Here's Our Helen, All Dressed Up to the Queen's Taste

Big Cache Of Dope Located Aboard Vessel

SEATTLE, Wash., June 8, (AP)—Narcotics valued at $100,000 were held by customs inspectors today who boarded the blue funnel liner Ixion when it docked here late yesterday from the Orient.

The narcotics were found concealed beneath the chain lockers ten minutes after the officers stepped aboard. It was the largest seizure here for the past ten years.

The 1,037 tins were stamped with the name of Lo Fook Kee, Hong Kong, while a number bore labels inscribed "Karl von Koenig, Wurtemburg."

A long steel probe with an electric light attached was used to discover the narcotics, 499 tins on the port side and 538 in the starboard compartment.

Under the law the ship is liable to a fine of $25 an ounce for bringing in the contraband. This would total about $200,000, customs officers said.

MAN LEAPS TO DEATH BEFORE LARGE CROWD

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8, (UP)—Before the gaze of horrified persons who crowded the streets below, Walter P. Rutledge, white-haired apartment manager, jumped to his death from the twentieth floor of a downtown building here yesterday.

The 60 year old man left a note for his wife that he could not control his quick temper and had determined on the the leap to conquer it.

REMOVABLE VESTEE.

A black satin frock has its waist cut tuxedo, with a three-inch circular flounce outlining the front. The finely pleated suntan chiffon vestee is removable for cleaning.
