

CATCH RANDALL GIRL IN SALEM

SALEM, Ore., March 28. (AP)—After a chase across the court house yard and along several streets Deputy Sheriff Sam Burkett yesterday took into custody Rose Randall, 20, who is wanted at Klamath Falls on a felony charge the nature of which is not known here. Miss Randall spent three weeks in the Marion county jail in 1926 for shoplifting.

Jonah Sparks, who was called to Salem, was deputized last night by Sheriff L. L. Low to bring back Rose Randall, wanted at Klamath Falls on a check charge. Mr. Sparks is expected to return tonight with his prisoner in charge.
