"PRETTY WORDS"

POETS make pets of pretty docile words:
I love smooth words, like gold-enameled fish
Which circle slowly with a silken swish.
And tender ones, like downy feathered birds:
Words shy and dappled, deep-eyed in herds,
Come to my hand and playful if I wish.

Blue Persian kittens, fed on cream and curis:
I love bright words, words up and singing early:
Words that are luminous in the dark and sing:
Warm, lazy words, white cattle under trees:
I love words opalescent, cool and pearly,
Like midsummer moths, and honeyed words like bees:
Gilded and sticky, with a little sting.

University Women Give Entertainment

University Women were in charge of a distinctly lovely affair at the city library club rooms this afternoon, commencing at 2 o'clock.

More than 80 members of the association and those eligible for membership were entertained at a bridge party and luncheon in a beautiful setting of autumn flowers. An abundance of colorful flowers were used for decorations.

Later in the afternoon a number of those who were not able to attend the bridge party dropped in for tea.

Mrs. C. C. Seeley and Mrs. Claude McCulloch were in charge of the arrangements. They were assisted by the newly elected officers of the organization who are Mrs. Percy Murray, president; Mrs. R. E. Geary, vice-president; Mrs. Guy Hancock, secretary; Mrs. Earl C. Reynolds, treasurer.

A short business session was also held at the same time.

Choir Party Wednesday Eve

Sacred Heart church choir was delightfully entertained in an appropriate setting of autumn flowers in shades of yellow, at a bridge party held Wednesday evening at the home of Rev. A. F. Loeser.

The rooms were beautifully decorated and were a typical representation of autumn festivity. A buffet luncheon was served following a bridge game.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. B. Noud, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Joyaux, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Daugherty, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Barker, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Igle, Mrs. Jewell Barlow, Mr. C. A. Merino, Mr. Waisley and Rev. O'Connor and Rev. A. F. Loeser.

Bridge Given By Miss Walton

Kathryn Walton entertained with a bridge party at her home in Homedale last Wednesday evening as a courtesy to a number of the girls who will leave soon for college.

A color note of yellow was carried out throughout and bowls of yellow autumn flowers were placed gracefully about the rooms.

Following an enjoyable time of playing bridge high scores were awarded to Ruth Cofer and Mrs. T. R. Gillenwaters. The guests were Mesdames Harvey Borgman, T. R. Gillenwaters, Edgar DeSpain and Misses Elizabeth Graham, Helen Abbey, Audra McPherson, Ruth Cofer and Dorothy Dunham.

Mrs. D. Graffis Visiting Here

Mrs. Danna F. Graffis of Phoenix, is visiting in Klamath Falls with her cousin, Mrs. C. C. Low at 615 California avenue.

Mrs. Graffis is a member of one of the oldest pioneer families in the state of Oregon and has lived in Phoenix for many years. She homesteaded the state line farm near Dorris, Calif., more than 30 years ago. She recently visited the old landmark with Mrs. W. D. Miller.

The green hat by Paris is an important item in fall millinery. This dark, misty green soleil has a cabochon of the material at the side held by a strap pin.

Activities Planned by Members

The social circles of the First Presbyterian church will resume their activities this week following the usual summer postponement. A full calendar for autumn and winter is being planned by the three circles of the church.

The Miriam circle will meet on Thursday, Sept. 27, at the home of Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, 219 Pine street. Plans are being made by members of this circle for a church dinner, the date for which has been set for Oct. 2. It will be given in the church parlor, under the direction of Mrs. Calvin M. Bass.

Opening the fall activities, the Bethany circle will meet with Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger at her home, 2032 Earl street. Mrs. Burt E. Hawkins will assist Mrs. Wiesendanger.

The Dorcas circle will hold their initial fall meeting at the home of Mrs. Calvin Peyton, 919 Market street, on Thursday, Sept. 27. The meeting has been announced for 2:30. Mrs. N. B. Drew will be joint hostess with Mrs. Peyton.

All members are requested to be present at all of these meetings as they are of special importance.

Aloha Chapter Will Meet Tuesday

The regular meeting of the Aloha chapter of Eastern Star is scheduled for Tuesday evening, Sept. 24 with Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg and Mrs. Mollie Belding acting as hostess.

