

NEWS IN BRIEF

Miss Chilcote Leaves—

Miss Ruth May Chilcote, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, left this morning to attend the Methodist Epworth League institute, which will be held at Suttle Lake for the next ten days. Nearly twenty young people from Klamath Falls will attend the conference, and will be accompanied by chaperons for this group. Mrs. Applegate Solomon, Mrs. Wemmett, dean of women, and Rev. Frank Wemmett, faculty member, are also attending from here.

Wire Received From Dixon—

Word was received yesterday from Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Dixon, stating that they had arrived at Glacier Park and will spend several days in the beautiful Montana national park visiting at Lake McDonald and other scenic spots. Their former home was in Whitefish, and they plan to visit friends there as well as in Kallispell and other Montana cities.

Motor to Crater Lake—

Mr. Ned Metcalf, employee of the Golden Rule, accompanied by his brother-in-law, B. F. Townsend of Albany, Ore., made a motor trip to Crater Lake yesterday. Mr. Townsend returned to Medford, and will return to his home at Albany today. Mr. Metcalf returned last evening to Klamath Falls.

State License Inspector—

Free Farmer, state license inspector for trucks, with headquarters in Medford, is spending several days in the Klamath country on business. Mr. Farmer drove to Lakeview early this morning, where he planned to spend the day.

Visiting Friends—

Claude Weigall of Broken Bow, Neb., is among the visitors from a distance who registered in Klamath Falls this morning. Mr. Weigall plans to remain here for at least two weeks, and is visiting friends while here.

Called to Aberdeen—

R. E. True and son Charles were called to Aberdeen, Wash., Friday evening on account of the serious illness of Mr. True's mother. As yet no word has been received from them relative to her condition.

Accepts Position—

John V. Farrell of this city, formerly employed on the Great Northern, has accepted a position with the O. C. E. railroad.

Dennis Goes South—

Bruce Dennis, publisher of The Evening Herald and Klamath News, left last night for Los Angeles, to join his son Jack. After several days in the southern city they will return to Klamath Falls. For the past two months Jack Dennis has been studying voice culture in the south. He plans to spend the remainder of his vacation in Klamath Falls, returning to the University of Oregon with the opening of school.

To Attend Institution—

Miss Oriana Floyd left this morning for Suttle lake, where she plans to attend the Methodist Epworth League institute which is held there for the next ten days. Miss Floyd is employed at the Shaw-Maclean stationery store. The institution is composed of young people from this district, which extends from Lakeview to Pendleton, and approximately 250 are expected to attend.

Visit Oregon Caves—

Joe Ravis, Walt Shearer, Gomer Caseman and Howard Johnson motored to Medford Saturday, where they remained until Sunday morning. Yesterday they resumed their trip and made a visit to the Oregon caves. They returned to Klamath Falls late last evening. Gomer Caseman and Howard Johnson are employees of the local postoffice.

Returned North—

Among the residents of Eugene who returned Sunday from attending the Elks convention here was G. E. Wood. Mr. Wood stated that all the Eugene "Bills" were well received in Klamath Falls, and hopes to have as good a time at the state convention in Portland next year.

From Chiloquin Golden Rule—

Warren Crooks, frequent visitor to Klamath Falls, was a business visitor here Sunday from the Golden Rule store at Chiloquin. While here Mr. Crooks made an inspection of the new Golden Rule store, which is nearly completed and ready for occupancy.

Mayor of Ashland Returns—

J. B. Thornton, mayor of Ashland, returned to the valley Sunday from a visit of several days in Klamath Falls. Mr. Thornton was a guest here during the Elks convention, which adjourned here Saturday, and he took a very active part in the events.

Here From Montana—

J. C. Alexander, father of the late Mrs. Leo Sagehorn, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meinke and two children, all of Billings, Mont., arrived in Klamath Falls Sunday morning, called by the death of Mrs. Leo Sagehorn.

Visiting Sister—

Mrs. Henrietta Neely of Los Angeles and Hollywood, is visiting for several weeks in Klamath Falls with her sister, Mrs. J. E. Loreman of High street. Mrs. Neely visited here about two years ago and made many friends.

Return North—

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Cantoline returned this Sunday to their home in Portland. They were accompanied by their daughter, Harriet. Mr. Cantoline has been the chief carpenter on the Marion apartments, which were recently completed.

Leonard Wounder Here—

Leonard Wounder of Skynomish, Wash., employee of the Great Northern, is in the city for a short time visiting friends. Skynomish is the first station west of the new Cascade tunnel in Washington.

Meeting of Knights—

Members of the Knights of Columbus are urged to be present at the regular meeting which will be held at the club rooms of the city library tomorrow evening. The meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock.

Drive to Crater Lake—

Delmar Reeder and Miss Merle Palmer of the Golden Rule enjoyed a motor trip to Crater Lake. They report a heavy registration of cars at the lake yesterday, and many Klamath people visiting.

Washington Guest—

Giving his home address as Spokane, Wash., L. Arthur Rost registered at the chamber of commerce this morning, and plans to remain here for several days.

