamath Falls today. Mr. Fridgegar makes frequent business visits here in the interest of Ender and Company of Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Weger Have Son—

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Weger have named their new son "Raymond". The eight pound boy was born Tuesday at the Cottage Hospital.

Miller South—

J. J. Miller, district freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific is in San Francisco where he will spend some time.

Returned To Ashland—

The Misses Helen Ostrander, Lillian Olsen, Dorothy Crown, Beatrice Abel, Juanita Pearson, Ellen Lawrence, members of the Southern Oregon Normal Glee Club returned to Ashland late yesterday afternoon. The young ladies were guests of the chamber of commerce at noon and later visited the Klamath Union high school. Miss Leona Marsters, director of the music department of Southern Oregon Normal and Miss Rues Louise Yoder, assistant director at the school accompanied the young women. Miss Yoder an accomplished violinist rendered two delightful selections during the luncheon. The Glee Club rendered several numbers.

Left For Salem—

J. T. Wallace, representative of the C. and N. W. A. A. with headquarters in Portland left last night for Salem where he will transact business before going north. Mr. Wallace spent Wednesday in Klamath Falls in the interests of his road.

Dundon Here On Business—

R. J. Dundon, commercial agent for the Erie Railroad, with headquarters in Seattle arrived in Klamath Falls yesterday to spend several days in Klamath county on official business. Mr. Dundon is at the Hotel Willard while here.

Waggoner Returned Home—

F. D. Waggoner, postmaster of Ashland returned home Wednesday afternoon after spending the greater part of the day here. Mr. Waggoner was a guest at the chamber of commerce luncheon yesterday.

Here From Kelseyville—

H. L. Beaver of Kelseyville, California plans to spend several days in southern Oregon looking over business possibilities. Today Mr. Beaver is in Klamath Falls.

McDonald Goes South—

J. G. McDonald of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad left last night for San Francisco after spending the day here on business.

Fitzgerald On Business—

J. W. Fitzgerald, superintendent of the Shasta Division of the Southern Pacific with headquarters in Dunsmuir is in the city today on official business.

Returned From California—

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Johnson of Kirk have returned home from a visit of several weeks in southern California. Mr. Johnson is with The Southern Pacific railroad.

Daughters of Job Tonight—

All members of Daughters of Job are requested to be present at Masonic hall tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Eight girls will be initiated into the order. A banquet will follow the lodge session.

Returned From Lakeview—

Rev. J. Henry Thomas, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal church, returned this afternoon from Lakeview, where he spent the past two days conducting services.

Left For North—

Mrs. F. A. Luse and daughter, Miss Helen Luse are enjoying a visit of several days in Portland. They are residents of Kirk.

Child Ill With Measles—

Little Jean Wimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wimer is confined to the family home with an attack of measles.

Visiting in Grants Pass—

Mrs. Otis R. Stanbury of this city is enjoying a visit at Grants Pass with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Pruitt.

Here From Dunsmuir—

Tom Miller, employed with the Southern Pacific at Dunsmuir was in the city yesterday on business.

Mrs. Wimer Ill—

Mrs. C. A. Wimer is confined to her home with a serious attack of tonsillitis.

From Ewauna Camp—

Mrs. Arthur Messner shopped in the city for several hours on Wednesday from Ewauna camp.

Returned From Jacksonville—

Mrs. O. L. Brown and B. S. Grigsby have returned from Jacksonville where Mrs. Brown received medical treatments.

In From Keno—

Mrs. L. W. Anderson and Mrs. Esther Beck, her daughter transacted business in the city yesterday from Keno.

Mrs. Pickett Shopping—

Mrs. Ray Pickett, resident of Malin spent yesterday here shopping.

Business Visitors—

Charles Snowgoose and D. R. Doten of Keno spent Wednesday in the city transacting business.

Fassett From South—

W. O. Fassett of Orville, California, is transacting business here today.

DEPENDABLE MERCHANDISE

SPRING MODES ARRIVE

Authentic Styles in Beautiful

DRESSES

Whatever be your desire in new frocks see this season's showing at the Golden Rule. Styles, materials, trimmings and prices are so varied that perfect satisfaction is assured everyone.

Soft, feminine and original frocks that solve the modern woman's question of "what-to-wear"—daytime or evening models. Regardless of the price you pay you will be better pleased if you choose from this marvelous group of New York's finest dresses.

at Popular Prices

See Our Large and Exclusive Showing of New Sweaters and Skirts

COATS

That Are Different

Each season we serve the smartest and most fashionable women of the city from our carefully selected coats.

In Sports and Dress Modes

Faithful replicas of higher priced Paris creations in designing, materials and colors. The Johnny collar, the throw and the cape effect are some of the new features.

Materials of—
Heavy Silks, Soft Woolens, Tweeds

New Millinery

$1.95 to $4.95

Adequate praise cannot be given these wonderful hats—so varied are styles that you are certain of a pleasing choice that will equal any hat, in appearance, selling at double these prices.

In Colors to Match

GOLDEN RULE CORPORATION

KLAMATH FALLS OREGON

SEE WINDOWS

Economists in Distribution

SPECIAL

One Lot
Women's New Coats

$10.75

ENNA JETTICK HEALTH SHOES

Out of the ordinary—soft, comfortable models—yet all style elements are found that are offered in any other shoe.

$5.00 & $6.00

HOLEPROOF HOSIERY

New shades, created by Lucille of Paris are here awaiting your personal approval. Especially adaptable for new costumes.

$1.00 — $1.95

CHILDREN'S COATS AND DRESSES

We're ready with a fine collection of new apparel for the younger set—see them now.

