WHAT A NICE PET!
PARIS, Aug. 13.—Toads are being recommended as garden pets for farmers. Because of their insatiable appetite for insects, the toad is a valuable asset to the gardener. It is said that in three months one toad will eat 10,000 insects, including worms, flies, mosquitoes, crickets, cutworms, plant lice and similar pests.

AT THE THEATRES

Warner Baxter and Lois Moran in "Behind That Curtain" Fox Movietone All-Talking Feature

AT THE PELICAN

"Behind That Curtain," all talking Fox Movietone production of Earl Derr Bigger's famous best seller, will have its first showing here today at the Pelican theater.
This thrilling romantic mystery, with Warner Baxter, Lois Moran and Gilbert Emery in the leading roles, is said to present to sight and hearing such strikingly picturesque backgrounds as London streets, India's bazaars and villages, the sweep of the Persian desert and San Francisco's Chinatown, with all of their characteristic sounds and native dialects.
Beginning with a mysterious murder in a London barrister's office, the action swings to India, where the tortured wife of a derelict, whom she suspects of the crime, flees from him to her first love—and accompanies him on a caravan trip across the desert.
How she escapes, when pursued by her husband and a Scotland Yard man in an airplane, hides herself in San Francisco and finally finds happiness after a crashing climax, makes up a picture of absorbing interest.

AT THE PINE TREE

Fast-moving, its plot condensed within 24 hours, the time elapsing between a prisoner's escape from the penitentiary and his settlement with law and justice, Willard Mack's all-talking picture, "The Voice of the City," now playing at the Pine Tree theater, is an entertainment giving local audiences but little time to fiddle with their programs, or exhibit any of the nervous signs of boredom.
"The Voice of the City" was written and directed by Willard Mack, who also plays one of the leading roles in it.
"The Voice of the City" deals with the escaping of a man from prison who was sent there for 21 years, although innocent.

AT THE LIBERTY

Scenes of beauty distinguish many of the massive sets prepared for "Forbidden Love," a dramatic picture starring Lili Damita, the celebrated European screen star, which will be on view at the Liberty theater today. Among the more notable is an immense galleried dancing hall which was constructed at immense cost to serve for only one or two flashes.

Miss Damita has the role of a princess in "Forbidden Love." She loves a man of menial birth and is about to marry him when she unexpectedly inherits a throne. This brings about many startling situations and a stirring climax. Paul Richter plays opposite the dainty star and others in the cast include Ross Richards, Klein Rogge, Harry Leidtke and Trude Hesterberg, all European screen artists of wide reputation. The picture is based on Noel Coward's famous stage success, "The Queen Was in the Parlor."

AT THE ORPHEUS

One of the most notable and best-balanced supporting casts ever used in a film offering supports beautiful Billie Dove in her latest starring picture, "The Yellow Lily," at the Orpheus theater today.

Clive Brook plays opposite Miss Dove in "The Yellow Lily," which is an adaptation of Lajos Biro's play of the same title. Gustav von Seyffertitz has one of the best histrionic opportunities of his career as a Mephistopheles-like, sardonic valet of the hero.

Jane Winton, wearing a blonde wig, portrays a notorious actress of Budapest and sweetheart of the hero. Nicholas Soussanin enacts an effective and very dramatic role as the heroine's brother. Marc MacDermott and Rodi Hosang are the Hungarian Archduke and Archduchess respectively. Charles Puffy plays a comedy role as mayor of a small mountain town in Hungary.

Other colorful and important roles are enacted by Paul Vincent, Lucian Prival, John Westwood and Gus Ferton.

RUSS PLAYING WAR

TOKYO, Aug. 14. (AP)—A Rengo news agency dispatch from Manchou, Manchuria, today said 30 Russian cavalrymen had crossed the river Argun on Aug. 11 and looted a village called Jarainor. Five inhabitants were said to have been drowned. The Rengo Dispatch added that 60 Russian employees of the Chinese Eastern railway coiled at Jarainor were arrested Monday for having flooded some mines.
