DUCKS MAKE IT SEVEN IN ROW AGAINST SEALS

Record Crowd Cheers Portland Team to League Lead.

By The Associated Press
The rejuvenated Portland Ducks, who suddenly snapped out of a long dormant period in the cellar of the Pacific Coast league, finished a highly successful week against the San Francisco Seals yesterday by winning both games of a double-header to take the series seven games out of seven, and the league lead by the largest margin held by any top notcher in the last four weeks.

The Ducks completed their hang-up series by downing the Seals in the morning by a 4-0 score and in the afternoon by 5 to 4. Both games were dramatic thrillers from start to finish, and were witnessed by record sized crowds. In the first game Leroy Mahaffey blanked the San Franciscans in a beautiful shut-out exhibition. He allowed only four hits and held the bases empty except for three innings. In the second game the Seals did better, hitting Roy Chesterfield from the box in the first two innings.

The Los Angeles Angels and the Seattle Indians split a double-header in the northern city, the Indians taking the first 6-1 and the visitors the second contest, a seven inning affair, 7 to 3. Seattle took the series from out of seven games.

The Mission Reds and the Sacramento Senators traded even in their pair, the Reds winning 5-0 in the afternoon and the series by an odd game, while the Solons won the morning contest 9 to 5.

Hollywood took it on the chin twice at Wrigley field, Los Angeles, at the hands of the Oakland Acons, 4 to 0 in the first battle, and 9-7 in the second. The Oaklanders bagged five of the seven games played in the week.

By AL DEMAREE

Jack Burgess recently told me a good story about Alec Smith.

Alec and Johnnie McDermott had tied in the 1910 National Open and were to play off the next day and Alec was celebrating.

He was just downing his second "Scotch and Soda" when word was brought to him that McDermott had said that "no foreiner would win the American Open."

"Put your money on me, boys," Alec advised his friends. "I'm going to bed early and get a good night's sleep." But Smith didn't go to bed early and retired in the "wee sma'" hours, after a hectic evening.

After taking a cold bath and with four "whiskey sours" under his belt, Alec teed off that morning.

His friends were in a panic and were feverishly trying to copper their bets.

"Double your bets, boys," yelled Alec as he drove one straight down the middle after an unsteady stance on the tee.

When the match ended Smith had a 71 and McDermott a 73—Alec was American Open Champion.

PELICANS GIVE PHOENIX BLANK

With a greatly strengthened lineup and a decidedly rejuvenated spirit, the Klamath Falls Pelicans administered a shutout to the Medford-Phoenix team at the county fair grounds Sunday afternoon.

Beck, working for the Pelicans, pitched stellar ball, holding the visitors to four hits.

The game was featured by the fielding of Williams and Peterson. Williams, a recent release from the Utah-Idaho league, played center field and his work was nothing short of sensational. His stick work was equally as pleasing to the fans and in combination with Peterson was responsible for two of the four runs. Peterson at first let nothing get by and his batting was a worry to the visiting pitcher.

Ellis in right field made two timely catches, and Lant, playing his first game in a Pelican uniform, covered third in a most satisfactory manner. Five chances, three of them hard ones, came his way and he covered every one of them. Lant has had some experience in big time ball and he is a valued recruit to the Pelicans.

Fuller, short stop, and Smith, second baseman, regular members of the team were unexpectedly called from town yesterday and were unable to play. Their places were taken by R. Means, regular left fielder, and Estes, another new recruit. Both of these men fielded their positions well. Fuller and Smith will be in the lineup again next Sunday.

Manager Jimmie Mann has a tentative date with the Marshfield club for next Sunday at Marshfield. He is also negotiating with the McCloud Colored Giants for a game in the near future in Klamath Falls.

With the new talent on the Pelican roster baseball stock has gone up here and confidence is expressed that Klamath Falls will be a winner from here on to the close of the season.

TO REOPEN OLD MINE

GRANTS PASS, Ore., Aug. 26. (AP)—After thirteen years of idleness and litigation due to alleged mismanagement, the once prosperous gold and copper mine, the Akamad, near here, will be reopened within a month, according to P. J. Lonergan, mining engineer and stockholder.

The property is to be reopened by the Weara Mining corporation of Washington, it was said.

OBSTACLES TO MERGER

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (AP)—Harry F. Sinclair, in a statement made in the District of Columbia jail, and issued today through the New York offices of the Sinclair Consolidated Oil corporation said in response to a rumor of an impending merger of his company and the Prairie Oil and Gas company "there are many obstacles to be overcome before any merger or purchase can take place."

Grudge Meeting Between Cubs, Reds Tame Affair

BY WILLIAM J. CHIPMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The long-awaited grudge-meeting between the Reds and the Cubs came off in Cincinnati yesterday, but hardly as advertised, lured by threats and counter-threats of what would happen when Messrs. Wilson, Kolp and Donohue found themselves once more within the confines of a single ball park, even so roomy a battle-ground as Redland field, 25,422 clients appeared before the turnstiles with cash in hand.

They settled into their seats, or standing spaces, expecting at least a ten round bout but really hoping for a battle of the Marne. After all they had been led to hope for, they saw nothing but two very business-like ball games played by peaceful young men who apparently did not even know how to make a hostile gesture.

