

Denny Lenhart and Gene O'Grady Clash in Main Battle Tonight

SPENCER WILL MEET ESKIMO IN 6 ROUNDER

Mahrs Rymer and Frankie Monroe are Matched in Return Bout

The stage is set, the fighters are in condition and a large house is anticipated for the legion fight card which will open this evening at Memorial hall at 8:45 o'clock.

It is a well balanced card with any one or two preliminaries likely to blossom forth into a fight of main event caliber.

The tall, angular, glove-throwing Denny Lenhart meets the scrappy Gene O'Grady in the ten round main event. Both will weigh 175 pounds. Lenhart has had two fights in Klamath Falls. In his first he gave away 34 punches to Earl Ritchie, made a chopping block of the behemoth for four rounds and then ran in to solar plexus punch that dropped him for the count in the fifth. A week later he was whaled away at the tough Jess DeMott for ten rounds, taking the decision.

O'Grady's record is well known here. He rose to prominence here when he stowed away the highly touted Kevin O'Carroll in two minutes; he has never lost a fight and has met such boys as Peter Jackson, Nails Gorman and Orville Darr.

Eddie Edleman, the Eskimo Indian, meets one of the toughest boys of his career in Johnny Spencer, the high school sensation of Seattle, who, aside from being beat in his third fight, has never been defeated. Spencer combines skill and punch. Edleman is a slow starter but when stung is aroused to a fighting fury.

Second chapter of the fistie feud between Mahrs Rymer of Lakeview and Frankie Monroe of Klamath Falls will be held tonight. Monroe got the nod their last meeting, but the fans thought it should have been a draw. They are well matched—Rymer is the better long range fighter while Monroe excels in the in-fighting.

Jackie Lewis of Marshfield who knocked out Eddie O'Carroll in the second round of their fight on the last card, meets a tougher boy in Billy Robinson of Chiloquin tonight in a four round preliminary. They are welterweights.

Shrimp McDonald who comes from Lakeview with a good "rep" will tangle with Buddy Randall in the curtain raiser.

Joe Swindler, chief of police, will referee.

Fans Try Some Phoney Tricks To Crash Gate

I JUST SPoke TO GABBY HARTNETT AND HE SAID TO LET US IN—

GABBY IS IN THE HOSPITAL! THINK UP A BETTER ONE!

ONE EYE CONOLLY IS NOT THE ONLY "GATE" OPENER.

THEY ELEVATED ROAD TICKETS (ISNT ANY GOOD HERE?)

DE ADD SAID TO USE TO ELEVATED ROAD TICKET TO DE BALL GAMES!

By AL DEMAREE
(Former Pitcher N. Y. Giants)
Crashing the gate of the pass entrance is one of the light occupations around many big league ball parks. Newspapers frequently have a system of leaving a "list" at the gate, including the name of the sporting editor. Occasionally smart chaps get wise to this system and go to the pass gate early and ask for the "two" in the sports editor's name. Then when the people the editor sends out finally arrive they find their "tickets" already used up.

Sometimes fans come there as I say a certain ball player wants them let in. Recently at Wrigley field in Chicago two fellows came to the pass gate and said that they'd just seen Gabby Hartnett out in front of the park and he said to let them in. The man at the gate happened to know, however, that Hartnett was in the hospital at that very moment having his tonsils removed.

Al Campion, who is "on" the pass gate at Cubs park also told me about an old colored fellow who came there one day and presented his weekly ticket on the Elevated.

"That's no good here," Al explained.

"Well," replied the old fellow, "it says, 'Use your 'L' card for the ball games,' don't it?"

Ball players usually are admitted at the pass gates of rival parks, but I have seen Lou Meadows turned down because he wore glasses.

THE CARD

Denny Lenhart, ex-navy champion, vs. Gene O'Grady, Ashland, weight 172 pounds, ten round main event.

Johnny Spencer, Seattle, lightweights, vs. Eddie Edleman, Seattle, weight 133 pounds, six round semi-windup.

