ARCHITECT NOW IN FINE SHAPE; LAUDS SARGON

"I do not hesitate to endorse a medicine that has accomplished such remarkable results for me as Sargon. It is an actual fact that I am stronger and mentally

CHRISTOPHER C. ROBBINS more alert than I have been in twenty-five years.

"Because of bad stomach trouble, I lived for four years on bread and milk and other liquid diets. My kidneys were badly out of order, my sleep was restless and I was extremely nervous. A sharp pain in the region of my liver troubled me a lot. I was also constipated and suffered with biliousness. "After I began taking Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills, before I realized it, almost, I had a splendid appetite, ate practically anything I wanted and never had the least stomach trouble. My nervousness has disappeared completely now, I sleep splendidly and feel strong and energetic in the mornings. The pills corrected my constipation and biliousness and never yet have nauseated me.

"I'm perfectly honest when I say I never dreamed a medicine could do so much for me." Christopher C. Robbins, 63 E. 20th St., Portland, architect and engineer of note, recently made the remarkable statement above. Sargon may be obtained in Klamath Falls from the Magill Drug Co.—(Adv.)

REFRIGERATOR MAKES RECORD

"Over 250,000 users and not a dollar has been spent for repairs is the remarkable slogan of the General Electric refrigerator which is being featured this month by the Copco electric stores throughout this territory. As announced in the advertising campaign now being carried on by the power company, this popular make of refrigerator may be purchased for as little as $10 down with 18 months to pay the balance. This special Copco offer should make it possible for local residents to install the latest modern methods of year-round food preservation in their homes at terms almost anyone can afford to pay.

Much interest has already been shown in this exceptional Copco offer and many local people are planning to take advantage of it before the close of the campaign.

HEROES ARE MADE—NOT BORN.

AT THE THEATRES

AT THE PELICAN
Appearing in a series of breath-taking, death-defying aerial exploits, "The Flying Fool" is at the Pelican Theatre today in the person of William Boyd. Pathe star. It is a thrilling, all-talking air drama in which this popular player is supported by Marie Prevost, Tom O'Brien, Russell Gleason and other notable screen artists.

While this new air picture has an aviation background and contains some of the most sensational air stunts ever photographed, it is essentially a high-powered drama of humor mingled skillfully and blended into a fine network of entertainment. It is the story of a stunt flyer, who risks his life every day to satisfy a thrill-hungry mob. He is a devil-may-care personality whose other chief interest in life is women. But, he boasts, he has never fallen in love. Then his kid brother becomes interested in a cabaret entertainer and the flying fool decides to "save" him from this supposedly designing woman. What happens after that is plenty and the story is said to rise to a tremendous climax in the air.

AT THE LIBERTY
One of the most striking characterizations in which she has appeared for some time is that enacted by Letrice Joy in "Man-Made Woman," which is now showing at the Liberty theatre. "Man-Made Woman," which was adapted for the screen by Alice D. G. Miller from Ernest Pascal's story, shows Miss Joy surrounded with a brilliant cast which includes H. B. Warner, John Boles, Deena Owen and Jeanette Loff.

AT THE PINE TREE
"Soldiers do not make a war picture!" someone has said. This is convincingly illustrated in "From Headquarters," the newest Warner Bros. special production starring the popular Mone Blue, at the Pine Tree theatre today. Many U. S. Marines appear prominently throughout the story—and yet it is not in any sense a war picture. Rather, it is a stirring tale of tropical love, of the dangers encountered in a war-torn country of the tropics, and of a man whose heart led him to become an irresponsible dervish in a foreign land. Blue's supporting cast in this remarkable picture includes Ethelwyn Clair, Quinn Williams, Henry B. Walthall, Lionel Belmore, Joseph Girard, Gladys Brockwell, Eddie Gribbon, Pat Harrigan, Pat Somerset and Otto Lederer.

AT THE ORPHEUS
Sammy Cohen and Jack Penick, Fox Films comedy team, held down jobs in pre-picture life that were anything but humorous occupations. Young Cohen was a salesman in his father's furniture store in Los Angeles and his elongated team mate, a hard-boiled sergeant of marines. The young hoover's clowning in Los Angeles theatres and cafes attracted casting directors' eyes, and soon he was, as several motion pictures recorded it, "stealing the glory" in "What Price Glory?" Pennick also portrayed a bit in the same production, and after enacting minor roles in several other photographs was cast as the leeman in "Four Sons," his first outstanding role. Meanwhile Sammy had been featured in "The Gay Retreat" and "Why Sailors Go Wrong," and Fox officials, checking the laugh reactions of viewers of the three films, decided to feature him in "Plastered in Paris," a Benjamin Stoloff, super comedy, which comes to the Orpheus theatre today.
