GENRIG HOISTS OUT HOMER AS NEW YORK WINS

Yankees Creep Up on Philadelphia Athletics Slowly

By WILLIAM J. CHIPMAN (Associated Press Sports Writer)

What with postponements and gaps in the schedule in the non-Sunday cities of Pennsylvania, the Sabbath program in the major leagues yesterday was reduced to exactly one-half of a normal day's campaign. Both the Athletics and Cardinals, the two league leaders, helped themselves by doing nothing at all, and the cause of the Pirates' certainty was not injured by inactivity which prevailed in Pittsburgh.

Although George Pipgras, aided by Lou Gehrig's twelfth home run, picked the Yankees to their second straight decision over the White Sox by 4 to 1 at the Yankee stadium, the Browns were tossed out in Washington by 2 to 1. This defeat dropped the St. Louisans to a position five and one-half games behind the Athletics as the Yankees crept up to within seven and one-half contests of the leaders.

Mack Satisfied

Connie Mack nevertheless gained an important game over St. Louis in the lost column where he now has a margin of seven contests over each of his nearest competitors. It is well known, of course, that baseball players and managers estimate the standing exclusively on the figures of the games lost column.

In defeating the White Sox Pipgras allowed but six hits. Kerr's single and Metzler's triple in the third saved Chicago from a shut-out.

After trailing St. Louis by 1 to 0 for seven rounds, Washington tied the score against George Blahodier in the eighth and then won out in the ninth on Joe Cronin's double and two sacrifices. Irvin Hadley won his first victory of the season against seven defeats.

Red Sox Win

Red Sox bats hammered a merry tune against the Barriers at Braves Field at the expense of Messrs. Shaute and Ferrell, and Boston won by 12 to 3.

With rain in both St. Louis and Cincinnati, the National league program was confined to Wrigley Field where the Giants and the Cubs braved wintry blasts from Lake Michigan to amuse 37,000 Sabbath clients. Sheriff Fred Blake plunged into a desperate duel with Larry Benton for six innings, but blew up in the seventh under the strain of a 9 to 0 score. The Giants put six hits together for four runs and won eventually by 4 to 1. Norman McMillan saved the men of McCarthy from a shut-out by opening the ninth with a home run, one of the five hits off Benton.

The victory gave the Giants two out of their last eleven, and placed them three and one-half games from the top. It is important to note that the Cardinals and the Pirates have lost only two games fewer than the clan McGraw.

SEALS CAPTURE ANOTHER PAIR FROM PORTLAND

Lowly Ducks Unable to Cope With Hard Hitting Californians

(By The Associated Press)

Pacific coast league hurlers failed yesterday to curb a new outbreak of heavy hitting in the week-end double headers.

The San Francisco Seals continued their slugging attack at Portland, and that combined with effective pitching by Elmer Jacobs and Hollis Thurston gave the Seals two more wins. Jacobs blanked the Ducks in the first game 6 to 0, while Thurston beat them 5 to 3 in the nightcap.

The Mission Reds and Sacramento Senators broke even in their two games at Recreation park here. The Missions won the morning battle 7 to 5, but the Senators took the afternoon contest 4 to 2. The series went to the Missions 5 games out of 8. The afternoon affair proved to be a pitching duel between Bert Cole and old Don Crandall, with the veteran Crandall finishing out in front.

Hollywood won both games in Los Angeles from the Oaklanders, nosing out the bay team in the first 11 to 10, and scoring a shut-out in the second 6 to 0. In the first game the Stars took 17 hits off McAvoy, Daglia and Jeffcoat. The Oaks got 14 hits. In the afternoon the Stars took 13 hits, and Kinney held their northern foes to but 5 well scattered raps.

The Seattle Indians took a double header in their home town from the Los Angeles Angels. The scores were 7 to 4, and 12 to 2. The Indians eluded and whanged out a dozen. Poor fielding by the Angels in the second game accounted largely for their defeat.

Breaks Course Record After A Pint Breakfast

By AL DEMAREE (Former Pitcher, N. Y. Giants)

Alex Smith, older brother of MacDonal Smith and the late Willie Smith is probably the greatest philosopher and wit in golf.

