Judge C. Hardy Given Welcome In Court Room

(Special to The Herald)

(Mary Gay, correspondent)

LOS ANGELES, May 1. (U P)—The court room of Superior Judge Carlos S. Hardy took on a festive appearance as the aged jurist made his first appearance on the bench since impeachment proceedings were instituted against him over a $2500 check he accepted from Angelus Temple.

Judge Hardy stood behind the bar and thanked the friends who remained loyal to him before the senate cleared his name.

"This is a momentous day for me," he said, visibly moved, "but I have little to say except to thank my friends for their loyalty during the past unfortunate months and this manifestation of my appreciation it more than I can say."

A profusion of flowers had been placed in the courtroom by friends of the jurist, but after his brief words of thanks he swung into a business like attitude, taking up a case of two men accused of holding up a "dice game."

While Alimce Temple McPherson was said to have made no direct comment in her sermon Sunday regarding the attempt to prove that Judge Hardy had sought to defeat justice by adding in her fight against doubters of her kidnapping story, it was known that she led three rousing cheers for the white-haired Judge.
