Mr. C. F. Redlich, the successful expert says:
The "Perfect Retention Shields" hold the rupture perfectly, no matter what position the body assumes or how heavy a weight you lift. They give instant relief, contract the opening in a remarkably short time and strengthen the weak tissues (the real cause of rupture) so that they frequently recover their previous natural retaining power, needing no further outside support. Stomach trouble, backache and constipation often caused by Rupture promptly disappear.
Truly remarkable and prompt only with recent and not fully results have been obtained not developed ruptures but also with old, long neglected ones.
Ingenious, recently perfected devices are now holding ruptures firmly which heretofore never had been retained.
No elastic belts nor filthy leg-straps are used.
I guarantee the durability of my absolutely airtight and moisture proof, sanitary appliances. 75% of ruptured children recover completely through expert mechanical treatment according to statistics.
Do not waste your money on widely advertised mail order contraptions. You cannot fit yourself.

FAILS IN SUICIDE ATTEMPT
LOS ANGELES, June 27, (UP)—When Sam D. Newberry attempted suicide today by turning on the gas in his room he got a headache so he filled his pockets with bricks and jumped into the Pacific ocean. Despite his hailstorm, he was hauled out. "Life isn't worth living and it's too hard to die," he said after the second failure.

SAN FRANCISCO WOMEN KILLED IN AUTO CRASH

Hospital Attendant Held on Charge of Manslaughter.

REDWOOD CITY, June 27, (AP)—Investigating officers announced today that formal charges of manslaughter and driving while drunk probably would be filed against Carl Flannigan, Palo Alto hospital attendant and driver of the automobile that crashed into a limousine and killed two San Francisco society women near Menlo Park yesterday.

Matter and otherwise acting queerly, Flannigan was brought here yesterday and put into a padded cell, after he had been examined by Dr. Harper Peddicord. The physician declared Flannigan had been intoxicated.

The victims of the crash, Mrs. Henry J. Crocker, widow of San Francisco capitalist, and Mrs. Louis Montague, prominent in philanthropy in the bay district, apparently were killed instantly when Flannigan's car, coming suddenly out of a cross road, struck the Crocker automobile and jammed it into a tree at the side of the highway.

Mrs. Fannie Crocker McCready, sister-in-law of Mrs. Crocker, who also was in the limousine, was critically injured. She was taken to a Palo Alto hospital.

Officers said they had located persons who would testify that Flannigan's car had been moving along the lateral road at 40 to 50 miles an hour just before the crash.

Disarmament Discussed by Gibson, Dawes

LONDON, June 27, (AP)—Ambassador Charles G. Dawes and Ambassador Hugh Gibson discussed methods of approach on the naval disarmament problem with Premier Ramsay MacDonald on Tuesday; but reached no definite form. Ambassador Dawes announced this afternoon at a press conference.

Announcements regarding matters of procedure in attacking the naval problem must be made by those in authority in the countries concerned and not by ambassadors, "who are merely agents," he said.

Ambassador Dawes considered that his discussions with Ambassador Gibson, who left for Brussels today, were of the greatest value because of Mr. Gibson's intimate knowledge of the disarmament question.

AT THE THEATRES

AT THE PINE TREE

Acclaimed everywhere as one of the greatest film epics ever produced, "Lilac Time," First National's Colleen Moore-George Fitzmaurice special production, based on the stage play by Jane Cowie and Jane Muffin, has been booked for a featured run at the Pine Tree theatre which began yesterday.

"Lilac Time" is by all odds a great special and the most pretentious in which Colleen Moore has appeared to date. Already known as the screen's foremost comedienne, her role in this production established her on the topmost pinnacle as a dramatic actress. The tenderness, pathos and realism of her characterization of the little French girl makes "Lilac Time" one of the most discussed pictures of the year, and the Pine Tree is indeed fortunate in obtaining such an early booking.

George Fitzmaurice's direction of this colorful love story is said to be the best of his long career.

The supporting cast of "Lilac Time" includes Gary Cooper, hero of "Beau Geste," "The Legion of the Condemned" and other big productions; Burt McIntosh, George Cooper, Eugene Moore, Kathryn McGuire, Eugene Bessner, Emil Chautard, Jack Stone and many others.

AT THE PELICAN

A man-hunting woman in the land of man-eating lions is the central figure in the plot of "A Dangerous Woman." Paramount all-talking picture which comes to the Pelican theatre for a three day run today.

Bacalova, the dynamic Russian actress, who was last seen and heard in the George Bancroft success, "The Wolf of Wall Street," plays the title role in this tale of three white men and one white woman in the jungle region of Africa east of the Congo.

The story has a gripping plot in which Bacalova tangles the romantic yearnings of the men into twisted disappointments amidst the mystic background of the steaming, matted jungle with its native tribesmen and weird, aboriginal dances.

AT THE VOX

It's a safe bet that you'll like "Trial Marriage," the Columbia production which is being shown at the Vox theatre. It is a tense society drama woven around a timely theme. The problems presented by the characters are those which might face any individual.

The chief concern of the drama is trial marriage, whether it is successful or not, and the pitfalls that lurk in the path of an unconventional marriage. The story concerns two girls, half-sisters and daughters of a much married father. Their home life and environment have taught them to regard marriage lightly.
