SUMMONS
No. 2012 Equity
In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Klamath Clarissa Games, plaintiff vs. Perry T. Games, defendant.

To Perry T. Games, defendant: In the name of the state of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, on or before the 19th day of September, A. D. 1929, that being the last day within which you are required to answer said complaint, as fixed by the order of publication of this summons. If you fail to appear and answer said complaint on or before the 19th day of September, A. D. 1929, the plaintiff, Clarissa Games, will apply to the court for the relief demanded and prayed for in plaintiff's said complaint, to wit: for a decree of divorce of and from the said defendant, Perry T. Games, on the grounds of desertion, and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem meet and proper.

This summons is published in The Evening Herald, a daily newspaper, printed, published and circulated daily at Klamath Falls, in Klamath County, Oregon, by order of the Honorable Fred R. Goddard, Judge of the County Court of Klamath County, Oregon, dated the 20th day of August, 1929, the first publication thereof to be made on the 20th day of August, 1929, and the last publication thereof to be made on the 17th day of September, 1929, the said order providing that summons should be published once each week for four successive weeks, in The Evening Herald, a daily newspaper, printed, published and circulated daily at Klamath Falls, in Klamath County, State of Oregon, and the paper designated as being most likely to give notice to said defendant.

Manning, McCulloch & Driscoll and Ralph W. Horan, Attorneys for plaintiff, whose office and postoffice address is 823 Main Street, Klamath Falls, Klamath County, Oregon, Aug. 20-27, Sept. 3-10-17.

AT THE THEATRES

AT THE PINE TREE

Scene from "The Lone Star Ranger," starring Dolores Costello-A Warner Bros. Production

There are all kinds of dolls throughout the world, but the most unusual of them all is Dolores Costello in "The Lone Star Ranger," now playing at the Pine Tree theatre.

In this unusual production Miss Costello portrays a musical comedy actress who falls in love with the son of a distinguished and somewhat snobbish family. He in turn loves her. But love sometimes grows cold, or better said, it is a woman's prerogative to change her mind.

The beautiful Dolores falls in love with another member of the family who has previously snubbed her. As one can readily see, the heart affairs in this case become quite complicated.

To clarify the situation, it might be well to visit the Pine Tree theatre, where "The Lone Star Ranger" is now playing.

AT THE ORPHEUS
"The Devil's Skipper," suggested by the Jack London story, "Demetrius Contos," will be the feature picture attraction at the Orpheus theatre commencing today.

"The Devil's Skipper" tells a graphic story of a woman captain of a slave ship who when a young and beautiful belle of New Orleans, married to the son of a wealthy family, and the mother of a baby girl, is torn from her child, shanghaied aboard a sailing vessel, where she has to fight against great odds and is saved from a terrible fate by one of the crew. Later she becomes the skipper of the slave ship, and in the course of her business dealings comes to New Orleans 20 years after her kidnapping. She plans revenge upon the man who was the cause of her unhappy life. It is in meeting this man that the great highlights of the story unfold.

AT THE LIBERTY
The Texas Rangers were organized in 1832 and bore the brunt of the conflict when Texas separated from Mexico. Later they protected the settlers and the frontier from the Indians.

Along in the '70's and '80's cattle rustling became rife. Whole herds were stolen. So the men were chosen for their absolute fearlessness and carried terror to the outlaws. They were the real gun-fighting men of the world.

Davy Crockett and other heroes of the Alamo were Rangers. Captain McNelly's famous band of 40 alone made 2,000 arrests besides killing many of the dangerous thieves.

"The Lone Star Ranger," the Zane Grey story in which William Fox has starred Tom Mix, deals with the interesting life of these plains-watchmen. It comes to the Liberty theatre today.

AT THE PELICAN
The story of the second Richard Dix all-talking picture, "The Wheel of Life," based upon the successful stage play by James Bernard Fagan, was adapted for the screen by John Farrow, who did the adaptation or continuation of such screen hits as "Ladies of the Mob," "The Woman from Moscow," "Three Week-Ends," "Wolf Song" and "A Dangerous Woman."

The action of "The Wheel of Life," at the Pelican theatre now, shows Dix as Captain Yeallat, of the British Service in India. A love affair develops between Yeallat and the young wife of his superior officer, an older man Yeallat and the girl are parted when he gets a transfer to Tibet in order to prevent a scandal in the regiment. But they meet later when Dix goes to the rescue of British travelers who are besieged in an ancient Buddhist monastery high in the Himalayas.

The finale is one of the most amazing climaxes in the history of dramatics, according to critics who viewed the production.

Eather Ralston plays the feminine lead, and O. P. Heggie, famous Broadway star, plays the role of the elderly colonel.

Residents of a home in Jamaica, L. I., explain that only half of their house was painted because neighbors refused to let painters put a ladder on their property. What a break for the landlord.

Hearing Destroyed By Catarrh
Physicians warn that continued neglect of catarrh often results in impaired or, in some cases, total loss of hearing. Catarrh of the nose and throat is a common and prevalent disease, hard to combat successfully because the germs penetrate to and infect the innermost parts of the respiratory system, making it impossible to treat these hidden, raw, tender, diseased spots with liquids or sprays.

The most effective way to kill all germs and promote restoration of healthy membranes, is through inhaling the vapor of heated "DEO," an amazing prescription of eucalyptus and other valuable oils. "DEO" (Dennis' Eucalyptus Ointment) gives instant relief, and banishes all catarrhal symptoms so quickly it seems magical! TRY IT. It is guaranteed to end catarrh—or your money back. Ask for "DEO" at all good dealers.
