CUBS RETAIN 5-GAME LEAD IN NATIONAL

Brilliant Pitching by Bush Feature of Close Game.

By HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Baseball fans who insist pitching is a lost art and that the lively ball has destroyed the defensive features of the game might do well to consider the battle between the Cubs and Boston Braves at Chicago, yesterday.

Nine innings of brilliant pitching by Guy Bush on the one hand and Ben Cantwell and Ed Leverette on the other saw the Cubs eke out a 1-0 decision that enabled them to retain their five-game lead in the National League pennant race.

Bush allowed only five hits in turning in his ninth straight victory and his 15th of the season against one defeat. Cantwell gave up but three safeties in the seven innings he worked and Leverette held the Cubs hitless the rest of the way.

As it turned out the Cubs won on one hit. In the first inning, English doubled and Cantwell, losing control, walked three men in a row to force in the only run of the game.

Jess Petty pitched his first full game of the year at Forbes Field and the Pittsburgh Pirates came out of a bad slump to down the Phillies, three to one. Petty allowed only six hits and never was in danger after Comorosky tripled with the bases filled in the third inning to give the Pirates the lead.

Larry Benton pitched the New York Giants to another triumph over Cincinnati, 6-1. Dolf Luque was the victim of bunched hits in the third inning when the Giants tallied our times.

The St. Louis Cardinals got to Johnny Morrison for four runs in the first inning and Old Pete Alexander was able to coast in to a 5-2 decision over the Brooklyn Robins.

In the American League, the Philadelphia Athletics increased their lead to ten and one-half games by turning back Detroit, 4-1 while the New York Yankees were losing to Chicago, 3-2. Babe Ruth got his 25th homer. Cleveland downed the Boston Red Sox, 10-3, behind the effective pitching of Jimmy Zinn.

Held to one run for six innings, the Washington Senators slugged Collins and other St. Louis Browns' pitchers for five runs in the seventh and seven more in the eighth to win, 13-9.

Famous Horse Trainer Dies at Saratoga

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 2. (AP)—James H. Rowe, trainer for the Harry Payne Whitney stables, and one of the best known horsemen in America, died here today after a brief illness resulting from a cold.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2. (AP)—James H. Rowe, whose sudden death at Saratoga today came as a shock to the racing world, was one of the most famous of active trainers. Rowe, who was more than 70 years of age, started his career on the turf as trainer for Phil Dwyer and his brother Mike. Later he was associated with James R. Keene, and August Belmont and finally with Harry Payne Whitney.

He trained the Great Sysonaby, Cap and Bell, Collin, Celt, Superman, Peter Pan, Maskett and various other well known horses.

No Short Holes at Winged Foot

WHAT TH' HECK DO YOU HAVE TO DO TO BEAT THIS GUY BOBBY JONES?

ALL YOU HAVE TO DO IS SINK A LOT OF LONG BRASSIE SECONDS!

HERE'S YOUR CHANCE TO BEAT JONES! HE'S WEAK ON THESE SHORT HOLES!

WHAT DO YA MEAN SHORT HOLES? IT TAKES A FULL BRASSIE TO REACH 'EM!

By AL DEMAREE
(Former Pitcher N. Y. Giants)
Just before the recent famous play-off of the National Open at the Winged Foot club, when Bobby Jones beat Al Espinosa by something like 23 strokes, one of Al's admirers rushed up and said, "Bear down on the short holes. Jones is weak on the short holes. That's the way Johnny Farrell beat him in 1925."

"Short holes" roared Al. "There's no short holes on this course. It takes a full brassie to reach any par three green at Winged Foot."

Which reminds me of Walter Hagen's advice to Espinosa. "The way I beat Jones is by sinking a flock of brassie seconds!" was the "Hail's" cheerful advice.

Twenty-five years ago today, John Flanigan, holder of the world's hammer throwing record, lowered the record a foot, hurling the 16-lb. missile 173 feet at Celtic park.

Mandell and Canzoneri Both Confident on Eve of Battle.

By PAUL R. MICKELSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO, Aug. 2. (AP)—Tony Canzoneri, chesty little bootblack from New Orleans whose stinging fists achieved glory in the bantam and featherweight sectors, tonight aims his weapons at Sammy Mandell, one of the most elusive targets of the ring, in an audacious bid for his world's light weight crown.

The two will battle 10 rounds to a decision for the title in Paddy Harmon's gigantic punch bowl, the Chicago Stadium. A record indoor crowd of 25,000 is expected to watch the duel.

It is to be a skirmish between a clever boxer and a rugged two-fisted puncher and Mandell, the boxer, is an overwhelming favorite. The champion expects to win handily by a decision; the challenger is confident of victory by a knockout.

So clearly did the Rockford shiek turn back the title bid of Jimmy McLarnin, a pile driving biter of the Canzoneri type, in his last championship battle, that few observers grant Tony much more than a chance. Although the champion has spent the past year in comparative idleness because of injuries, he has displayed two successive from during workouts and his great left is apparently as busy as ever.

Weight, too, was a disadvantage Canzoneri had to fight against. He expects to enter the ring four to six pounds lighter than Sammy and among lightweights such a difference is a considerable handicap. Today's advantages lay in his punch, his greater ring activity and his age. He is 32 and Mandell is 25.

Both fighters were confident over the outcome and neither seemed worried.

Ray Miller, Chicago left hook artist, will meet Lt. Vicen of Chile in the 10 round semi-windup and Harmon hopes to match the victor of the Mandell-Canzoneri fight for the title.

During 1928-29 the total number of crimes in London (population 7,476,168) as 15,662, compare with 333,083 in New York (population 5,024,179).

Smart Pitching Featured Coast Upsets Yesterday

By The Associated Press
Rare good pitching yesterday proved to be the most potent factor contributing toward a series of upsets in various Pacific Coast league camps. Most significant was the defeat of the league-leading San Francisco Seals by the second-place Hollywood Stars. The score was 1 to 0, and the contest was a close one throughout.

Gus Johns, smart Hollywood southpaw, held the visitors to the southern metropolis to but three hits. The Los Angeles Angels were easy picking at Recreation field for the San Francisco Mission Reds, who won by a score of 6 to 3. Dutch Reuther flung 'em fast and fancy, doing a good job throughout the battle.

Sacramento's Senators turned the tables on the Oakland Oaks at Emeryville, winning 6 to 2 in a great display of baseball. The Seattle Redskins plucked the feathers from the Portland Ducks, and ran away with a 5 to 2 score. A puzzling curve used again and again by George Smith, late of the Detroit Tigers, baffled the home boys, and this, with loose fielding, spelled their defeat.

The only country in which regular slave markets still exist is Arabia. At Midl Berk and El Tair hundreds of slaves brought from Africa are sold weekly.