One of his favorite stories is how Willie, returning from a night of celebrating the morning before the start of a British Open tournament, lay down on the first tee for a few winks of sleep.

On being awakened he asked for a pint of Scotch whiskey. Thus refreshed he broke a course record that had stood for a hundred years.

One day Bruce MacAlpin, a fellow Scotchman and one of his pupils complained that he had went "out" in 41 and came "in" in 55!

"What in h—l did you come in for?" replied Alex.

"How do you keep from topping?" he was asked one day.

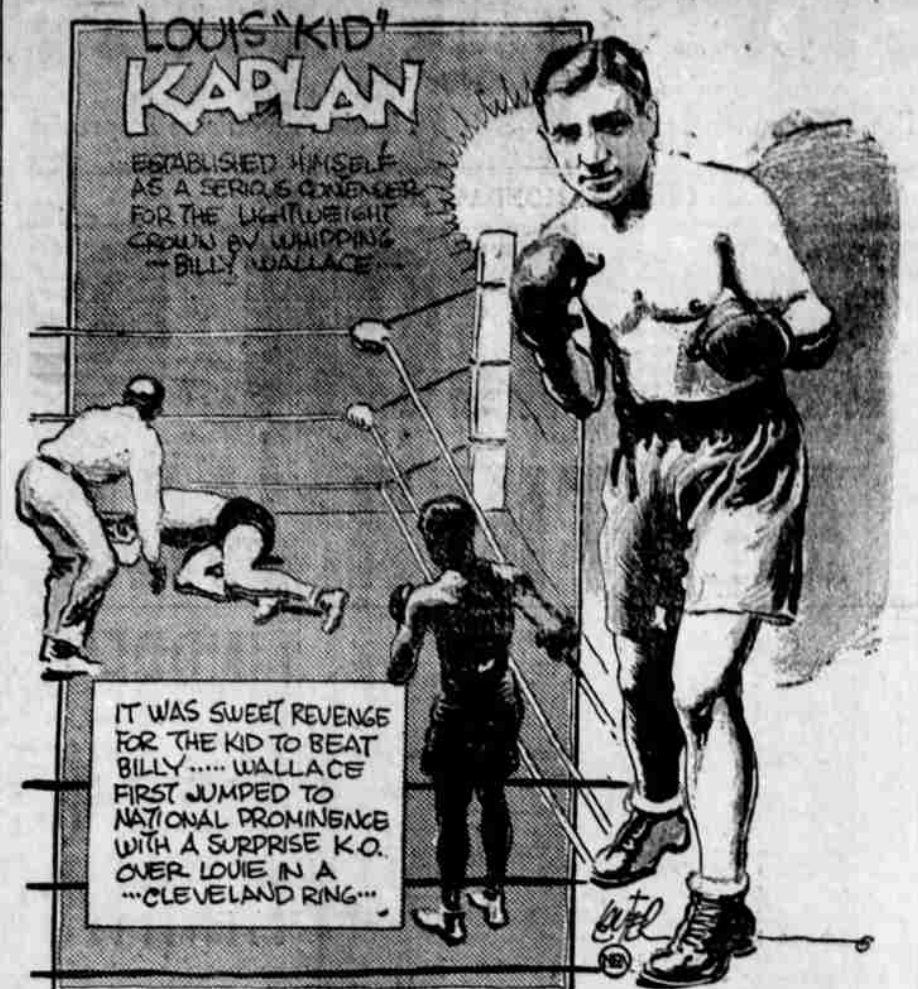

"Turn the ball over and hit it on the bottom," was Smith's laconic reply.

Joe Cantillon was the only man I ever met in baseball who compared in ready wit and story telling ability with Alex.

DIAMOND LAKE YIELDS LIMITS

Popular Fishing Resort Patronized by Many Anglers

Diamond lake, the most popular fishing resort in Oregon, yielded many limit catches to enterprising anglers who were on hand Saturday and Sunday with flies, spoons and wadon plugs to try their luck.

