Old Friends Meet—Happenings of more than 25 years ago in the Klamath country were renewed when J. O. Hamaker of Bonanza visited over the week end with Charles Crowley, now of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Walter Johnson, resident of this county more than 25 years ago. "I could hardly realize that many years had elapsed since we last visited," Mr. Hamaker commented while in the city yesterday on business. Mr. Crowley more than 35 years ago used to ride for J. Frank Adams. He is now a resident of Los Angeles. Mrs. Johnson will be remembered by many of the prominent residents of Klamath county. She is the daughter of the late G. W. Smith, formerly county judge of Klamath. Mrs. Johnson is visiting in Klamath county with friends, and visited at the Hamaker home in Bonanza on Sunday.

Miss Pixley Arrived—Miss Lola Pixley, formerly of Eugene, who recently accepted the position of private secretary to Earl C. Reynolds, executive secretary of the chamber of commerce, has arrived from the north and will resume her duties on Monday, September 2. Miss Pixley has motored to Lakeview to visit her parents prior to taking her new position. She takes the position formerly held by Miss Bernice Hartenbrower, who returns to college at Idaho in a short time. Miss Hartenbrower made many friends while this summer, who will regret to learn of her departure.

Mrs. Clark Left—Mrs. Clark and small daughter have left for their home in Los Angeles, after spending the past two months here visiting with Mrs. Clark's father, Sam Pellers, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Vortzer. Mrs. Clark is looking forward to a return visit here next year.

Miss Olson Ill—Maxine Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Olson, 1949 Melrose avenue, is confined to Klamath Valley hospital, where she submitted to a minor operation yesterday. Her condition is reported most satisfactory.