Move to Apartment—

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Barnes and daughter Allison have moved from 115 North Fifth street to the beautiful new Marion apartments, located at Sixth and High streets.

Mrs. Palmer Returns—

Mrs. A. C. Palmer has returned home from an extended visit at her old home in Boise, Idaho. Mrs. Palmer was gone for about a month, and visited with relatives.

Return From Prineville—

Mr. and Mrs. Z. G. Harris of East street have returned from Prineville, where they were called by the death of Mrs. Harris' cousin. They made the trip Saturday.

Mrs. Barnhiel Returned—

This morning Mrs. Howard Barnhiel, nee Maybelle Leavitt, resumed her duties with the advertising departments of The Evening Herald and Klamath News. Mr. and Mrs. Barnhiel returned Saturday from a wedding tour through Canada. From the office to the press room, Mrs. Barnhiel was welcomed back.

Make Reservations Soon—

Announcement was made this afternoon from the local Southern Pacific offices that all reservations for the reduced rate trip to Portland and Eugene must be made as soon as possible. Already nearly 75 reservations from this city have been made. The special train leaves Friday.

Happy Hour Club to Meet—

Announcement was made this afternoon that members of the Happy Hour club will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. S. D. Summers, at 231 North Seventh. All members are requested to be present. A social hour will be enjoyed.

Los Amigos Club to Meet—

Members of the Los Amigos club are notified of the meeting which is to be held tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Vernon Lindsey at 615 Martin, in Mills addition. Bridge will be enjoyed during the afternoon.

Return to Lakeview—

Gilbert D. Brown and son, Ralph, have returned to their home in Lakeview after spending several days in the Klamath country, having been called here by the illness of Mr. Brown's father.

Miss Betty Hill Home—

Miss Betty Ann Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hill, is home from a delightful summer vacation spent in Canada with relatives and friends. Miss Betty Ann visited many of the leading resorts, including Banff and Lake Louise.

Returned North—

After a week's visit in Klamath and Lake counties, visiting relatives and friends, Miss Pansy Robertson has returned to her home in Eugene, and this morning resumed her business duties in the northern city.

Mr. and Mrs. Johansen Here—

Mr. and Mrs. John Johansen visited in Klamath Falls Sunday from Macdoel, Calif., where they own and operate the Macdoel hotel. They were called to Klamath Falls by the death of Mr. Johansen's sister, Mrs. Leo Sagehorn.

R. H. Baker Returns—

R. H. Baker, prominent resident of Eugene, has returned north after attending the Oregon State Association of Elks convention, which adjourned in Klamath Falls Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Erickson Here—

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Erickson returned to Klamath Falls after visiting in Yreka with relatives and friends for several days. They made the trip south by motor.

Frank J. Oulton Here—

Frank J. Oulton is a guest at the Hall hotel from his home at Portland. Mr. Oulton was recently granted this city bus franchise by the city council of Klamath Falls.

Miss McGrath Returned—

Miss Della McGrath, circulation manager of The Evening Herald, is back at her desk today, following a week's vacation.

Mystic Maya Dance to be Seen in Pageant

People of Oregon who come to the Sycamore Trail pageant July 25, 26 and 27 will have an opportunity to peer back into antiquity as Mildred LeCompte Moore dances as did the Maya maidens ages ago. The pageant in which she will take part will depict the early civilization of Oregon and will show in graphic way the coming of the pioneer, and the development of this country.

Will Return Tomorrow—

George Grizzle of the Klamath Monument works, and his son-in-law, J. E. Falco of MacMalls store, are expected to return tomorrow from an extended fishing trip, which has taken them to several of the Klamath Lakes, including Crater and Fish lakes. They made the trip by motor, and have been gone several days.

Initiation to Be Held—

Initiation, to be followed by a social hour, will be held by the Women of Mooseheart on July 23 at 7:30. The meeting is to be held at the Moose hall, and all members are expected to be present, as this is one of the most important meetings of the year.

Completed Real Estate Deal—

Melvin Hansen, investment realtor of Eugene, has returned north after completing a deal in Klamath Falls, in which the well known Rock ranch changed hands. Mr. Hansen is a frequent business visitor to Klamath Falls.

Miles Cheyne Improving—

Miles Cheyne, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cheyne of Spring Lake, is now able to have visitors at Hillside hospital, where he has been a patient for some time. Miles suffered the loss of his left leg in an accident at the ranch home.

Pope Pius XI

A recent picture of Pope Pius XI, first pope in 60 years to leave the Vatican.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brown Visiting

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brown, residents of Portland, are guests in the city for a visit with friends. They are former residents of Klamath Falls, having lived here several years ago before they moved north to Portland.

Montana Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Abbey registered at the Hall hotel this morning from Bozeman, Mont., the home of the Montana State normal school. Mr. and Mrs. Abbey plan to remain here for several days.

Lester Nicholson Registers—

Lester Nicholson registered at the chamber of commerce this morning from his home in Pixley, Cal., and stated that he plans to remain here for about three months looking over business possibilities.

Mr. H. G. Oates Here—

Among the Californians in Klamath Falls today is H. G. Oates whose home is in Westwood, Cal. Mr. Oates plans to remain in the city for a fortnight.

