

O'GRADY AND BENNETT ARE IN PINK OF CONDITION

Each Battler Is Confident of Winning Over K.O. Route

Semi-Windup and Special Bouts Give Promise of Exciting Moments for Fans at Legion Pavilion Tonight. Spencer-Rosander Go Creating Unusual Interest.

With both the main eventers reporting in the pink of condition and all the other fighters rarin' to go, the prospects for a very interesting, if not highly cultural, evening at the Legion pavilion are bright.

Both O'Grady, the hard fighting farmer boy from Ashland, and Tommy Bennett, crafty boxer and slugger of San Francisco, are in the best fighting trim of their careers and each is promising to mar the record of the other when they come together this evening.

This will be the best fight card seen in Klamath Falls in years," said Joe "Tex" Bickerstaff this morning in discussing the program. "These boys are all ready to put the best there is in them and the fans will not be disappointed." Mr. Bickerstaff further stated that he believed it was a better card by far than the one staged in Portland the first of the week and that big city fans would find nothing to complain about in the Klamath Falls card.

Everybody Heated

While the boys rested last night, speculation on the outcome of the various bouts was active. The betting is still in favor of O'Grady, but cautious observers are not overlooking the fact that this man Bennett knows his "onions" and there are not a few who will be surprised if he does not take Gene's measure. Both boys are clean, aggressive fighters and are anxious to raise their standings to the big time rating. This battle means everything in the world to both of them, so, look out.

The Program

The curtain raiser gives promise of boxing the show this time just as the featherweights did in the last card. From Marshfield comes little Milling Miller with a reputation for speed and punch rarely seen in these parts. Tex has matched him with Lee Swope, a lad from the south who brings a rep as good as Miller's. Chairs will be out of order when these fellows come together.

A lot of fun is in prospect when the two Klamath giants, Tey McComber and Red McCormack, clash. These boys will make up with ambition what they lack in experience. Worth the price of admission, so don't be late.

The special four-round event between Steamboat Jackson and Chuck Rosander will be a knock-out, literally as well as figuratively, if determination counts for anything. These boys are well known here and the fans don't need any dope on them.

Then, there's the semi-windup, six rounds of fast boxing that will make the main event strain a few points. Johnny Spencer and Austin Rosander are familiar ring men around here and every fan knows these boys get up and dust any time they appear on the rosined canvas. A knock-out may not be pending in this battle, but there will be some hair raising moments.

Tickets are on sale at the Mecca Pool hall. The gong rings promptly at 8:45.

THURSDAY NOT HOME RUN DAY WITH BIG BOYS

Not a Circuit Clout Made on Four Diamonds.

(By WILLIAM J. CHIPMAN) (Associated Press Sports Writer) Whatever trepidation the strange antics of the Messrs. Grove, Bush, Carlson and others may have incited in the breasts of Connie Mack and Joe McCarthy through the last few weeks, these forthcoming world's series rivals could pick no flaws in the work of Rube Walberg and Pat Malone yesterday.

With a team of rookies at his back, Walberg whipped his fast one through the bright autumn air at Shibe park with such effectiveness that the hard-winged Bengals from Detroit were able to get only four safe blows. It was hardly a day for a speed ball master, but the game would not have been close if Walberg had not given nine free passes. He won by 5 to 4.

Since the Cubs no longer need to win, they broke a losing streak yesterday behind the six-hit pitching of Pat Malone, who defeated the Giants by 5 to 4. Larry Benton was prodded for all of the Chicago runs in the first two innings before Jack Scott was called to the rescue.

Boston continued its fast work in Pittsburgh, defeating the Pirates by 6 to 3 in the third game of the series. Harry Siebold, the venerable recruit, got credit for the victory. Burleigh Grimes was the defeated pitcher yesterday, taking his eighth loss.

Ray Kolp splashed the Phillies with a 5 to 0 coat of whitewash at Cincinnati, giving the Reds two straight and a tie for sixth place.

Brooklyn and the Cards were idle. Along the American league front the most interesting secondary development was Washington's further success in entrenching its forces in fifth place. The Senators took a thriller from the Browns by 2 to 1 yesterday as Detroit lost to the Macks, and at night fall Walter Johnson held the top place in the second division by two and one-half games.

