

NEWS IN BRIEF

Woodcraft Wednesday Night—

Neighbors of the Woodcraft were asked to meet Wednesday evening at eight o'clock at Odd Fellows Hall. Visitors of the order from Medford and Ashland will be here. A class of five candidates will be initiated into the lodge tonight. Following the lodge session and initiation a banquet will be served. All members and visiting members in the county are asked to be present.

Booth Here From Eugene—

R. A. Booth of Eugene, prominent timberman of Oregon, who in the past two years has been identified with two of the largest timber transactions in the United States, is a visitor in the city today. Mr. Booth is stopping at the Hotel Willard while here.

Enroute To Burns—

Martin Connolly of Wren and Grenough Construction company was among the guests at the Hotel Willard enroute to Burns on business. Mr. Connolly has a contract in the Rly district where he has been for several months. The firm's headquarters are in Portland.

Returned To Chiloquin—

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Crooks and son Joe have returned to Chiloquin after having spent the past two days here on business and visiting friends. Mr. Crooks is manager of The Golden Rule Store at Chiloquin and while here transacted business with E. W. Vannice of the local store.

Weaver Here From Portland—

Howard Weaver, representative of the Hoxproof Hosiery company with headquarters in Portland is here today at The Golden Rule where this hosiery is handled exclusively for this district. Mr. Weaver is at the Hotel Willard.

Collier From Salem Here—

E. A. Collier, assistant state market road engineer arrived in the city over the week end from Salem. Mr. Collier is a brother of Alfred and Andrew Collier of this city. Mr. Collier stopped at the Hotel Willard.

Bond Resigned Position—

Russell Bond of The First National Bank has resigned his position and plans to leave within the near future for southern California where he will join Mrs. Bond who has been south for the past few weeks.

Visited From Grants Pass—

Mr. and Mrs. James Logan of Grants Pass are business visitors in the city today. They are hotel guests at The Willard. Mr. Logan is well known in Klamath Falls where he has made frequent business visits.

Mitchell From South—

E. M. Mitchell of Oakland, California secured a non-resident permit from the chamber of commerce yesterday. Mr. Mitchell plans to be here for an indefinite time.

Mrs. Hall Takes Position—

Mrs. Julia Hall has accepted a position as bookkeeper with The Golden Rule. Mrs. Hall is a recent arrival in the city from Grants Pass.

Walker From Medford—

W. H. Walker of Medford is among the valley business visitors here today. Mr. Walker is at the Hotel Willard while in the city.

Visiting From Ashland—

Mrs. Clyde Wade of Ashland spent the week end in Klamath Falls visiting friends. Mrs. Wade was a guest at the Hotel Willard while here.

Here From Parlow—

Jerry E. Bronough and O. R. Wayman, residents of Parlow, Oregon are stopping at the Hotel Willard while here for a brief visit.

Here From North—

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Thomas of Seattle, are guests at the Hotel Willard while here for a few days on business.

Everybody likes it!
100% PURE

EASTSIDE
Malt SYRUP

AT ALL DEALERS
Distributed by Hart Cigar Co.,
509 Davis Street, Portland

Muehler Left For California—

C. H. Muehler has filed a certificate of assumed business name for the Klamath Landscape and Nursery company and will be in charge of the business of the company it was announced yesterday. Mr. Muehler is a nurseryman and landscape gardener of more than 15 years' experience. Mr. Muehler left today accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Paul Sharp for Oakland, California where he will supervise landscape work for a large residence being constructed there.

Medicate At Lawson Home—

Close to fifty called at the home of Mrs. J. Lawson on Pacific Terrace on Monday evening to attend the musicale given for members of The First Presbyterian church and friends. Mrs. Harry Hill was assisting hostess. A most delightful program of music was given by several prominent musicians of the city. A silver offering was taken.

Housewarming At New Home—

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hedgecock entertained a group of friends on Saturday evening with a housewarming at their attractive new home in Altamont Acres. Cards and dancing passed the social hours. Twenty guests were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Hedgecock just recently moved into their new home.

