

THEOSOPHISTS' LEADER PASSES

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, July 12, (AP)—Mrs. Katherine Tingley, 79, noted theosophist leader, died today at Visingsö after an illness which followed a motor accident in Germany recently.

Her right thigh bone and left ankle were broken May 30 when the automobile in which she was riding swerved from the road near Osnabruck and crashed into a concrete bridge.

She recovered sufficiently to be released from the Osnabruck hospital and insisted she be taken to Visingsö. The headquarters of the Swedish theosophist community.

She had a crowded life time and was prominently connected throughout, particularly in her later years, with theosophism in its world wide aspects. She resided at various times in Cuba, the United States, and in Europe.

Shearers Vie For Speed in Queer Contest

GREAT FALLS, Mont., July 12, (AP)—Practiced shears, buzzing over 700 head of sheep, today were to determine the champion sheep shearers in five western states as the final event of a two-day contest in run off.

Yesterday an equal number of sheep lost their wool while seven contestants raced against time for prize money. The states of California, Utah, Washington, Idaho and Montana were represented. Charles Fuhrman of Lyle, Wash., finished his 100 sheep in four hours, three minutes and 50 seconds to set the pace. I. Stevens of Idaho Falls, Idaho, finished second, and T. H. Oviatt of Pocatello, Idaho, third.

Stevens made the fastest time on one sheep with a mark of one minute, 35.6 seconds. He won the twenty-sheep event in 46 minutes. Oviatt and Fuhrman tied in shearing sheep in an hour.

OCEAN FLYERS ENTERTAINED

ROME, July 12, (AP)—Roger Q. Williams and Captain Lewis A. Yancey, recovered from their fatigue after their long flight yesterday from Santander, Spain, to Rome, today began a series of official and social engagements in honor of the completion of their trip from Old Orchard, Me., to the Eternal city.

Accompanied by the American air attaches, they first visited a tailor and had measurements taken for several business suits. Then they had lunch at the home of Alexander Kirk, charge d'affaires at the American embassy, during which plans for their stay in Rome were discussed.