Mahr: Rymer, Lakeview, lightweight, vs. Frankie Monroe, Klamath Falls, four round special event.

Jackie Lewis, Marshfield, vs. Billy Robinson, Chiloquin, welterweights, four round preliminary.

Shrimp McDonald, Lakeview, vs. Buddy Randall, Klamath, four round preliminary.

Joe Swindler, referee.

WILSON MAKES GOOD PROMISE TO CUBS TEAM

CHICAGO, June 21, (AP)—Hack Wilson has made good his promise to accomplish great deeds with his bludgeon if restored to his old clean-up position in the Cubs' lineup.

Since supplanting Rogers Hornsby in that role three days ago, the pudgy Dutchman has blasted four home runs and a good assortment of singles and doubles. His batting was a factor in the Cubs' four straight victories over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Hornsby, moved to third position in the batting order, and has responded as has Kiki Cuyler, who was moved from third to fifth place.

ROBERT TUNES UP STROKE FOR GOLF TOURNEY

MAMARONECK, New York, June 21, (AP)—So far in the preparations for the National open golf championship, which will be held over the Winged Foot course here next week, Robert Tyre Jones, the young Atlanta lawyer, has gained a monopoly on the fine performances.

He had a 69 yesterday. On Wednesday he did 29-31-70.

Bobby's partners yesterday were Joe Kirkwood, Gene Sarazen and Johnny Farrell. Farrell had an approximate medal score of 75, Sarazen 76 and Kirkwood 77.

SAN FRANCISCO AT THRESHOLD OF LEADERSHIP

Seals Nick Mission Reds Again; Oakland in Third Place

(By The Associated Press)
Hard luck continued to pour down on the league leading Mission Reds yesterday as the San Francisco Seals continued their advance, and the Oakland Oaks pressed forward in third place. As a result of yesterday's victory, the Seals were only one game behind the Reds with three straight in their sack.

Gusie Suhr, home run king of the coast league, clouted out a circuit rounder in the sixth inning, two out and a man on base, to give the Seals a 6 to 4 victory.

The Seattle Indians met defeat at the hands of the Oaklanders, due to a bad first inning, when the Oaks scored three runs on as many hits. The final score was 5 to 2.

Sacramento required ten innings to defeat Ducks, 5 to 1, in the camp of the Quack-Quacks.

The Los Angeles Angels with the aid of Clyde Barfoot, masterful hurler, put an end to their losing streak by pounding out a 12 to 2 margin over the Hollywood stars.

SOLE SURVIVOR FISHING BOAT TELLS TRAGEDY

LONDONBERRY, Ireland, June 21, (AP)—Patrick Coll, fisherman, has arrived here, the sole survivor of four men whose fishing boat was run down by a steamer off the Donegal coast Wednesday morning.

Coll said he and his shipmates clung to the stern of the wrecked boat until one after another of his comrades dropped into the tempestuous sea. The last to perish was Tom Coll, 65, who exclaimed, "I can't stick it any longer," and uttering a prayer sank beneath the waves.

Patrick Coll abandoned hope but lashed himself to a piece of timber on the cranes of drifting ashore. The steamer Brier Thorne picked him up after he had been in the water nine hours.

MEDICINE MAN GOES ON TRIAL

FORT MYERS, Fla., June 21, (AP)—Before a court of his own people, at the annual dance of green corn today, Josie Billy, Seminole Indian medicine man without the aid of alienist or psychiatrist, will answer a charge of slaying Nat-Che, widowed squaw, with a plea that he was temporarily insane while under the influence of liquor.

Deep in the everglades, the tribe has gathered to celebrate this festival and to try the medicine man who in the past has sat in judgment upon his fellows.

Whatever the verdict and it may be death or trial by fire, it will be executed summarily, and without interference from the white men for the courts have taken no action in the case.

His condition was said to be serious at press time this afternoon.

BOWLING RESULTS

Mixed doubles in the bowling tournament opened Wednesday, the first of the four set series being played.

