BOTH PIRATES, GIANTS BEATEN

Yankees Win As Gehrig Hits 13th and 14th Homers

(By WILLIAM J. CHAPMAN)

The week-end campaign in the major leagues found both the Pirates and the Giants arriving at the end of their spurts, but giving their opponents no guarantee against an immediate resumption. Red Lucas pitched one of the best games he has flashed this season to shade the veteran Jack Scott and the Giants by 2 to 1 at Redland field yesterday as the Pirates crumpled before an eighth-round assault at Ebbets field where the Robins took a 9 to 6 decision. The defeat of both teams currently rated as the most dangerous in the National league enabled the Cardinals and the Cubs to improve their positions a bit. The Red Birds had some difficulty with Claude Willoughby, but bunched their hits in such a way as to win by 5 to 4. Jess Halsos was tight in the pitcher, and had to be for the Phils on his support, 13 to 2.

The Carls climbed to within half a game of the Pirates and remained one contest ahead of the third-place Braves.

With Babe Ruth in the stands as a spectator, the Yankees stampeded the Browns by 17 to 2 in the series opener yesterday. Lon Gehrig and Semmy Byrd led the early assault with home runs. Gehrig with two and Byrd with one, and after that, the Yanks coasted, hitting everything that was served to them. The victory sent the Yanks into second place. Seven full games behind the leading Athletics.

Gehrig's two homers sent his total for the season to 14, giving him the lead in his own league and sending him into a tie with Klein of the Phillies and Hafey of the Cardinals in the interleague race.

With the Athletics and the White Sox idle, awaiting the anticipated feat of the Mackmen this week, action along the rest of the American league front was confined to Boston and Washington. George Uhle, who won nine games before losing one, met his second defeat of the season when he weakened toward the finish at Braves Field, permitting the Red Sox to score six times in the last two innings to gain a 7 to 6 margin. Ed Morris went the route for Boston.

Ad Liska, the promising recruit from the American association, picked up his best advance notice in touring back the Indians by 5 to 2 at Washington. The Senators clubbed John Miljus for four runs in the third, and Liska coasted in with only one bad inning—the fourth, which saw both the Cleveland runs scored.

RUTH ATTENDS YANKEE GAME

Cheers As Lou Cracks Out 13th Home Run

NEW YORK, June 10, (AP)—Babe Ruth may be too ill to play baseball these days but he can't keep away from the game that made him famous.

With his wife, the former Claire Hodgson, Babe was a spectator at yesterday's game between the Yankees and the Browns. The famous slugger didn't go near the Yankee bench but sat in a box along the right field stands.

He stood up and cheered when his friendly rival, Lou Gehrig, hit his 13th home run and was dissuaded only with difficulty from tossing away his expensive hat when "Columbia Lou" shot his 14th into the right field bleachers later.

Still a bit weak from a severe cold, Ruth was able, nevertheless to talk a good game of baseball.

"I hope they keep up this hitting against the Browns and the Tigers," he said. "I'll be back to help them against the Athletics—the only team we have to beat."

LAKEVIEW NINE NOSED OUT IN CLOSE BATTLE

Before a fair-sized crowd, the Lost River baseball team defeated the Lakeview nine 6 to 5 in a thrilling and thrilling eleven-inning game at the county fair grounds yesterday.

Why Can't They Be Broadminded

SAN FRANCISCO CREEPS UP ON LEAGUE LEADER

Seals Take Double Header; Ducks Drop Double Header

(By The Associated Press)

With Pacific coast league teams fast approaching mid-season form, the league leading clubs were closely grouped in the standings after yesterday's double headers.

The second place San Francisco Seals, champions of last year's race, continued to creep up on the San Francisco Missions, leaders of the pack, by twice drubbing the Hollywood Stars at Recreation Park here. The morning game was won 8 to 7 after an uphill fight, and the afternoon score was taken by 9 to 7. Sacramento took both ends of the program from the Seattle Indians, and made it six out of seven for the week, in the California at Stockton. The morning game at Stockton was a ten-inning battle which the Seals won 5 to 4. In the nightcap the Seals ran away from the tribe 8 to 1.

Los Angeles and the Missions split even, the Reds winning the opener 10 to 7, and the Angels capturing the seven-inning closing game 3 to 2 to take the odd game of the series, played in the southern city. The Angels now maintain third place in the standings.

Oakland took both ends of the double bill with the Portland Ducks. The first game score was 1 to 0, and the second 8 to 5. The Oaks thus won six out of seven for the week. The Oaks gained on the third place Angels by their double win. Pete Daglia, husky Akron hurler, was the star of the day, and just missed pitching the first no-hit, no-run game of his career. Art Jahn scored the only hit of the game in the ninth inning.
