STARS SEEM TO HAVE SEWED UP COAST PENNANT

Reds Now Fighting It Out With Angels For Second.

(By the Associated Press) The Hollywood Stars had the Pacific coast league lead sewed up today with a margin on one and a half games, after trouncing the San Francisco Mission Reds for the second time in two days in Los Angeles.

Meanwhile, the Reds were sinking lower and lower. Only the day before yesterday they occupied the top notch position, but Hollywood gave them a setback and today the Missions were tied for second place with the Los Angeles Angels.

The Stars defeated the Reds by a 11 to 4 score, behind the pitching of Johns. Although touched for 11 hits, the Hollywood portside was stony in the pinches, and held the heavy hitting San Franciscans to one run until the closing inning. Home runs by Huff and Hoffman brought the Mission tallies.

Los Angeles downed the Seals 11 to 5, taking a two-to-one edge on the series. Vernon Gomez, young lefthander sold recently to the New York Yanks, started the game but was batted out of the box in the third when the Angels scored eight runs. Val Glynn relieved Gomez and after getting out of the trouble, held the home team at Recreation park to a shutout until the eighth inning when the Angeles put across three unearned runs to gain the winning margin.

The Oakland Acorns took the marbles at Emeryville yesterday, defeating the Portland Ducks in an uphill contest 9 to 5. Just as they did the day before, the Ducks led the winning punch so when Charlie Bates popped out and Larry Woodall's grounder found willing hands after they had the winning run on base in the ninth inning with only one out. The Oaks had the Ducks on the short end of an 8 to 2 score at the close of the sixth.

Gods pitching featured the third game between Seattle and Sacramento, which was won by the Indians 2 to 0 for their second straight victory. Only eight hits were recorded. Smith, Indians hurler, held the capital city boys to only three hits. Ferrill, a Stockton youth, was nicked for five.

YOU CERTAINLY CAN SOAK THAT OLD ONION IN THE SPUNCH. ATTA BOY, EDDIE, OLE TOP-WERE ALL FOR YOU, OLE KIDDO! YOU'RE THERE AND YOU'RE THERE!

THE WORLD SERIES HERO

AND THE WORLD SERIES GOAT

By AL DEMAREE (Former Pitcher New York Giants)
In every world series there is the inevitable hero and the equally inevitable goat. Just what players fate has picked to assume these roles in the spotlight of the impending series between the Chicago Cubs and the Athletics no one knows.

"Babe" Adams, who pitched the Pittsburgh Pirates to a world championship in 1909, was probably the first well-known hero of the annual classic; while Fred Snodgrass, whose muff cost the Giants the 1912 series, was the first of an illustrious line of goats which have persisted till the present day.

Fate hasn't picked on any particular position for its heroes or goats. Pitchers, catchers, infielders and outfielders have all played their part.

Some of the heroes' fame was short lived. George Roche, substitute infielder for the Chicago White Sox, virtually won a world series all by himself, but the next spring he wasn't even in the league. As Dick Rudolph, the Boston Braves' 1914 hero, says, "baseball is a tough business. You've got to make good every day!"

than a couple of fights apiece, it will be one of those "things" that the fans like. This big tall rawboned McCormick from Dairy, is managed by a shrewd handler of fighters, Mr. Jonas, a sportsman who has been in the game 20 years. He expects great things from this youngster with a lot of ring experience. He is boxing every evening at the legion pavilion, taking on all comers to get the necessary experience. He is a straight puncher and showed in his bout at Chiloquin that he is very game.

Red McCormick, a lad from Merrill, will give away plenty of weight in tackling "Tiny," but he is one tough hombre. He says "The bigger they are the harder they fall." The boys are all getting in the best of shape for the coming battles.

ATHLETICS WIN AND CUBS LOSE BUT BOTH GAIN

Giants Smeared Pirates To Help Bruins' Margin.

(By the Associated Press) The Athletics moved one game nearer their pennant yesterday by winning, but the Cubs advanced just as rapidly through a defeat as the Giants were smearing the Pirates by 5 to 5. Each of the leaders now needs three victories, with the armistice in prospect perhaps by Sunday night.

If Jess Petty can halt the Giants today, the Pirates may feel fairly safe in second place. After failing to defeat the veteran Neft in the opening game of the series, the Phillies went on a hitting spree in Chicago yesterday and gave Guy Bush his fifth trouncing of the season. Claude Willoughby held the Bruins to seven blows and was scored upon only because of Wilson's homer.

A freak blow by Horace Ford for four bases with one Red on the paths enabled the veteran Eppa Rixey to shade Dazzy Vance and the Robins at Cincinnati by 3 to 2 in the second game of the series. The ball chased Babe Herman into the right field seats, and itself skipped merrily about outside for a home run as Herman tried to extricate himself from his predicament.

Rain in St. Louis built up a doubleheader today for the Braves and the Cardinals. After the White Sox had chased Rube Walberg from the mound with a two-run flurry which tied the score at 3 to 3 in the sixth, the Athletics pushed home one in the eighth to win by 4 to 3.

The Yankees finally broke the spell woven about them by the Browns, winning by 5 to 2, after five straight losses in their previous five engagements against the St. Louisans, but the runs came hard off Sammy Gray. Walter Miller held the Senators helpless, and Cleveland won the second game of the series by 5 to 1. Arthur Herring, who

COLLEGE PROFS WORRIED AFTER VISIT TO LAKE

Members of the department of pathology of the University of Oregon are daily taking their temperatures, checking their respirations and otherwise watching for a possible approach of illness, all due to the fact that they made the mistake of eating a mess of Elk Lake fish that were sent them for examination. As one of the methods of determining the origin of the worms that are taking a heavy toll of fish from Elk Lake several nice appearing trout were sent to the medical school. They were nicely packed in ice and the employees of the department, all fish hungry, cooked and devoured them. It is thought, however, that no ill effects will result as many infected fish were doubtless eaten with no serious results before the lake was closed to fishing. The work of determining the source of the worms that infest the stomach of Elk Lake fish still goes on through the co-operation of the state game commission and the state health department. Gulls that flock to the lake were first thought to have carried the worms but they have been given a clean bill of health.
