

BRIEF NEWS of KLAMATH

Boivin Back At Desk—

Harry Boivin, deputy district attorney was back at his desk today following a week's absence. Mr. Boivin visited at San Jose, California with his parents, returning home Tuesday night. Enroute home Mr. Boivin encountered difficulty in driving because of rice bugs which filled the air. It was necessary to stop at intervals and clear the windshield of the bugs as well as the radiator front of the car.

Fairview School Exhibit—

Between the hour of 2 and 5 o'clock on Friday at Fairview school an exhibit of work done by the students during the year will be shown. Parents and friends are invited to call. Children of the fifth and sixth grades will give an interesting program during the afternoon. Refreshments will be served. A meeting, the final of the year will be held by the P. T. A., at 5 o'clock. Officers for the ensuing year are to be elected.

Mrs. Hosking Returned—

Mrs. James Elmer Hosking and brother, Harry Boivin, deputy district attorney returned Tuesday evening from a week's visit at San Jose, California with their parents. Mr. and Mrs. Boivin plan to spend the summer months here visiting their children. They are former residents of Klamath Falls where they resided for many years.

Rosser Goes South—

J. A. Rosser of this city has left for Shreveport, Louisiana, where he plans to remain for some time visiting relatives and friends. Mr. Rosser took advantage of the attractive summer rates offered by The Southern Pacific to southern and eastern points.

Memorial Service at Church—

A Memorial Day Service will be held at St. Paul's Episcopal church Sunday, May 26 to which all patriotic bodies of the city are extended a cordial invitation. Rev. J. Henry Thomas, pastor has prepared a special service for the morning church at 11 o'clock.

Premont Exhibit Friday—

Parents and friends of students attending Premont school are invited to attend an exhibit on Friday afternoon and again Friday evening. Manual training and domestic science students work from all schools of the city will also be displayed.

From Bellingham—

Alice Joann of Bellingham, Washington has taken up her residence at 1403 Division street. Mrs. Joann was among the northern arrivals in the city a few days ago, making the trip by motor.

Jacquelin Barr Improving—

Jacquelin Barr, son of Dr. J. Randolph Barr, who for some time has been seriously ill at Hillside Hospital suffering from pneumonia is now very much improved. He is now able to have visitors.

Returned From Lakeview—

Miss Dorothy Stevens of the chamber of commerce returned early this morning from Lakeview where she motored last evening to attend the entertainment of Jobs' Daughters.

Meriam Circle To Meet—

Members of The Meriam Circle of The First Presbyterian church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. C. M. Hass at her home, 312 Rogers street.

Scott From North—

W. J. Scott of Tacoma, Washington is another northern visitor in Klamath Falls this week. Mr. Scott made the trip by motor, securing a non-resident permit for his automobile yesterday.

From Bakersfield—

C. C. Isom, resident of Bakersfield, California registered at the chamber of commerce yesterday. Mr. Isom plans to remain in Klamath Falls indefinitely.

Registered at The Congress—

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Enright and S. J. Enright were among the Klamath Falls people registered at The Congress in Portland the first of the week.

Here From South Gate—

A. A. Sarver of South Gate, California has arrived in the city for an indefinite visit. Mr. Sarver is stopping at the Lake hotel.

Here From Tacoma—

W. J. Scott of Tacoma, Washington is in the city looking over business possibilities.

Mrs. Balloe Left Today—

Mrs. A. E. Balloe left today for Omaha, Nebraska to visit relatives and friends.
