

NEWS IN BRIEF

Mr. and Mrs. Barnstable Here—
Mr. and Mrs. R. L. L. Barnstable, parents of Chris Barnstable, local real estate man have arrived from their home in Scranton, Iowa to visit here for some time at the Barnstable home. This is their first trip west and they are thoroughly enjoying the Klamath country. They made the trip via Salt Lake City and Reno, Nev. From here they plan to motor on north to Portland and then into Idaho to visit before returning east. It is 11 years since Mr. Barnstable saw his parents. "They have changed little in that length of time, strange as it may seem," Mr. Barnstable said.

De Marais Locates in Klamath—
K. A. DeMarais, traveling agent for the Southern Pacific, formerly located in Salem has arrived in Klamath Falls to make his future home. Mr. De Marais will be traveling agent for this territory. Within the near future as soon as Mr. De Marais can locate a suitable home, Mrs. De Marais and their two children, Duane and Evelyn will arrive from the capital city to make Klamath Falls their future home. Today Mr. De Marais visited the business men, making himself acquainted.

Miss Gertrude Going East—
