Announcement

THE OREGON BOAT CO. is pleased to announce that we can now give you boating service on the Upper Klamath Lake, that heretofore has not been available to the boating enthusiasts of Klamath Falls.

Mooring for your boat together with storage for your outboard motor, with watchman service, assures you of their safety. You may get gas and oil, life preservers, life preserver cushions and small boat accessories, at the dock. We have row-boats for rent at reasonable rates. Rates for launch trips, with competent driver, makes the enjoyment of boating more than reasonable.

We are builders of high grade outboard runabouts, racing hydroplanes and row-boats. We are agents for CAILLE OUTBOARD MOTORS, the "COMMANDERS OF THE WATERWAYS." CAILLE Motors are sold on the easy payment plan, that makes it easy for you to own a CAILLE motor. See the CAILLE before you buy. We can also extend some terms on boats.

The pleasures of water-motoring are not to be compared with any other form of summer outings and you should have your full share of them, with the service we offer. The Klamath Lake offers unexcelled fishing and opportunities to enjoy the sport of water-motoring.

Drive out to the boat-house on the Shipping-ton Road, and let us demonstrate the CAILLE MOTOR and the Baby Buzz runabout.

CROWD HISSES AS CANZONERI GETS DECISION

Andre Routis Outpointed; Finnegan Knocked Out in Sixth Round

CHICAGO, May 11. (AP)—Chicagoans gave evidence that Paddy Hamon's big building, the Chicago stadium, will be a success, at least for boxing, last night, when 24,396 spectators filed the monster arena to witness Tony Canzoneri, former featherweight champion, crash an unpopular decision over Andre Routis, present titleholder.

The crowd was the largest that ever witnessed an indoor boxing show in America. The gate receipts, at popular prices, amounted to around $50,000.

Decision Hissed
The decision of Referee Eddie Parry and the two judges, which was unanimous, was greeted with boos and hisses. The spectators believed Routis was entitled to at least a draw.

Routis' championship was not at stake because both fought above the 126-pound limit.

Routis, a dynamic package of courage and fists, made Canzoneri retreat under a smothering two-fisted body attack. He always came charging in, whaling away.

DUNDIE KAYOES LA MARR WITH RIGH T TO JAW

EUGENE, Ore., May 11. (AP)—Pat Dundie, Los Angeles, Cal., knocked out Bobby La Marr, Portland, in the second round of a scheduled six round, headliner here last night. A left jab over the heart, followed by a straight right to the jaw was enough for La Marr. In the other half of the main event, gentleman Jim Jacobs, Eugene and Tony Odell, Portland, fought a six-round draw.

All modern facilities in the alleviation of human suffering have been installed at the Klamath Valley Hospital.—adv.

Dempsey Boasts a Memory Equal to John McGraw

By AL DEMAREE
(Former Pitcher New York Giants)

John McGraw is the only man in sport that I know of who has a memory as good as Jack Dempsey's.

Jack never forgets a person he is introduced to. He may see a man only a few seconds, but years later if he sees that man again he remembers his name. It is the politician's most valuable art.

When Jack promoted the Sharkey-Strickling bout at Miami, he sent out personal notes to all his friends. When a man got a personal letter from Jack Dempsey, of course he bought tickets.

Memory is just a natural talent. It isn't a question of education. McGraw can recall every play in every game of ball he has ever seen.

HANDSOME ACTOR TO WED LOVELY REP HEAD

NEW YORK, May 11. (AP)—Glenn Hunter, handsome leading man of the musical comedy "Spring Is Here," has turned his fancy in the direction of a young man is supposed to take this season of the year. He is to wed Babe Egan, leader of the Hollywood Redheads, a girl's band.

Either Babe is disregarding advice Glenn once gave to the effect that actors are not good material for husbands, or he has changed his mind.

A Home for the Sick is essential at times. Kindly attention will be given your needs at the Klamath Valley Hospital.—adv.

ELECTRICITY IN AIR WILL BE STUDIED
TUCSON, Ariz., May 11. (UP)—A detailed study of atmospheric electricity, commonly called "static," will be made in a new observatory being erected here.

The U.S. Office, the first of its kind in the United States, is being built through cooperation of the division of terrestrial magnetism and seismology and the Carnegie Institution.

It will become a part of the U. S. Magnetic observatory northeast of Tucson.

GOLF EXPERTS ASTOUNDED BY HAGEN'S SKILL

Englishmen Amazed By Walter's Fourth Great Victory

LONDON, May 11. (AP)—Golfing experts found themselves at a loss today for adjectives in describing Walter Hagen's fourth victory in the British open championship.

Although Britons generally had expected after the Ryder cup matches that some home-bred would halt the American invasion in the open, editorial comment was unanimous in accepting Hagen's victory with good grace.

"Hagen the wizard! there is no other description to apply to this wonder golfer," said Sporting Life. "The man is really unique. Adversity spurs him on and the more difficult his task the greater golf he plays."

That he showed himself utterly unshaken by his defeat in the Ryder cup matches was regarded by the writers as a special indication of his greatness.

"Deserves To Win"
"The man who can thus recover his nerve and his confidence deserves to win," said The Express.

Paying tribute to his extraordinary courage in bounding back after a bad defeat, The Times says:

"No reverse, it seems, can rattle his equality or shake his nerve."
There are some laments for Great Britain's downfall. These were all the more sorrowful in view of the fact that the Ryder cup success had raised hopes of a British victory in the open for the first time since 1923.

Lack Something
"Without crediting the new triumph Hagen so thoroughly deserved," The Post raises its grateful voice to come to the conclusion that British golfers "lack something that makes for victory."

Most of the Americans were in Edinburgh and St. Andrews today. Tomorrow members of the Ryder cup team go to Glenageary, Monday to Manchester and Tuesday to Leeds for the matches.