From all parts of the state fishermen arrived to match their wits against the scrappy redsides of the Cascade lake. Despite the earliness of the season, several excellent catches were made with flies—a dark colored fly, preferably a black gnat, seemed to be the most popular among the finny denizens.

T. P. Ristgen, Sam Adolph and R. A. Crowden of Portland made exceptional catches with fly fishing, for the most part on the east side.

Matt Ryckman, state superintendent of fish hatcheries, was in another party whose members included Representative E. W. Snell, State Prohibition Commissioner George Alexander, Charles F. Storey, feature writer of the Increased efficiency is the order of the day. It accounts for the greater power, economy, speed of the new cars. The new Fords you now see by hundreds get their power from such an improved motor.

Yet there are people who wish you'd never even heard of this change in motors.

They are the refiners of motor oils that form quantities of hard, gritty carbon. Such oils were had enough in old-style roomy engines. They are ruinous in the newer cars! Hard carbon causes knocking, engine strain. Flakes chip off and grind through tight pistons and bearings. Particles get under valves, making them leak power, warp, burn quickly.

There is one motor oil, however, that lubrication engineers pronounce ideal for present day lubrication. It actually forms only 1/3 to 1/5 as much carbon as even the costliest oils sold! The little it does form is just a soft soot carried away easily by the exhaust.

It is Shell Motor Oil. The new high-vacuum process by which it is made gives it other important qualities, too. It withstands violent temperature changes which would break down old-style oils. It holds its body—not only when it is cool but under the intense heat inside a high-compression motor.

DENNY LENHART AND E. RITCHIE FIGHT FRIDAY

Fast Legion Fight Card Announced; Warneke in Semi-Windup

Earl Ritchie, Klamath Falls heavyweight, who despite his ups and downs, is a good fighter and certainly an A-1 drawing card, will be given his "big shot" next Friday night in a main event between Denny Lenhart, light heavyweight champion of both the U. S. navy and U. S. army.

Lenhart is already in Klamath Falls for his bout and both he and Ritchie will work out tonight at the Legion gymnasium at 6 o'clock.

The supporting card is composed of real fighters who have been tried and found true in Klamath rings.

Ray Huffman whose great draw with Billy Church in the semi-windup of the last fight card here, will most the elusive and hard hitting Frankie Warneke in the semi-windup. The two are 150 pounders. Spud Murphy, who is an audience puller from first to last, will take on Zachie Lewis who possessed one of the hardest punches of any 150 pound fighter in the northwest. They will fight a six round special event.

Eddie Edelman, 133 pounds, will clash with the toughest boy of his career when he crosses gloves with Earl Forse, who, last year, drew with Ritchie King, (fighting a main event in Portland this week) and who lost two decisions to Billy Wallace, eastern lightweight flash.

In addition there will be a four round curtain raiser.

Jesse DeMotte who fought a main event in Klamath Falls on the last card, will work out with Ritchie tonight. There will be fourteen fighters who will put on gloves and go at each other in work-out this evening.

FRENCH TITLE WON BY HELEN

Straight Sets Victory Over Mme Mathieu Scored Sunday

PARIS, June 3. (AP)—Helen Wills again has demonstrated her right to sit on the throne as queen of the world's tennis courts.

She won the women's singles championship of the French hard court tournament yesterday by defeating the No. 1 ranking player of France, Mme. Rene Mathieu, 6-3, 6-4, in the final round.

The American girl's victory not only gave her the French title for the second year in succession but showed clearly at the same time that she ranks in a class by herself among women tennis players. Mme. Mathieu put up a plucky fight but whenever there was need to apply pressure Miss Wills clearly demonstrated her superiority. She trailed, then to two in the first set and then ran out four games in a row to win. In the second, Mme. Mathieu pulled even at four games all only to see the American take the next two in easy fashion for set, match and championship.

Jean Borotra stunned a crowd of 13,000 yesterday by eliminating Henri Cochet, ranking No. 1 player of the world in a thrilling five-set battle.

Bill Tilden, with Frank Hunter, plan to play a few matches in Zurich and then will go to Holland for the Dutch championships beginning June 10. From Holland the Americans leave for Wimbledon for the British championships.