Excel ment among the ladies was quite apparent at the opening. With good team work, Klamath should be able to boast some splendid teams among the ladies by next 11.

Following are the scores made last night:

YALE OARSMEN BEAT HARVARD

REGATTA COURSE, NEW LONDON, Conn., June 21, (AP)—Yale won the first two races of its annual regatta with Harvard on the Thames here today, winning the junior varsity by four lengths after the bull dog freshmen had nosed out the crimson by three-quarters of a length in the opening brush. Both races were over a two mile course up stream.

The freshman encounter was a thriller from start to finish. Yale pulling out the victory in the last 75 yards, but the bull dogs were masters of the situation throughout the Junior Varsity race.

EVERY SLAYER PAYS PENALTY

LONDON, June 21, (UP)—Every murder committed in London in 1928 was solved and the culprit was convicted or took his own life, according to the official police report issued today.

There were 18 murders of persons more than one year old. Eleven culprits were convicted and seven committed suicide, the report said.

The report did not include 3 deaths which followed illegal operations nor six infant murders.

With H. L. Mencken the pen is mighty like the sword.

Giants Lambaste Phillies All Over Baseball Diamond

(By The Associated Press)
The impending battle between the American league Titans tended somewhat to dim the fury of the National league battle yesterday, and caused the auxiliary campaign in the American league to miss all but passing attention. For all of this fact the rejuvenated Cubs shelled Grover Cleveland Alexander and others sufficiently to shade the Cardinals 7 to 6 for the fourth straight Chicago triumph.

The Giants whaled the Phillies by 11 to 6 and the Braves won another from the Robins, 4 to 2, in remaining National League fixtures. The Giants won because Carl Hubbell settled down after a shaky start and because Luther Roy declined to descend. The New Yorkers collected seventeen hits off Roy and "Ace" Elliott, running their total for three winning games to fifty-five, and average of 18 1-3 blows a contest.

The Pirates and the Reds were idle. Results in the National league gave the Cubs a somewhat more comfortable margin over the Pirates, and dropped the champion Cardinals further into the mire of third place. The gain of the Giants, except in regard to their immediate designs upon third place, was negligible.

The American league campaign yesterday consisted of victories for Boston, Detroit and Chicago. The Athletics and the Yankees, of course, were idle. The Red Sox rallied to pull out a 6 to 4 decision against Ad Liska and Brown in Washington as MacFadyen checked the senatorial attack at eight hits. Young Ed Walsh pitched four hit balls against St. Louis to win by 5 to 3, and the Detroit Tigers hit hard to win by 8 to 4 over the Indians in Cleveland.

Spider Pladner Knocked Eighteen Times During Bout

PARIS, June 21, (AP)—What looked like a soft spot for Spider Pladner turned out to be a very hard one and as a result the little French fighter is in the hospital today instead of preparing for a trip to the rings of the United States.

Pladner entered the ring last night against Gene Huat, an almost unknown French bantamweight, but with plenty of confidence that the skill and punch that carried him to victories over such fighters as Izzy Schwartz and Frankie Genaro would carry him through against Huat. of his career, being knocked down eighteen times before the referee stepped in to halt the slaughter. Pladner managed to keep the affair on fairly even terms until the fifteenth round when most of the damage was done.

After the fight he was taken to the hospital barbershop where the doctors said he would be as good as ever after a few repairs, but his proposed American tour seemed a very dim possibility. Pladner, who won most of his important victories as a flyweight but joined the bantam ranks recently, was to start for the United States next month.

PLANE FACTORY RAZED BY FIRE

VAN NUYS, Calif., June 21, (UP)—Fire which started when the soldering iron came in contact with airplane wing fabric destroyed the assembly plant of the Bach Aircraft corporation at Los Angeles metropolitan airport today.

Damage was estimated at $200,000, covered by insurance. Four passenger planes nearing completion were burned. The only ship taken from the hangar in flames was among those destroyed.