Red Lucas won the opener for the home team by six to three, his seventeenth triumph of the season, but Guy Bush turned the tables for Chicago in the nightcap, winning his eighteenth game by a score of ten to one after being held 0 to 0 by Pete Donohue for seven rounds.

The crowd, the largest paid attendance ever accommodated at Redland field, was not hostile to the pennant-bound Reds, although Hack Wilson drew a few deep-throated Bronx cheers from time to time. The fans more than made up for this, however, by the way they cheered Hack's circus catches, and he made several in the two games.

The even break enabled the Cubs to stretch their margin half a game to 13 full contests as the Pirates again bowed to the Giants, this time ten to five. The Bruin edge now is exactly the same size as that owned by the wily Mr. McGillicuddy in the rival league. The Pirates are only three games ahead of the Giants, who took three out of four.

Lester Sweetland pitched the Phillies to a four to 0 triumph over the Robins in Brooklyn yesterday, allowing only four hits, and Willie Sherdel shut out the Braves in Boston by an identical score while allowing five hits.

The game at the Polo grounds was marked by Mel Ott's thirty-second home run and by Cy Rigler's manipulation of a broadcasting device which amplified announcements of batteries and player changes to fans throughout the vast park.

After 23 scoreless innings, the master minds of the Yankees devised a plan for getting runs across the plate, at once simple and effective. It was merely to have Mr. Ruth step to the front and hammer the ball out of the lot, which he had neglected to do for some days until yesterday, as box scores of Yankee games will show.

Putting this plan into operation against Wally Stewart in the fourth and the ninth innings at Sportsman's park, yesterday, Mr. Ruth snapped the Yankee string of scoreless innings and lifted his personal home run from 33 to 35 but failed to win the ball game, which the Browns did at the expense of Roy Sherid by three to two. Ruth's two homers broke up a tie which had existed among the Yankees slugger and Hack Wilson and Chuck Klein.

The Athletics also lost yesterday when Al Thomas allowed just four hits to win by three to 0. It was three out of four for the White Sox over the leaders, who now have dropped six of their last eight. The Mackaln lead remains fixed at 13 games because the Yankee record over the same period is identical.

Detroit finally won from Washington, stopping the Senators by eight to seven in eleven innings at Navin field, and the Indians divided a double-header with the rejuvenated Red Sox. Cleveland took the opener by five to four and Boston the nightcap by five to three.

MONTANA AND IDAHO TIMBER STILL BURNING

MISSOULA, Mont., Aug. 26. (AP)—Five forest fire fighters have been injured, one killed, a number of buildings along a wide front, in an effort to check the forest fires in northwestern Montana and northern Idaho.

All available men from several towns have been sent to the front line to stem the flames that have destroyed thousands of acres of timber.

The men who were injured were fighting the Train creek fire and were treated at Kallispell, Mont. E. Morgan, a fire fighter from Missoula, lost his life when he fell from a freight train near Whitefish, Mont.

A number of buildings have been destroyed in the Half Moon fire in the locality of Whitefish, Mont., it is reported. On a few ranches the fire swept to the very doors of the ranch houses, but did not destroy the structures.

A 14-hour battle with the flames to save his home and cabins near Lake MacDonald, was reported by Dr. Roderick Houston. Single handed, he fought the blaze and saved his property.

Zeke Admits Weakness For Moonlight on Lake

But Experiences With Chinese Laundry Maid Jars His Aesthetic Tastes Some When He Has to Hang Her Up to Dry.

By ZEKE SZEKE
AGAIN has the pendulum in grandfather's clock of time ticked off another precious four weeks into the bottomless cone of eternity.

AGAIN has the monthly alarm sounded signaling the landlord to expose his lily-white limbs to breezy drafts from chilly tenants.

FOR the third again has the moon been tom-cattin around among the celestial bootleggers and gotten full once more.

WE DO not aim to run and tell every time the faithful orb comes peeping around all "hit up" but we do desire to spill a favorite Boston food item by claiming that in few other places on God's green stirrup are there the equal of the moonlight nights that are displayed on the Southern Oregon landscape counters.

OF A truth, we have a 24-karat, 16-to-1, William Jennings Bryan silvery moon, which will still be running strong at the next election.

AS ONE steps forth to bathe himself in these beautiful nocturnal festivals, the average citizen envies the fox, the coyote, the bobcat and the hootowl, which are not bothered by looking up the hens and turning in while so much silvery splendor is being wasted on sleeping humanity.

BUT a moonlight treatment, taken under the doctor's prescription is most effective while the patient has his arm crooked around his best girl's waist. And if one can be sitting out in a boat on the lake, so much the better.

TUESDAY night, while this writer was taking his chink girl, Sady Tong, home from the Noodle Makers' ball, we walked along the lake front as young folks often do.

ESPYING a skiff, we boarded it and were soon paddling out across the gently heaving bosom of Klamath lake, both as happy as two peewees when sheep ticks are thick.

EARTH'S kind satellite shone as never before. Lights in the city sparkled and flitted. Radiant bars from the sawmill beamed.
