Alec Smith Has Sure Cure for Topping Ball

THAT'S EASY—A "PRO" HASN'T ANYTHING IN HIS HEAD—IF HE HAD HE WOULDN'T BE A "PRO"—SEE?

By AL DEMAREE Former Pitcher New York Giants

Alec Smith, McDonald Smith's oldest brother, has always been famous for his quick wit and sense of humor.

One of his pupils, a dub golfer, said to Alec one day: "In spite of all your lessons I keep topping the ball. How can I keep from it?"

Smith was exasperated: "Turn it over and hit it on the bottom," he answered.

Another dub golfer was complaining to Alec one day about the lack of consistency in his game.

"I went out this morning in 41," he said, "and then it took me 52 to come back in."

"What in hell did you come back for," was Alec's rejoinder. Nobody has ever been able to improve on Leo Diegel's golf classic, however, after he came back with a dreary 40 after going out with a sparkling 34 in a national open tournament.

Leo's only comment to the so-called inquiries about his score was, "I went out in 34 and came in on a wheelbarrow!"

RESIGNS TO FIGHT PROHIBITION LAW NEW YORK, April 5. (AP)—The New York Herald Tribune today quoted Mrs. George Orvis as saying her recent resignation as republican national committee woman from Vermont was due to a desire to work for a change in the prohibition law. "I believe it will be women who will in the end be responsible for the repeal of the eighteenth amendment," she said. "When it becomes clear to the men that women are not all dry, as is so often said, they will be willing to consider a change."
