ANGELS FORCE INTO LEAD IN COAST LEAGUE

Ducks Also Move Up Peg By Defeating Seals.

By The Associated Press
The Los Angeles Angels forged ahead to the Pacific coast league lead yesterday, the three top notchers of the day before were beaten in series openers.

Smashing out four hits in the ninth inning, the Angels won from Seattle in the northern city 7 to 6. It was a pitchers' duel between Smith and Baecht until the last frame, with four hits for each side, when the Indian hurler was batted out of the box.

The Portland Ducks, behind the brilliant pitching of Curt Fullerton, triumphed over San Francisco in the Rose city 5 to 1. The Portland pitcher, held the visitors to three scattered hits, one of them a homer by Smead Jolley. Jolley however, was blamed for some loose fielding which held back the Seals. The Portland hurler added to his laurels by making two hits in the same number of trips to the plate.

A seventh inning batting spree gave the Oakland A's an 8 to 6 victory over the Hollywood Stars at Los Angeles. Lefty Johns, star Hollywood hurler, was pounded from the box in that inning.

Sacramento's Senators triumphed over the San Francisco Mission Reds by an 8 to 6 score at Recreation park here. A three run rally in the ninth inning gave the Senators sufficient margin to nose out the locals who met two counters in their half of the last frame.

SHADE STRONG FAVORITE FOR TONIGHT'S GO

OAKLAND, Cal., Aug. 21, (A P)—The odd punch delivery and twisting ring style that has made Dave Shade first an foremost challenger for the middleweight title will be set into action tonight when the Concord, Cal., and New York "Croucher" meets up with young George Dixon, Portlar negro, in a ten rounder at the Oakland auditorium.

Whether Dixon can spray enough solid swats on Shade's anatomy to win a decision is problematical. Those who have gained the verdict over the lantern jawed Californian are few, and only recently he gave Rene DeVos, Belgian challenger, a solid thumping. Dixon has improved greatly in the last few months and recently stopped both Jock Malone and "Red" Ublan, clever veterans.

Shade is a strong favorite to win tonight.

Fists Brandished In Good Old Days

By AL DEMAREE (Former Pitcher N. Y. Giants)

Hack Wilson seems to have gained a good deal of notoriety as well as popularity from his fights with Kolp and Donohue of the Reds, but Hack is rather small potatoes as a fighter compared with the late Paul Santella, a star of the Southern league who later became a National league umpire.

Paul used to keep a date book of his fights. He never fought during the playing season. But every time he had an argument with another player, he'd put it down in his book with a date for the fight. "I fight after the season," he would say. "I put your name down."

Of course, most of these fights never came off, partly because he was really a tough fighter. They framed him once. They hired an ex-pug as a slinger to get him, but Paul cleaned up the pug!

George Moriarity, the umpire, player and manager, also was a great fighter, as was Charlie Schmidt, the old Detroit catcher,

K. O. WHITE BACK IN CITY

Looking For a Fight With Walter Cleghorn.

K. O. White, iron jawed negro, who fought Tiger Johnny Cline, to a draw in one of the most sensational cards ever presented to fight fans in this city on the night of Thursday, July 18 at the Pelican theatre is back in town.

With his manager, White arrived here this morning from the north and tonight will witness the fight card at Chiloquin when Frankie Warneke, cousin of Max Schmelling, the German heavyweight meets McQuillan, colored Seattle sensation.

McQuillan came south with White and stated he was in "the pink" for the battle tonight which will be staged before one of the largest crowds in the history of the fighting game in this county.

"Heard Walter Cleghorn was here and would like to challenge him for a fight," White told a Herald reporter this morning. "I'm in the pink and ready for another god battle. Just recently fought Joe Anderson in a six round draw at Aberdeen, Washington."

Two months ago he fought Cleghorn to a draw at Tacoma and says he is ready for another battle, hoping to make it a "knockout" this time.

Looks Like Athletics and Cubs in World Title Bout

By HERBERT W. BARKER Associated Press Sports Writer

The two Major league races have developed almost identical situations with the Philadelphia Athletics 13 games in front of their nearest American league opposition and the Chicago Cubs nine and one-half games to the good in the National circuit.

