NEWS IN BRIEF

Mildred Stevens Injured—
Word was received here late yesterday afternoon of the serious injuries sustained by Miss Mildred Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Stevens of this city. Miss Stevens was injured in an accident in San Francisco where she is practicing as a registered nurse. Little was learned of the details of the accident by Mrs. Stevens who left for the south last night. Miss Stevens is a Klamath Falls girl and has hosts of friends here who will be grieved to learn of the accident. She graduated from St. Francis hospital with Miss Deana Molatore and Alice Miller Pierano, both Klamath Falls girls. Mr. Stevens is in the valley at the bedside of his father who is seriously ill.

Pears Sold in London—
A half-carload of Conice pears from the L. M. Fisher orchard in Sams Valley was sold recently in London for $1300, bringing what is said to be the highest price paid for pears this season. The information was received in Medford yesterday, according to the Medford Daily News. The pears were sent to London at great expense about two months ago, and were placed in storage, there being no sale for them at that time. The owners had about given up the idea of ever disposing of them when a check was received by the company. Mr. Fisher has been a resident of Sams Valley for about 15 years and has the reputation of growing some of the finest fruit in this section.

Towel Returned to S. P.—
Just how many hundreds of linen towels are stole yearly from the Southern Pacific is hard to estimate, according to A. S. Rosenbaum, official of the Southern Pacific. Today one of the many stolen by "boners" travelers was returned to the main office of the Southern Pacific from the Hotel Willard where it had been left by a guest. Hotels too, suffer a loss of many thousand dollars each year, through the theft of linen towels from their rooms.

Round-Up Official Visit—
Ernest Fetsch, president of the Round-up association, went to Klamath Falls last week and conferred with the officials of the Klamath county fair. An effort to set the date so they would not conflict was made but the Lakeview board refused to change its dates to suit the Klamath county men. The Klamath county fair will not hold a round-up in connection with the fair this year, Mr. Fetsch announces. The dates for the fair are August 29, 31, September 1 and 2, while those for the local round up are August 31, and September 1 and 2.—Lakeview Tribune.

Doris Norris Visited Here—
Friends of Mrs. Doris Norris, formerly of this city, were delighted to see her today while she spent several hours in the city with her sister, Mrs. Harry Rhinabarger of Medford. Mrs. Norris is located in Reno, Nevada, where she holds a responsible position with the leading department store. She will visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Quincy Willits of Cottage Grove for some time.

Gets Pictures of Flood—
Miss Ada Bilbo of The Evening Herald and Klamath News business office today received newspapers from her former home in Mobile, Alabama showing pictures of the heavy flood which the south is encountering. The street upon which Miss Bilbo lived in Mobile is completely flooded by the high waters. Homes were ruined by the high tide.

Hospital Nearing Completion—
The Hillside hospital in Hot Springs is nearing completion and within the coming month will be opened. Work on the building is being rushed so that it might be opened at the earliest date. Mrs. Ruby Lyle will be superintendent of the hospital which will be of interest to her many friends.

Leave Saturday For Eugene—
A. J. Delisle, W. E. Beck and Jim Lyle of the Pacific Telegraph and Telephone company will leave Klamath Falls on Saturday morning for Eugene to be guests at a banquet there on Saturday night from the plant department from the various exchanges throughout Southern Oregon.

AT THE THEATRES

AT THE LIBERTY
"Stormy Waters"
Five Southern comes to the Liberty Theatre today in the role of a seaport siren. The picture is "Stormy Waters" and Malcolm McGregor and Roy Stewart share feature honors with Miss South-ern.

and it is also an amazing example of what can be and is, being done in the air.
To the layman it becomes an enigma to his understanding as to how it was ever made. It is no combination of trickery and models, but a realistic avianation of real people riding the clouds and triumphing over the dawn.
The story is one of genuine drama, heightened and strengthened by the sound effects. The cast is hand selected for their ability to handle the various roles, and let's hope Buddy Rogers gets long and high on the road to fame. He is out of the day.

AT THE PINE TREE
Final and positive proof of American supremacy in the field of producing inspiringly entertaining motion pictures was flashed on the screen at the Pine Tree theatre this afternoon as Paramount's "The Way of All Flesh" in which Emil Jannings makes his American debut, was projected.

It would be impossible to speak too highly in praise of this picture or of the wonderful performance that the great Jannings gives. Suffice it to say that he substantiates the faith Paramount Famous Lasky placed in him by bringing him to Hollywood; the faith that the public and the critics of the world accorded him when his Boss Mueller of "Variety" was pronounced by all as the best character portrayal of 1926. Jannings is cast with a greatness that will endure as a standard for future generations to be judged by.

AT THE PELICAN
"WINGS"
Everyone interested in bounding youth, inspired courage, the sacrifice of unflinching youth, and the comradeship of those pals of the war, will go to see "Wings". It is a picture showing the deeds of the young knights of the air during the war. But, it is far more than a commonplace film. It is an epic of fearless young manhood, a tribute to those youngsters whose "wings are folded forever"—as a most appropriate phrase of the dedication days.

ordinary. "Wings" leaves one feeling he had lived, and perhaps a part of him had died, with the ones who fought to clear the blue of the invader.

To Remodel Home—
Another permit was granted at the city hall for the remodeling of a residence at 705 North Second to cost $200. S. W. Martin was granted the permit.

FUNERAL NOTICES
SIMEON C. EASTMAN, Remains of the late Simeon C. Eastman, who passed away at his home in the Henley district today are at the Earl Whitlock funeral home, Pine avenue at Sixth. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Home to be Erected—
A permit for a dwelling in Buena Vista addition was granted to the Tri-State Realty company. The home is to cost around $2000.
