SWISS FLIERS PREPARING FOR ATLANTIC HOP

LISBON, Portugal, Aug. 12. (AP)—Three Swiss aviators, missing for three days, were located here today working busily on their airplane, in which they shortly, possibly tomorrow, expect to take off on a flight to New York.

The airman flew here Saturday from Casaux, France, making the 621 miles in six hours.

Their names are: Oscar Kaeser, pilot; Kurt Luescher, backer and mechanic; and Alfred Tachopp, navigator and mechanic.

Tachopp said he would not make the flight, explaining he was "no use at sea." He said his weight would be replaced with gasoline, and he would await here news of his companions' arrival.

The plane will have a load of 450 gallons of petrol and 195 gallons of oil. It will carry a small pneumatic boat and rubber suit. The plane also has a small opening from which the petrol can be emptied enabling it to float at sea.

RANKIN WINGS WAY TO SOUTH THIS MORNING

PORTLAND, Aug. 12. (AP)—Tex Rankin, Portland flier, passed over this city at 7:20 a. m. today on an attempted non-stop flight from Vancouver, B. C., to Agua Caliente, Mexico. He is piloting a tiny biplane powered with an 80-horsepower motor.

Rankin was met over Portland by his brother, Dick Rankin, who carried aloft weather reports written on a large blackboard attached to the fuselage.

Dick Rankin said his brother was averaging better than 100 miles an hour and had fought headwinds most of the way south.

Rankin hoped to reach Agua Caliente late today. The air distance from Vancouver to the Lower California is 1,350 miles.

Catches Fish and Bird

GARDEN.—Earl Ansell did not kill two birds with one stone but he has a recent accomplishment that rivals it. While fishing he landed a nine-inch trout which had a bird in its mouth, the wing of which was still protruding. The fish's appetite was sufficient to cause it to grab the worm before it had disposed of the bird, a small one which had not yet fully feathered out.

NOTE ASTHMA VICTIMS.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—In an effort to investigate and cure, if possible, the malady of asthma in the world, the Asthma Research Council here is requesting sufferers to fill in a family history form supplied by them. It is hoped that study of these forms will give valuable information regarding the influence of heredity in this disease.

AT THE ORPHEUS

Can you hate and admire a man at the same time?

Picture fans are in a position to answer "yes" to that question, and the man is Ben Bard.

Recently Bard is appearing as "Derby Dr." in "Romance of the Underworld," now being shown at the Orpheus theatre.

Usually "Dr." is killed before the picture is half through, but despite that "Dr." receives as much fan mail as the average young

AT THE PINE TREE

"A meddler in the very worst kind of trouble maker," says Robert McWade, who portrays a small town business man who disastrously dabbles in other people's affairs in "The Home Towners." leading man in pictures.

"Romance of the Underworld" is another directorial achievement of Irving Cummings, the man who made "Dressed to Kill," rated as one of the best under-world pictures ever screened.

In addition to Hard and Mary Astor, the cast includes Robert E. Howard, Oscar Apfel, John Boles and Helen Lynch in most important roles.

AT THE LIBERTY

Tarzan, Ken Maynard's wonder horse, who appears with him in "The Lawless Legion," First National's latest western now at the Liberty theatre, has finally learned all the duties of a good actor.

Tarzan is not a whip-trained horse, but during the making of "The Lawless Legion," one of the dramatic sequences of the picture calls for him to be lashed twice with a long black-snake whip. The lashes can't be faked to a certain extent, but they nevertheless represented punishment. This scene was absolutely essential to the story.

Two reakes were necessary before the proper scene was secured, but it is sure that Tarzan will not want to be the man to whip Tarzan again.

Others in the cast supporting Maynard are Nort Loe, J. P. McGowan, Frank Rice and Howard Truesdell.

At The Pelican

Packed from start to finish with tense drama, thrills and heart appeal "Stange Cargo," will be seen and heard at the Liberty theatre today. The plot has to do with the mysterious slaying of the owner of a multi-plume yacht while on a voyage to the South. When last the man is seen he is to his friends in a brightly illuminated saloon. "Lights out suddenly," a groan is heard and when lights are brought the man had vanished.

Every passenger is suspected and a searching investigation is made in the course of which strange happenings occur. How the assassin is discovered makes a most interesting climax.

Every man on the screen. Notable screen and screen players are included in a practically all-star cast. The featured are: Len Pickett, June Nash, George Barraud, Kyrie Bellew, Frank Fletcher and Joseph E. Brown.

The drama is a real life story, with the dialogue and sound effects are novel and highly impressive.

FAMILY FEUD BREAKS ANEW IN CAROLINA

MARSHALL, N. C., Aug. 12. (AP)—The Landers boys met three members of the Stanton family and Albert King on a narrow mountain road yesterday. Before they parted two men were killed and a 12-year-old girl wounded in a flare-up of a family feud.

Arthur Stanton, 35, his daughter Agnes, 12, his brother, Hubert, and King, 35, were riding down the road in King's car when they met Arnold and Sampson Landers in a truck. The two machines stopped.

In the exchange of gunfire Arthur Stanton and King were killed and Agnes was shot in the head. Each side accused the other of shooting first. The Landers boys and Stanton were arrested and lodged in jail.

Mountaineers of the section said there had been "bad blood" between the Landers and the Stantons for some time.

Here's one for Golf Addicts

SHENANDOAH, Ia.—Golf experts, attention, please!

A golf ball, driven from a tee, struck a tree and alighted in the shirt pocket of another player.

Should the ball be played from the lie? Should a penalty be inflicted? Or should it just be put down in the books?

Replies may be addressed to Dwight Nichols, Shenandoah, the ball's owner, or H. E. Ralston, Denison, in whose pocket it stopped.