Although the Cubs got no better than an even break with the New York Giants they increased their lead by half a game as the Pittsburgh Pirates took another on the chin from the Phillies.

Both Cubs-Giant games were pitchers' battles. Freddy Fitzsimmons pitched Guy Bush in the opener and the Giants won by 4 to 1. In the night-cap, however, Hal Carlson blanked the Giants with six hits and the Cubs won 1-0.

Bush, losing his third game of the season against 17 victories was the victim of some poor fielding by McMillan and English. Fitzsimmons, however, would have had a shutout himself had not Bill Terry dropped an easy throw in the ninth.

Carl Hubbel gave Carlson a great argument in the second game, a triple by Hornsby and Wilson's single giving the Cubs the only run of the game in the fourth.

The Phils conquered the Pirates for the third time in a row by an 8-6 count. Lou Koupal pitched great ball until the seventh when the Corsairs scored five runs, three of them on Paul Waner's homer.

Thanks to another brilliant pitching performance by Ray Moss, the Brooklyn Dodgers got an even break in two games with the St. Louis Cardinals. After Wee Willie Sherdel had out-pitched Dazzy Vance to give the Cards the first game, 3-2, Moss blanked the Red Birds with four hits and walked off with a 4-0 triumph. It was Moss' fourth successive win.

Red Lucas pitched the Cincinnati Reds to an easy 6-2 victory over Boston to record his 15th win of the season.

In the American league the Yankees picked up a game on the Athletics by beating Chicago, 5-4, while the A's were losing to St. Louis, 2-1.

Ralph Kress' homer with one on in the sixth decided a tight pitchers' battle between Alvin Crowder of the Browns, and George Earnshaw and Jack Quinn of the A's at St. Louis. Crowder permitted only four hits.

Urban Faber, veteran, Chicago right hander, was presented with various gifts on "his day" by 15,000 fans but he could not check a heavy Yankee batting assault. The Yankees bunched their 11 hits to good advantage. Tom Zachary received credit for his ninth straight victory of the season although Wiley Moore was called to the roscus in the seventh.

Burke was knocked out of the box in the first inning by Cleveland but Myles Thomas stopped the Indians dead thereafter and Washington walked away with a 6-2 verdict.

The rambling Boston Red Sox assaulted three Detroit pitchers for 15 hits and beat the Tigers, 12-8. Charlie Ruffing went the route for Boston although he was nipped for 13 hits. He aided his own cause with a double and two singles, drove in one run and scored two.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE

OLD GOLD CONCEALED NAME CIGARETTE TEST

Ask us another if we haven't answered here every question ever asked about it

QUESTION: Does OLD GOLD publish the score of every public test taken?
ANSWER: Yes . . . win, lose or draw!

QUESTION: Is OLD GOLD always the same number?
ANSWER: No. In the actual tests there are no numbers on the cigarette masks. The smoker, himself, tears off the paper masks and finds out for himself which cigarette he has chosen as best.

QUESTION: Is the Concealed Name Test a "guessing contest" . . . does the smoker attempt to guess brand names?
ANSWER: Decidedly not! The smoker states only which cigarette tastes best to him, and does not try to guess the name.

QUESTION: Who conducts these tests?
ANSWER: Never the makers of OLD GOLD, or their agents. The tests are conducted by certified public accountants, or officials of the organization or institution under whose auspices the tests are given.

QUESTION: Are all competing brands equally fresh and in precisely the same condition?
ANSWER: All four brands are purchased before each test at the same time in the same store out of retail stock, just as the public buys them . . . and the clerk who sells them certifies the purchase.

QUESTION: Does the official conducting the test know which cigarette is which while the smoker is making the test?
ANSWER: No! The cigarettes are arranged in sets of four . . . one each of the four leading brands. Then they are masked . . . their names completely concealed. When the official hands out these masked cigarettes it is impossible for him, or anyone, to know one from another.

NOTE: Why not make this test yourself in your own home? We'll be happy to send you a set of the brand name masks and complete instructions . . . Write to P. Lorillard Co., 119 West 40th Street, New York City.
