SIDE GLANCES

By George Clark

"Who, me?" Say, I must be way ahead on the races.

EVIDENTLY BINNIE

DIDN'T BUY THEM BY NEA SERVICE ALTON, II, May 13.

Mrs. Binnie Burton probably bought her clothes with her own money. Otherwise, her darling husband would not have been so eager to put up her shoes and take her nice new underclothes.

But Binnie didn't pay for them, so she amused herself with a large knife and his wife's shoes. The little wife complained, Binnie was arrested and they went to court.

Mrs. Binnie, Burton charged, wouldn't keep his home tidy and refused to cook for him. Mrs. Binnie charged that she couldn't keep a stitch of clothes because of her playful mate's cutting ways.

The judge told Binnie he must replace the ruined clothes and sent the both of them home to patch up their troubles and keep the peace.
