SEALS LEADING COAST LEAGUES IN FIRST HALF

Los Angeles and Oakland Split in Two Games; Oaks Take Opener.

(By Associated Press)

A clean sweep on the seven-game series they played against the Sacramento Senators gave the Los Angeles Seals a lead of 18 games won and four lost in the Pacific Coast league's last half of the season. The Los Angeles were second in the standings after yesterday's doubleheaders, with 18 won and seven lost.

The Seals won the morning contest 10 to 3, and in the afternoon 9 to 5. Both games were played at Recreation field here. Backer whacked out a homer in the morning fray, and Baker of the Seals hit one in the afternoon.

Los Angeles and Oakland split even in their two frays, the Oaks taking the opener at 4 to 1, and the Angels the second 4 to 1. The odd game of the series of seven went to the Angels.

Seattle took five games out of nine for the week by winning both games of a double-header from the Mission Reds in the northern city. They win the first 15 to 2 and the second 10 to 4. The Reds claimed the series, because two of the games were holdovers from the first half.

Portland made it six out of seven on the home lot against Hollywood. The first game went 13 innings, and ended 7 to 5, while the second game ended 9 to 3. In the second game the Ducks staged a wild rally in the ninth inning to come up from behind with the required three winning runs.

ATTENDED COURT

LONDON, July 22. The Americans exhibited great interest in the proceedings.

HACK WILSON WORRIED OVER DAZZY VANCE

NEW YORK, July 22. (AP)—Hack Wilson, pudgy outfielder of the Chicago Cubs, would prefer, perhaps, if Auther Dazzy Vance wouldn't bother to pitch against the Cubs.

Wilson had hit safely in 27 consecutive games when he faced the "Dazzer" at Brooklyn yesterday. Hack didn't get a sign of a hit, in fact, he struck out four times. Every time he faced the Robins' strike-out ace.

Theodore Roosevelt, at 43, was the youngest man to ever be president of the United States.

And now that the Pacific Coast League has swung into the second half of the split season, let's look over some of the boys who were doing things. Above is Gus Suhr, young San Francisco first sacker, who led in home runs. Center is his teammate, Elmer Jacobs, the vet who showed the way in pitching. Below is Fuzzy Huff, Mission outfielder, who was the hitting king of the first

Are Sports Coarsening Modern Girl's Beauty?

Since the feminine half of the world began going in for sports in a large way several years ago, the question has continually recurred: is participation in athletics coarsening the beauty of modern womanhood? The pictures above may help to answer the question. No. 1 is Helen Willis, world's tennis champion; No. 2, Josephine McKim, water queen from Panama who holds the world record for one mile free style swimming; No. 3, Aileen Riggin, famous American swimmer; No. 4, Helen Jacobs, young California star of the tennis courts; No. 5, the graceful and comely Lili D'Alvarez, Spanish net star; No. 6, Lisa Lindstrom, New York swimmer, and No. 7, Eileen Bennett, British tennis player. Well, do you think so?

Swpie Balls To Please Friends

By AL DEMAREE
(Former Pitcher New York Giants)

"Grabbing balls" always has been a regular habit of many big leaguers. Friends want baseballs for their children to play with, or autographed for display on the parlor whatnot, and it is up to the player to make good, without digging into his pocket if possible.

The cleverest "ball grabber," I ever knew was a fellow we used to have on the old Braves. The late George Stallings had a habit of keeping a couple of dozen new balls beside him on the bench. This player would sit beside George. "Don't you think the left-fielder is playing a little too deep?" he would say. Then when George looked out that way, he'd grab a couple of balls and slip them in his shirt.

One day he had so many balls in his shirt he couldn't go out to pitch. George ordered him to the bull pen, and he said he couldn't go.

"Why not?" asked Stallings. "I can't go, that's all." "Why not? You sick?" "Yes."

He couldn't stand up without raining baseballs all over the field.

Another player on that Boston team was always grabbing old worn-out no-good balls. We often wondered what he did with them. Finally one day I found out. He was shipping liquor back to his old home town every day or so, and he put four or five of these old balls into the package to rattle around and kill the gurgles of the booze!

TILDEN-LOTT ENTER SINGLES

NEW YORK, July 22. (AP)—Selection of the United States Davis cup team to play France in the challenge round starting this Friday in Paris, with George Lott of Chicago substituted for Francis T. Hunter of New York, was announced today by the United States Lawn Tennis association. The other three members are Big Bill Tilden, Wilmer Allison of Austin, Texas, and John Van Ryn of Orange, N. J.

Tilden and Lott will play in the singles, while the crack combination of Allison and Van Ryn, which has been cutting a sensational figure abroad, will play the doubles.

Lott's replacement of Hunter is the only change from the lineup which defeated Germany 5 to 0 in the inter-zone competition, concluded yesterday at Berlin.

Prohibition Questions Up Before Senate

WASHINGTON, July 22. (AP)—The prohibition suggestions made by Chairman Wickersham of the president's law enforcement commission in the letter read to the governor's conference at New London, Conn., continued today to engage the attention of wet and dry members of congress.

In some quarters, meanwhile, it was regarded as clearly established that the president had no intention of complying with the demand of Senator Caraway, dry democrat of Arkansas, for the chairman's resignation on the ground that he had "sacrificed his usefulness."

That conclusion was drawn from a statement by Senator Watson of Indiana, republican leader, interpreting the letter as urging "that the states do their full duty in enforcing the 18th amendment."

"Chairman Wickersham's statement," he said, "was an effort to enlist the support of the states in doing their full constitutional duty. The 18th amendment left the states concurrent power with the federal government to enforce its provision. Some of the states have not exercised that power."

Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, dry leader and supporter of the president's enforcement program, remarked that Mr. Wickersham had "at least succeeded in making it clear that he regards the prohibition law as unenforceable." He declined to say whether he thought President Hoover had seen the letter before it was sent to Governor Roosevelt of New York, who read it to the conference.

GOVERNORS SEE EARLY ENGINE

BRETTON WOODS, N. H., July 22. (AP)—A party of governors from the south, west, and New England came here today to see "Old Peppersass," ancient locomotive, turn back the pages of railroad history by climbing once again, as it did in 1860, the cog railway to the summit of Mt. Washington, New England's highest mountain.

Eight governors, a lieutenant governor, their staffs and families were included in the party, which arrived aboard the destroyer Tousey and Jumpries at Portsmouth last night on the way from the governor's conference at New London, Conn. Governor Charles W. Tobey, of New Hampshire, acted as host.

"Old Peppersass," built in 1856, will be presented to New Hampshire through Governor Tobey after it makes the 5,000 foot climb.

MILLIONS SPENT AT RACE TRACK

CHICAGO, July 22. (AP)—Two days of racing at the Arlington Park track have inspired pari-mutuel wagering totaling nearly $2,500,000. Saturday when the Arlington handicap was run, 35,000 fans wagered about $1,100,000, almost as much as the crowd of 50,000 which saw the American classic. The wagering on the latter date reached $1,300,000.
