AT THE THEATRES

AT THE PELICAN
Richard Dix, idol of thousands of movie fans, moved up a notch on the scale of success yesterday.

Richard Dix, Esther Ralston in "The Wheel of Life"

A Paramount Picture
day when he appeared in the leading role as Captain Yelliat, brave, romantic soldier of the British army in India in "The Wheel of Life" at the Pelican.

"The Wheel of Life" is great material for Mr. Dix because it brings him forward in a role of the type in which he seems to be most at home. He is the hero without losing the poise of the gentleman. He is bold and fearless without losing the restraint of the chivalrous lover.

He meets a girl (Esther Ralston) in London while on furlough and falls in love with her without discovering who she is. Later at the military post in India he meets her again—only to learn that she is the unhappy wife of O. P. Heggie, his commanding officer. Rather than prosecute his love and thus bring scandal on the regiment Dix decides to get a transfer. He is stationed at a lonely outpost in the Tibetan wilderness when he receives an order to rescue a group of British travelers who are besieged in a Buddhist monastery in the mountains. He goes to the rescue and finds that one of the travelers is Esther. They

O. A. C. REPORTS ON FULL VALUES
The Oregon State college reports that Hogged Fuel is the cheapest in Klamath county as compared with Fuel Oil, Utah coal and Pine Body or Limb wood.

You no doubt know that it takes a certain number of B. T. U. to heat your home or building. Figuring the market price on the following fuels, one dollar will buy in Utah coal, 1380555 B. T. U.; Body wood, 1500000 B. T. U.; Limb wood, 1500000 B. T. U.; Fuel oil, 2734055 B. T. U.; Hog fuel, 4935000 B. T. U.

These wonderful results on Hog Fuel are secured by using the "Bible Blue Flame Hog Fuel Burner," sold and installed exclusively by Peyton & Co. (Adv.) 19-1

AT THE LIBERTY
Rex, king of wild horses, the greatest steeple in motion pictures, will be seen in one of the most thrilling and exciting productions of this season when his newest starring picture for Universal, "The Harvest of Hate," with Jack Perrin and his famous horse, Starlight, is seen at the Liberty theater today. Because of his fierce temperament, combined with an almost human intelligence, Rex has proved to be the screen's greatest animal player.

Perrin, as the leading support pledge their love again as the gams of the native breeders are barking death around them. Reinforcements arrive in time, with Haggie leading them. This situation seemingly means the end of romance for Dix when—the most amazing climax of many a long day brings the lovers together.

AT THE PINE TREE
Annabel Lee, Broadway musical comedy actress, who won stardom through the sulcids, on the stage, of her leading man, is in the limelight again. She has sold the love letters of Jimmy Fairchild, younger brother of the wealthy John Fairchild, who is also known as the Broadway playboy, for $10,000.

The entire drama may now be seen upon the screen of the Pine Tree theater, where Dolores Costello, the Warner Brothers' beautiful star, is appearing in her latest picture, "The Glad Rag."

THIRTEEN DEAD IN OKLAHOMA TRAIN WRECK

HENRYETTA, Okla., Aug. 19. (AP)—Thirteen persons were killed and seven others were injured, two dangerously, when a St. Louis-San Francisco passenger train struck an open switch on the outskirts of Henryetta yesterday.

W. A. Wolfe, engineer, and H. A. Bryan, fireman, both of Sherman, Texas, and 11 negroes inf player, appears in one of his best roles. The western hero is known for his thrilling exploits, and he "rain demonstrates his ability to ride horses at breakneck speed, fight and "boot in a way that makes the observers hold their breath.

Helen Foster enacts the role of heroine. She is one of the most charming and beautiful players in the film colony. Miss Foster has played numerous daring roles during her screen career and her present one of Estrella, the rider in a wild west show, is among her best. Tom London, well-known screen heavy, enacts the villain role riding in a chair car, were scalded to death when the boiler of the locomotive exploded as the train plunged down an embankment.

Of the injured, Mrs. D. D. Taylor of Joplin, Mo., and Euel Renfro, baggage man of Tulsa, Okla., were in a serious condition. The others injured were negroes.

R. C. Gooch, an extra brakeman, and a negro porter escaped from the chair car by breaking the glass in a window.

Approximately 500 feet of track was torn up.

Officials began an investigation today to fix responsibility for the wreck. Harry Webb, a section hand, said he has closed the switch Saturday afternoon.

CARS NOW SAFER
The motor car of today is four times as safe as the car of 10 years ago, according to the A. R. Erskine bureau of street traffic research of Harvard university.

FIRST PAVED ROAD
The first paved road in the United States is said to have been one between New York and Boston, laid in 1450. It was made of cobblestones.

AT THE ORPHEUS
While taking the coal mining sequence, "Honor Bound," now at the Orpheus theater, it was hard to tell George O'Brien from any of the other "convicts" in the scene.

"After you dig coal for a few hours," says O'Brien, "every man looks alike. Your face and clothes are all one color until you really need a tag to let anyone know your name. When I happened to look at myself in the mirror I couldn't blame anyone for passing me by.

Estelle Taylor plays opposite George O'Brien in this daring expose with a supporting cast including Lella Hyams, Tom Sant schi and Sam DeGrasse.