Fewer than 500 fans turned out to see the White Sox blank the Yankees by 7 to 0. Hal McKain gave the larrupping Hugmen just four blows, all singles, as the Sox drove George Pipgras from the mound.

Milton Gaston pitched the Red Sox to a 3 to 2 victory over Cleveland at the Fenway in a close battle with Willis Hudlin.

For the first time in two years, major league aviators failed to produce even one home run on a day marked by more than four games. All but two of the teams were in action yesterday, but not a single circuit blow was delivered.

Cubs Must Conceal Signals Carefully

By AL DEMAREE (Former Pitcher N. Y. Giants) Signs often play a big role in the world series. I wonder if the Chicago Cubs will be as successful in keeping their signs a secret as did the Boston Braves in the 1914 upset.

There was gossip that the Athletics were getting their opponents signs. They had some smart fellows like Eddie Collins, Jack Berry and Eddie Murphy, and when they got a man on first they'd punt him down to second, where he would get the signs of the catcher and tip them to the hitter.

Johnny Evers and George Stallings worked out a combination sign that the Athletics couldn't fathom and their game was upset. Their hitters couldn't depend on a tip-off from Chief Bender down on the third base coaching line, and if he got set for a curve and a fast one came at his head he was liable to get killed.

Manager McCarthy and Jimmy Burke had better get their heads together on a new set of signs.

A Rochester professor says there are 507 known annoyances in the world. Wonder if there's a place on his list for the dentist who smiles when he sticks that burr in your teeth.

BOWLING RESULTS

The Klamath Alley team won two out of three games from the lumber boys at the game played in the Klamath Bowling alleys yesterday. The last set was a good close game with only 29 pins difference.

The teams around the city, composed of men from various business houses, are getting in shape and will be ready to start league and tournament play in a very short time.

Following are the scores made:

STORMS AGAIN RAVISH ISLAND

STORMS AGAIN 14 ...N ...N MANILA, Sept. 20, (AP)—The Philippine executive bureau reported today that 26 persons had perished in the typhoon which struck the southern part of Luzon island last Tuesday and Wednesday. The casualties referred to were on the Islands of Catanduanes and Rapurapu in Albay province.

This week's storm apparently hit that section much harder than did the typhoon early in the month, when some 200 persons perished in various parts of southern Luzon.

The executive bureau's report said this week's storm destroyed or damaged more than 7,000 houses.

ACTORS DROP BACK ONE PEG IN FLAG RACE

Seals Leading Stars By Half Game Margin.

(By the Associated Press)

Trouble came in bunches to the Hollywood Stars, who for more than a fortnight have led the Pacific coast league parade, and today they found themselves marching behind the San Francisco Seals, a double set-back leaving the southern club half a game from the top.

The first blow to the hopes of the Stars came in the form of a defeat handed them by the Los Angeles Angels, who won 4 to 1 through the zippy mound manipulations of S. Baecht, thus giving the Angels two straight over their movieland rivals.

Making it three straight over the Mission Reds of the bay city, the San Francisco Seals put the finishing touches on Hollywood's hard luck by displacing the southern club at the top of the league. The score was 10 to 6.

Rudolph Kallio sped his curve ball across the platter as in the days of yore, and took his Indian clubmates to a 5 to 1 walkaway over the Oakland Acorns in the camp of the redskins. Four double plays featured the battle, three by the Indians and one by the Oaks.

Portland defeated the Sacramento Senators 4 to 1 on the northern lot, taking a one game edge on the series. Vincel for the Senators and MaHaffey for the Ducks pitched good ball, but a homer by D. Harris of Portland helped the home boys.

NEW TYPE OF WORLD SERIES

HAWK SPRINGS, Wyo., Sept. 20, (AP)—Two baseball teams composed entirely of brothers are to play a world's series of their own starting tomorrow.

One team is the Marlatt brothers of Hawk Springs and the other is the Stansak brothers of Waukegan, Ill.

Hawk Springs will be the scene of the first two games and the other will be played in Waukegan Sept. 28 and 29. If they break even in the four games, the teams then meet on a neutral diamond to decide the world's brothers title.