Returned Home—

Mrs. Jerome Henry and infant son have left Hillside hospital, and are now having visitors at the family home on California avenue. Mrs. Henry will be remembered as Miss Beulah Compton before her marriage.

Visiting From Newburg—

Mrs. C. Babcock has as her house guests, Mr. and Mrs. H. Woodworth and two attractive daughters, Marjorie and Emma Bell. Mr. Woodworth is president of the First National Bank of Newburg, Ore.

Miss Hansen Visiting—

Miss Dorothy Hansen of Stockton, Calif., is the house guest of Miss Barbara Jenkins at the Jenkins home on Lincoln street. Miss Dorothy formerly resided in Klamath Falls. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Beckley.

At Hall Hotel—

H. M. Nelsham, well known resident of Medford, is a guest at the Hall hotel while in the city on a short business trip. Mr. Nelsham makes frequent visits to Klamath Falls.

Here From San Francisco—

Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Falvre arrived in Klamath Falls this morning for a short visit. While in the city they are making their home at the Hall hotel.

Dr. Smith Away—

Dr. Sarah Smith is enjoying a vacation at Ocean Lake, where she joined her sister, Mrs. Rucker of Portland.

HERALD CLASSIFIED ADS BRING RESULTS

Albany Visitor—

C. A. Vandram, prominent hotel man of Albany, was a guest in Klamath Falls during the Oregon State Elks' association convention which adjourned here Saturday. This is Mr. Vandram's first visit to Klamath Falls for ten years. Ten years ago he attended the 1919 Elks' convention in this city. Mr. Vandram stated that he was simply amazed at the growth and cosmopolitan appearance of Klamath Falls since his last visit.

Returned to St. Maries—

W. H. Seltz has returned to his home in St. Maries, Idaho, after visiting in Klamath Falls for several days en route north from Los Angeles where he attended the national Elks' convention.

The little rotating aluminum disc in the electric meter rotates 3,000 to 4,000 times to register a kilowatt hour of energy.

Returned North—

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Atwood have returned to their home in Portland after visiting in the city for the past week. While here Mr. and Mrs. Atwood attended the horse races and other events in connection with the Elks' convention.

Here From Hermiston—

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Little and two daughters are visiting at the Blaine hotel while in Klamath Falls for a few days. Their home is in Hermiston.

RUMORS ABOUT CHARGE

BUDAPEST, July 22. (AP)—There were persistent rumors in ecclesiastical circles here today that Cardinal Prince Primate Justinian Seredy of this country would succeed Cardinal Gaspari as papal secretary of state when the latter retires shortly.

For results use Herald Class Ads

OPEN YOUR EYES

—to the astonishing improvement in lens-making embodied in the New!
TILLYER LENSES
ACCURATE TO THE VERY EDGE

No more blurred margins. Clear, sharp images over the entire surface of the lenses—whether you look straight ahead or glance up, down, or sideways. We're ready to fill your prescription in Tillyer lenses—either single vision or bifocals.

BRING YOUR EYES UP-TO-DATE

DR. ARTHUR M. SIMMONS

Optometrist

COMPLETE OPTICAL SERVICE

108 SO. 7TH ST.

The Universal Corona Portable Cooker

$8.95 CASH

Economical to Own—Cook a Whole Meal at Once—Food Just Can't Burn With This Universal Corona Portable Cooler

Oh, how simple—how inexpensive! Just imagine buying an oven for the price of the Universal Corona Portable Cooker. And it cooks almost anything—meats, breads, vegetables, an entire meal at once—steams, boils, stews and bakes—it browns food perfectly. Because of its dry oven heat and its even temperature, food can not burn.

current than an electric iron.

Take It on Your Picnics

The Universal Corona is so well insulated that it will retain heat for over six hours. Now you can have hot lunches for picnics—roast chicken—brown potatoes—just like at home. It is so compact—throws off no heat—it can be carried or packed anywhere.

95c DOWN

$1.00 Per Month

For a limited time only we offer the Universal Corona Portable Cooker for only $8.95—just 95c down and the balance at $1.00 a month.

THE CALIFORNIA OREGON POWER COMPANY

OFFICES.

Medford, Grants Pass, Roseburg, Klamath Falls—Oregon
Yreka, Dunsmuir—California

AT THE LIBERTY
LAST SHOWING TODAY
TIM McCOY
in
"MORGAN'S LAST RAID"

AT THE ORPHEUS
LAST SHOWING TODAY
William Haines and Marion Davies
in
"Show People"

At The
PINE TREE
NOW
The Fastest Moving
Picture on Record!
Douglas Fairbanks
in
"THE IRON MASK"
SPECIAL ATTRACTION
Our Pathe News Reel Today shows the scenes of the Indian Congress and Rodeo held here in Klamath Falls recently.

At The PELICAN
NOW
YOU'LL LAUGH
at the superb comedy
YOU'LL CRY
at the human pathos
YOU'LL LOVE
The songs—the music—the tender, throbbing
ROMANCE!
Eddie Dowling
in
"THE RAINBOW MAN"
(All Singing—All Dancing)