Battery D. Gets Money—

More than $2000 was paid to officers and members of Battery D at the regular drill meeting last night. An official of the Oregon Bank and Trust company was present and cashed the checks for those wishing cash.

Here From Dillon, Montana—

Charles Loren of Dillon, Montana, home of the state normal, is a guest in Klamath Falls. Mr. Loren plans to remain here for at least a fortnight. He made the trip by motor.

Bell From San Francisco—

R. E. Bell of San Francisco arrived in the city over the week end by motor. Mr. Bell will be here for several weeks on business.

Here From Pullman—

R. R. Luthrop of Pullman, Washington has arrived in the city to spend several days on business. Mr. Luthrop is at the Hotel Willard.

Returned From Marshfield—

Verda Dean, bookkeeper for La Pointes has returned from Marshfield where she spent the past several days visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Young Returned Home—

Mrs. Thomas Young has returned home from Grants Pass where she spent the past several weeks visiting relatives and friends.

Here From Delano—

Estel M. Gulick of Delano, California making the trip by motor arrived here yesterday for an indefinite stay.

Mrs. Hacker Shopping—

Mrs. William Hacker, registered nurse transacted business in the city yesterday from her home at Fort Klamath.

Fruit Crop Good—

A. H. Black, of the W. M. Montellus offices has returned from a business trip to Medford. While in the valley city, Mr. Black talked with the manager of one of the leading packing houses of the valley who declared fruit prospects are splendid and no damage has been reported because of frost. Already an offer of $69 a ton has been made for Bartlett pears for canning purposes.

License Plate Found—

A license plate carrying number "T-99-225" found between Klamath Falls and Chiloquin has been left at the chamber of commerce where the owner may call and by proving ownership secure the plate.

Visiting From San Diego—

John Pingel of San Diego, California is a business visitor in the city. Pingel secured a non-resident permit for his automobile at the chamber of commerce yesterday.

Here From Redding—

George Bates, resident of Redding, California secured a non-resident permit at the chamber of commerce yesterday. Mr. Bates plans to be here for some time.

Mrs. Wampler Returned Home—

Mrs. Paul Wampler with her infant son William Paul, have returned home to Fort Klamath. William Paul was born at the Klamath Valley hospital on April third.

Lahare At Keno—

Arthur Lahare of Brentwood, California is spending some time in the vicinity of Keno. Mr. Lahare secured a non-resident permit for his automobile while in Klamath Falls.

Returned From Marshfield—

Verda Dean, bookkeeper for La Pointes has returned from Marshfield where she spent the past several days visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Young Returned Home—

Mrs. Thomas Young has returned home from Grants Pass where she spent the past several weeks visiting relatives and friends.

Here From Delano—

Estel M. Gulick of Delano, California making the trip by motor arrived here yesterday for an indefinite stay.

Mrs. Hacker Shopping—

Mrs. William Hacker, registered nurse transacted business in the city yesterday from her home at Fort Klamath.

Entered Business Again—

Sam Smiley and sister, Miss Jo Smiley have entered business in Klamath Falls again after an absence of a year. Before leaving here they sold The Home Bakery. Since returning they have purchased the grocery store on Main and Eleventh street. They plan a number of improvements among which will be installation of a new and up-to-date bakery shop.

Miss Stevens Recovering—

Friends of Miss Mildred Stevens will be pleased to learn she is recovering from serious injuries sustained weeks ago in San Francisco. Miss Stevens suffered a fractured skull. Her mother, Mrs. Levi Stevens is with her in the southern city. Miss Stevens is a registered nurse, having graduated from St. Francis hospital.

Mrs. Mani Here—

Mrs. Stella Sheets Mani, formerly of this city, now a resident of Yreka, California has arrived in the city to spend several days with friends. Mrs. Mani plans to remain here for the meeting of Rebekahs on Thursday evening. Mrs. Mani is a Past Noble Grand of the local lodge.