Economically Priced

HOUSE DRESSES

These fancy print dresses are the talk of the town—for superior to any $1.95 dress on the market—various colors, styles and sizes.

$1.95
Each

MEN'S HATS

Light grays and tans are this season's favorites—and too, $5.00 is the right price to pay for a good hat.

$5.00

PINE TREE TODAY and TOMORROW

Sinners in Love

Jeweled Sin by Dazzling
Derelicts against Bright
Night Club's Lights

LIBERTY

TODAY and TOMORROW

AL WILSON
in
"THE SKY SKIDDER"

Up in the Air Where a Man Sees Clearly and Fights Harder

P
O
O
L
E
S

T
H
E
A
T
R
E

ROD LA ROCQUE

in
"Captain Swagger"

with SUE CAROL

BARGAIN MATINEES DAILY—10c and 35c

NEW ADMISSION
PRICES

Loges 65c
Entire Lower Floor
and Balcony 50c

Record Year—

Addition of a million dollars a day to the reserve fund of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company was made in 1928 by the 26,000,000 policy holders of the gigantic mutual company. The company is the largest company in the world and is strictly a mutual concern with no stock or stockholders. In 1928 a recent report reveals the assets increased $206,828,329.23. Income was $743,412,386.21, while bonuses and dividends to policy holders amounted to $488,523,599.20.

Visited in Valley—

Ernest McKee, former well known resident of Medford, was a business visitor from Klamath Falls on Wednesday. Mr. McKee is now connected with the California-Oregon Power company and has charge of the new Copco electric shop in Malin.—Medford Daily News.

Howard Visiting City—

George C. Howard, representative of the Union Pacific railroad is spending the day here on official business from his headquarters at Sacramento. Mr. Howard is stopping at the Hotel Willard.

Here From Valley—

Paul Wright of Medford is a business visitor in the city today.

Williamson Building Home—

H. L. Williamson has purchased a corner lot in the new Sixth Street Subdivision and already has started construction on a new home. Mr. Williamson is a former resident of this city. He just recently returned here to make his future home. The sale was made through the offices of Favell-Utley Realty company, agents for the Sixth Street Subdivision.

Left for Alturas—

E. W. Vanice of the Golden Rule, Leslie Peyton and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Crooks left this morning for Alturas on business. They intend to travel via Lakeview and return home Friday night.

California Visitor—

A. M. Spangler of Orville, California, spent Wednesday in the city on business. Mr. Spangler secured a non-resident permit while here at the branch office of the Oregon State Motor association in the chamber of commerce.

Here From Montana—

C. W. Beaver, resident of Billings, Montana spent Wednesday in the city. Mr. Beaver registered at the information office of the chamber of commerce where he secured a non-resident permit.

Mrs. Fitzgerald Here—

Mrs. Larry Fitzgerald of Lakeview is enjoying a visit of several days in the city with relatives and friends. Keith Collins, son of Mrs. Fitzgerald is a student at Sacred Heart Academy here. Mrs. Fitzgerald will be remembered here as Elsie Collins. Mr. Fitzgerald interested in banking at Lakeview will motor over Saturday to join his wife and return home on Sunday.

Ringol From Oakland—

Louis Ringol, resident of Oakland, California arrived here from the south yesterday. Mr. Ringol plans to remain here for several days. He made the trip via motor and was among the non-residents to secure a permit at the chamber of commerce yesterday.

Dresser Left For South—

J. H. Dresser, railroad representative for the Texas and Pacific road left for his headquarters in San Francisco last night following a brief business visit here.

Scanlon Returned North—

J. F. Scanlon, representative of the New York Central railroad returned north to Seattle last evening after spending the past two days here in the interests of his road.

Mrs. Jensen Passed Away—

Mrs. Lee Bromley received word yesterday of the death of her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. J. Jensen, who passed away at her home in Albany early Sunday morning. Mr. Bromley, who is employed in Klamath Falls, left that city yesterday to be in attendance at last rites which were held this afternoon at Albany. Mrs. Jensen visited in Ashland upon several occasions and has friends here who regret her passing.—Ashland Tidings.

Divorce Suit Filed—

Sidney O. Lusk instituted suit for divorce today from Naomi S. Lusk, alleging desertion as a grounds for suit. He sets forth that they were married November 27, 1926 and that on November 12, 1927, his wife deserted him. He is represented by Fay Morris.

Visiting From Oklahoma—

R. H. Padgett of Ryan, Oklahoma is spending several days in Klamath county. Mr. Padgett is stopping at Keno. He made the journey west by motor.

Visiting From Redding—

J. F. McReynolds of Redding, California is spending a few days here transacting business. The trip was made by motor.

Hero From Strawn—

C. Victor Shuck of Strawn, California, just over the border line, was a business visitor in the city on Wednesday.

Here From Oakland—

R. R. Cox, resident of Redding, California is in Klamath Falls for a stay of several days.

Goutre Removed

Ina B. Read, Los Angeles, Calif., Prevents Operation
She says: "Come or write to 5526 Pasadena ave., and I will tell you how I relieved the misery with Sorbol Quardruple, a colorless liniment easy to use and inexpensive."
Get more information at Star Drug Store, or write Sorbol company, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Sold by all druggists.

Made For Beautiful Women

Beauties who guard their complexions use NELLO-GLO Face Powder only. Famous for purity—its coloring matter is approved by the government. The skin never looks pasty or flaky. It spreads more smoothly and produces a youthful bloom. Made by a new French process, NELLO-GLO Face Powder stays on longer.
Underwood's Pharmacy.