

Family Court Magistrate Gives His Ideas of Women

BY SAM LOVE
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
NEW YORK, June 26, (UP)—Woman, lovely woman, would be shocked to know how she appears to Magistrate Alexander Brough, who has been peering at her with increasing skepticism during six years he has presided over the New York family court.

Those six years, Magistrate Brough admitted today, have chased him away from seeing eye to eye with the poets. They have, in fact, lined the judge up with H. L. Mencken, the well-known bachelor who has for long blighted up his red suspenders and taken to flight every time he got a whiff of Egyptian Nights perfume.

And He Learned... Magistrate Brough learned about women in court, and here are some of the things he said he learned:

Women are liars. They have no sense of law and order.

They have no sense of consideration or fairness towards their husbands. Instead of being the pursued, they are the pursuers, often seeking a wedding ring simply to avoid the social stigma (among women) of appearing undesirable.

They marry a $25-a-week man and holler because they can't live on a $60-a-week scale.

Given $15 a week as the maximum for the family budget, they will blow $10 on a permanent wave.

Lack Sentiment

They are so lacking in sentiment (Aha! Brother Mencken, didn't you tack that one on the creature's white back?) that they don't even remember their own wedding day. They say "I was married three or four years ago," and that does nicely.

They are loafers, co-sleepers, brawlers, poor sports and no help.

Magistrate Brough pauses for breath. Also to qualify. He does not believe that all women are that way. No, indeed, only most of the ones who come into court. Outside of court, Magistrate Brough prefers to believe that ladies ride around behind their knights on white palfreys, eternally grateful for being rescued from certain dragons.

What Can You Do? "Why, a woman was in court yesterday wanting me to increase the payments her husband was making for her support," said the judge.

"Our social workers investigated and found that he could not pay her any more. When I denied her request, she got so angry she slapped and scratched her husband right there in court."

"What can you do to her? You can't send a mother to jail for contempt of court and let her children go without care." Tut! Tut! The Magistrate scratched his chin.

"Another woman the other day," he said, "wanted more money and said she wasn't working. Our investigator knew she was."

"Oh well," she admitted, "I knew I'd get more money if you thought I was dependent on him."

"And when I threatened her with prosecution for perjury, she just laughed and said 'Don't care.'"

"She was a mother, too, with children, who had to be considered."

The Judge Figures

Magistrate Brough rubbed his nose. "They've all got old clothes to wear in court," he said. "They all dress to look seedy when asking money. Usually they accuse the husband of going around with other women. I figure the absolute minimum for a man to live on is $2 a day, and when he's paying $15 to her out of $30 wages, there

SCREEN STAR BREAKS NOSE IN ACCIDENT

LOS ANGELES, June 27, (U. P.)—Bessie Love, film actress, suffered a broken nose and a cut near her left eye last night when her automobile was struck by another machine. Four stitches were taken in the cut at Georgia street police emergency hospital. The actress was taken to her home. It was not believed that her injuries would leave any permanent marks.

STOCKHOLM HIT BY BIG BLAZE

STOCKHOLM, June 27, Thursday, (UP)—Firemen early today halted the spread of what is believed to have been Stockholm's greatest fire, which did more than $1,000,000 damage in the center of the city business district.

The fire, which caused injury to 17 firemen, started in a paper factory owned by the Swedish Lithograph trust, on Queen street, in the center of the city. Despite the efforts of the city's fire fighting strength, it spread rapidly.

Many firemen narrowly escaped death as roofs and walls crashed suddenly.

Omnibus and tram tickets issued in London each day total up to 7,000,000.

Something To Think About

Goodyear Tires are the product of the largest rubber company in the world. Direct from factories. They are sold by the largest and most successful body of retail merchants in the world. They are the beneficiaries of the largest steadily advancing science of the largest tire engineering and development department in the world. Their excellence is subject to continual check and trial 24 hours a day on the largest tire test fleet in the world.

Their quality is kept uniform by the most closely controlled manufacturing process and inspection exercised by any rubber company in the world. They embody standards of materials and workmanship equalled in no other like product in the world.

They are so, unmistakably better in performance and value that their percentage of gain in sales last year was nearly THREE TIMES the percentage of gain in sales recorded for the industry as a whole.

No! All tires are NOT alike. Remember the outstanding points of Goodyear tires: Supertwist cord carcass construction, giving greater resistance; traction that helps you stop and start. And proof—more people ride on Goodyear tires than any other kind.