Visiting Here From Portland—

Miss Dorothy Wiborg, formerly of Klamath Falls, now a resident of Portland is spending several days in the city visiting friends.

Here From Gazette—

W. W. Winingham, resident of Gazette, California, formerly of this city is here on business matters today.

Returned To Fort Klamath—

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Taylor returned to Fort Klamath this morning after transacting business here yesterday.

Visited Here From Prospect—

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Boothby of Prospect were visitors in the city at the home of Mrs. Boothby's father, A. J. Green. Mrs. Roy Vaughn accompanied them to spend several days in this section with relatives and friends.

Battery D. In Practice—

Members of Battery D. are practicing at their local shooting range, preparing for the competitive match to be held in Medford next Sunday. Ashland, Medford, Grants Pass and Klamath Falls teams will compete in the shoot.

All Rebekahs To Meet—

All members of Rebekah lodge are urged to be present Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. Paul Johnson, 734 Walnut at 2 o'clock to march in a body to the funeral service for the late Mrs. Flora Townsend.

Mr. and Mrs. Pelton Hom—

Mr. and Mrs. James Pelton of Fort Klamath are home from an extended visit in California. Today Mr. and Mrs. Pelton are in the city on business. While here they are hotel guests at The Hall.

From Algona—

Mrs. W. E. Stallings of Algona spent Monday in the city shopping and visiting with friends.

Here From Fort Klamath—

Mr. and Mrs. John Copeland transacted business in the city today from Fort Klamath.

Mrs. Gale Shopping—

Mrs. A. E. Gale of Langell Valley spent Monday in the city shopping.

Mrs. Hopkins Here—

Mrs. J. Hopkins and son Tommy were visitors in the city yesterday from Langell Valley.

Lipton Teas are best for Quality and Flavor

The Lipton Tea Estates produce the finest tea in the world. It has been awarded First Prize and Gold Medal in Ceylon and India for quality. Blended by experts, packed by the most up-to-date methods, Lipton's Tea is the best obtainable.

ASK FOR THE YELLOW PACKAGE
GUARANTEED BY Thomas Lipton TEA PLANTER, CEYLON

Lee Morton South—

Lee Morton, manager of McGill's Drug Store in San Francisco for several days on business.

Sutton's From Midland—

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sutton of Midland are business visitors in the city today.

Mrs. Steiger North—

Mrs. J. J. Steiger, Jr., has left for Seattle, Washington with her brother, Charles Johnston to remain for a short time. Charles was called home from the University of Washington by the passing of his mother, Mrs. J. C. Johnston.

RICHFIELD
The GASOLINE OF POWER

"try Richfield"

EASIER STARTING
* GREATER POWER
QUICKER PICK-UP
LONGER MILEAGE

FULOPS TEN BUSY STORES ARE OUT FOR $2,000,000 CLOTHING SALES IN 1929

Charge it!

Your New Spring Suit and Topcoat on Fulops Ten Payment Plan

Fulops' $2,000,000 Campaign Means Finer Quality and Greater Value

TWO SUITS PANTS

$37.50
In Ten Payments
$5 DOWN

Fulops

Next to Pelican Theatre—8th & Klamath Ave.

Credit Privileges at Cash Prices

Fulops Ten Busy Stores
Portland (Two Stores)
Salem
Eugene
Klamath Falls
Vancouver
Longview
Aberdeen
Bellingham
Everett

The Great American Breakfast
QUICK QUAKER OATS

A Distinctive 'K F' Enterprise

KLAMATH HEATING COMPANY
KLAMATH FALLS, ORE.

In the Klamath Heating Company Klamath Falls has a distinctive and unique enterprise—one of the few of its kind on the Pacific Coast. This company operates a central heating plant, serving industrial, municipal and domestic consumers. Ours is the happy business of supplying comfort and utility to our friends.

MORE THAN 100,000 MEN WILL SOON BE WEARING FULOPS CLOTHES