WHAT THE IDEAL MAN LOOKS LIKE

By NEA Service

LONDON—A survey taken of eight of England's most fair and distinguished women determined the types of manhood they admired the most. The following is the opinion of some of them:

Lady Segrave, wife of racer, prefers the tall, broad-shouldered, manly-looking sort—handsome in every way; Lady Diana Bridgeman, daughter of Countess of Bradford prefers the tall and above all, she says he must be a dark, very masculine male and a good talker; Lady Carey Evans, daughter of Lloyd George, likes the tall man, smiling countenance, which denotes a happy disposition; Mrs. Gerard D'Erianger, formerly Edythe Baker, famous actress, says: "Give me the man with an athletic appearance."

Looks like the tall men win.

In these days of high-powered press agents you have to be just a little suspicious of a story about a man biting a dog.

Relief From Curse of Constipation

A Battle Creek physician says, "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause."

But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or increasing the dose.

Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25 c today at the nearest Retail Drug Store—Star Drug Store.

Pearl Collins and Howard Shur were visitors in Klamath Falls on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Whorton, Miss Beebe and Mrs. Evans of Tenent, California spent Saturday in Klamath Falls. Whorton is a former resident of Worden.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Gordon of Clifton spent several days visiting relatives and friends in the vicinity of Worden. Mrs. Gordon formerly taught in the schools in Klamath Falls.

Miss Hazel McCalland, county school nurse visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gay on Monday.

Calendar Used in Giving Names to Negro Children

KINGSTON, N. C.—The Joneses will have no trouble forgetting their age. The first grandchild of William Jones and his wife, negroes has appeared at the residence of 1907, July Jones near here. Children in the family have been named for the year of their birth. The new addition will be christened either 1929 July Jones or July 1929 Jones, the parents said.

Nineteen Hundred Jones is now a resident of Baltimore, while the whereabouts of 1905 November Jones is not clear.

SUGGEST GAS REMEDY

LONDON—England, too, is complaining about the escaping carbon-monoxide gas from its buses and automobiles and several suggestions have been offered to remedy it. The most practical method of eliminating this gas evil suggested so far is to extend the exhaust to the top of the car, expelling the gas above the heads of pedestrians.

The gas is lighter than air and would not settle.

An Indian spider's web, only six inches wide, was found to contain over 41,000 meshes.

AT THE PELTAN

Australia, Russia, England, South America, Persia and the United States are named as the native countries of stage and screen actors portraying the principal roles in the all-talking Fox Movietone special, "Behind That Curtain."

The high-pitched chatter and campfire songs in their native tongues to barbaric music, faithfully reproduced by Movietone, is daily demonstrated at the Peltan theater.

AT THE PINE TREE

The extreme simplicity and directness of Willard Mack's all-talking picture, "The Voice of the City," which is now playing at the Pine Tree theater, has made it one of the most unusual and popular attractions to play recently in Klamath Falls.

"The Voice of the City" has been acclaimed by critics as a perfect example of talking picture technique. With its plot condensed in a time space of 24 hours, the story moves with extreme rapidity. From the moment it opens, with Doyle's sister and sweetheart awaiting word as to whether he has really survived, there isn't a wasted moment through the exciting man hunt by Pitt, the detective, until and Gilbert Emery, the featured players, are the United States entries in the cast, while Philip Strange, who plays the "heavy" role of Eric Durmond, is an Englishman and his companions in the company include Claude King, Peter Gawthorne, Finch Smiles and John Rogers.

Montague Shaw, portraying Hilary Galt, whose murder motives the story, is a native of Adelaide, Australia. Boris Karloff is a Russian and Jamel Hassen is a Persian.

From Buenos Aires, Argentina, comes Mercedes De Vilasco, a senorita of flamboyant style who has a vampish role. During the filming and recording of the picture,

AT THE ORPHEUS

Drawing from the endless well of color to be found in the Russia of the czars, FBO have made a drama that catches the imagination as well as one that is entertainment up to the last reel. "The Red Sword," which includes in its notable cast such stars as Marian Nixon, Carmel Myers and William (Buster) Collier, is booked to open at the Orpheus theater today.

Frankie Darro, the noted juvenile star of "The Rainbow Man," will be seen in a powerful minor role.

AT THE LIBERTY

Here comes Buzz Barton! Once more the 14-year-old cowboy star and idol of untold thousands of young folks and their elders throughout the country will dash across the screen at the Liberty theater on his faithful pony, beginning today, to rescue the heroine and bring confusion to the plots of his enemies.

How Buzz helps largely in running down the outlaw, with the aid of Hank and his friends, and saving an innocent young couple from disaster while bringing the criminal to justice, makes a thrilling story that will be welcomed by Barton's hosts of admirers.

Louis King, who wielded the megaphone over Buzz in his previous pictures, directed this one also and in the cast are included Milburn Morante, Patricia Palmer, Sam Nelson and Ethan Laidlaw.

WHERE THE MONEY GOES

NEW YORK—It has been estimated that the average American woman spends $50 a year on her face. United States department of commerce figures report that the average woman's expenditure goes one-sixth for powder and rouge; one-sixth for creams; one-sixth for perfumes, toilet waters and talcum; one-sixth for dentifrice; one-sixth for hair tonics; and the remainder for beauty treatments.
