EDGAR JADWIN ENDS CAREER IN THE ARMY

Served in Army for More Than Thirty-Nine Years.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8. (AP) Edgar Jadwin, author of the Jadwin plan to control the career of his distinguished army officer, came to the city Wednesday, retiring as the only lieutenant general on either the retired or active list.

Back to him lies a record of outstanding achievement, which brought him honors from the American, British, French and Polish governments, culminating in his appointment as chief of army engineers. He is 64 years old today and retires under the age provisions of the army he served for 39 years.

His elevation to the rank of lieutenant general in retirement is a recognition of the distinguished work in the construction of the Panama canal. He holds the distinguished service medal for his service as director of the division of construction of the American expeditionary forces in France and his efforts looking toward control of Mississippi floods have kept his name fresh in the public memory in recent years.

General Jadwin graduated from West Point in 1890.

SEAMAN FINDS MEDAL WAITING AT INSTITUTE

NEW YORK, Aug. 8. (AP)—The outfit board at the Seaman's church institute is a sort of international newspaper for the men who follow the sea, so when John Maxim, able seaman, arrived from foreign parts he headed there as a matter of course.

Running his eye over the hundreds of items which is brief told tragic stories of missing men and missing ships, Maxim suddenly was halted by an item of more personal interest.

"There is a gold medal in the chaplain's office awarded to seaman John Maxim if he will call for it," it read.

Mentally sketching his past, Maxim went to the chaplain's office where he learned he had been sought as a hero for almost five years. The medal, awarded by King George of England through the British board of trade, was in recognition of his part in the rescue of the crew of the British brigantine Thames on Dec. 23, 1924 when he was bottled up on the steamship Springfield. The board had dispensed of finding him and had forwarded the medal to the institute.

ble-killer in the absorbing environment of a talking moving picture studio, is one of the most gripping ever to be shown on the screen. The Pelican theatre will feature this attraction this week.

Paramount's success with the recent S. S. Van Dine story, "The Canary Murder Case," started studio executives on a search for something even more hair-raising and pleasantly thrilling in the line of detective stories. This hunt culminated in "The Studio

Relief From Curse of Constipation

A Battle Creek physician says, "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause."

But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or increasing the dose.

Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25 c today at the nearest Rexall Drug Store.—Star Drug Store.

AT THE THEATRES

AT THE PINE TREE
One of the most pretentious scenes in Fannie Brice's first picture, "My Man," which Warner Bros. made in their studios in Hollywood, is a musical revue showing the inimitable Fannie as the star of a Broadway production.

As befitting the importance of the picture, which introduces Miss Brice as a motion picture star, the Warners went to considerable pains to make this particular scene impressive. To begin with, they had Larry Ceballos, the producer of a number of Broadway girl shows, devise the revue, giving him carte blanche regarding its mise en scene as well as its extra people.

Miss Brice enjoyed the making of "My Man." She wanted the picture named after her successful vaudeville sketch to be a success, and has given everything of herself to make it so.

The cast includes Guinn "Big Boy" Edna Murphy, Andre Segura, Richard Tucker, Ann Brody, Billy Seay, Arthur Hoyt and Clarissa Selwynne. Mark Canfield's original story was adapted for the screen by Robert Lord.

Fannie Brice, in "My Man," is now showing at the Pine Tree theatre.

AT THE PELICAN
An all-star cast, with every member in it picked for type and suitability to character, acts Paramount's newest all-talking thriller, "The Studio Murder Mystery."

This exciting melodrama, centering around the hunt for a double-killer in the absorbing environment of a talking moving picture studio, is one of the most gripping ever to be shown on the screen. The Pelican theatre will feature this attraction this week.

OREGON FOLKS HURT IN EAST

DUBUQUE, Iowa, Aug. 8. (AP) — A sheriff's investigation was under way Wednesday of the crash at Centerville, near here, yesterday of a truck belonging to the Rev. P. M. Dobberstein, builder of the Grotto of the Redemption and an automobile containing five tourists.

Physicians held little hope for the recovery of Father Dobberstein.

Father Dobberstein was en route to Dubuque from West Bend, his home. He was engaged in the erection of the Grotto at St. Francis convent here. Others injured included Mrs. Emma Schaffner, 33, Portland, Ore., right elbow injured and severe cuts about the face and hands; Amelia Schaffner, Portland, right elbow injured, and Andrew Schaffner, Portland.

MISSING ARMY FLIERS ARRIVE AT SAN DIEGO

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Aug. 8. (AP) — Army headquarters at Rockwell field Wednesday announced receipt of a telegram from Captain George M. Palmer, who, with his companion, Lieutenant Leonard F. Harmon, failed to arrive with eight other planes from Langley field, Va., Tuesday evening, stating that they had made a forced landing yesterday in Winslow, Ariz., and had spent the night there.

The message gave no details of the forced landing but stated the plane was intact.