Following the regular business meeting a social hour is being planned. An interesting musical entertainment is being arranged and other features for the evening.

The meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock. Mrs. F. Hill Hunter, worship matron, invites all Eastern Star members of Klamath Falls to be in attendance.

Music Section Met Monday

Music section of the Women's Library club held their first fall meeting on Monday, Sept. 16, at the city library club rooms. Mrs. J. Royal Shaw, chairman, was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt arranged an interesting musical program which follows:

1. Forgi Amor
2. E Susan non vien Dove Sono
3. Voi che sapete
4. Che so ave Zeffiretto
5. Deh vien non tardar

Mrs. Marjorie Olds and Mrs. Pauline Offield.

This year's work will be devoted to the study of nine operas.

High School Students Honored

Miss Katherine Pope, popular high school student, proved a charming hostess when she entertained a number of her girl friends at a breakfast and slumber party at her home, 237 Jefferson, on Thursday.

Numbered among the guests were Misses Mary Frances Dougherty, Maudie Baker, Dorothy Raymond, Dorris Jones, Vera Moore, Helen Cofer, Maryellen Bradford, Jewell Herrick and the hostess, Katherine Pope.

The affair was entirely novel and entertaining.

Mrs. Momyer Will Be Hostess

Members of the Methodist Missionary society are looking forward with a great deal of pleasure to the meeting which will be held on Thursday, Oct. 3, when Mrs. H. E. Momyer will preside as hostess.

The meeting will be held at Mrs. Momyer's home, 227 Juniper street.

Agency Lake Scene for Meeting

One of the most enjoyable meetings of the season was held by the local W. C. T. U. on Tuesday, Sept. 17, on the beach of Agency lake.

Mrs. James Grimes was the hostess for this occasion and served delicious creamed chicken, watermelon and iced drinks to the guests. The luncheon was spread on a long table under a grove of trees.

Following luncheon Mrs. Boyd, the president, called the meeting to order and the subject of increasing the attendance was brought up for discussion. A plan is being formulated to raise money for the local union and children's farm which is located at Corvallis. It was decided to hold a cooked food sale on Saturday, Oct. 12.

The following guests were present at the meeting: Mesdames Frances Boyd, Mary McDonald, Rhoda Tompkins, Jackson, Davis, Cochran, F. W. Abbey, June Grimes, Edgar Markell, Bertha McDonald, Minnie Grizzle, Blanche F. Brannan, Rev. and Mrs. Cotton and the hostess, Mrs. James Grimes.

Initiation Held for Freshmen

Initiation for the freshman class of the Sacred Heart academy in the form of a delightful party was held at the hall in the academy on Thursday evening.

More than 15 members of the incoming class were entertained by the remainder of the high school classes for the purpose of having them become better acquainted with the school and the students.

Refreshments were served at a late hour, following games which were enjoyed by all. Members of the faculty were present as sponsors.

Maudie Baker Entertains

Complimenting Maryellen Bradford, graduate of the 1929 class of the Klamath Falls Union high school, Miss Maudie Baker was hostess to a coterie of the younger set at her home on Wednesday evening.

A pot luck luncheon was enjoyed by the guests who numbered 17.

Those who enjoyed Miss Baker's hospitality were the Misses Helen Cofer, Helen Gregory, Lois Robertson, Margaret Christopherson, Nadine O'Flaherty, Gertrude Lindley, Alexis Lyle, Harriet Hunter, Jean Frazier, Lillian Wohlender, Mary Frances Dougherty, Dorris Young, Henrietta Wright, Betty Zimmerman and Helen Mason and the honor guest, Maryellen Bradford.

Gown in the New Graceful Mode

Chic new lingerie incorporates the loveliest of all the new points of style into its smartness. This gown, of flesh colored rayon crepe, sponsors the moulded silhouette, belted at natural waistline, the fuller, longer skirt, achieved by a circular cut below the yoke, and rich decoration in the form of cote au lait lace which fastens almost the entire upper portion and extends gracefully down one side. The scalloped neckline and hem are just indicative of the gentle touch of grace most new fashions employ.

H. Campbell Is Honored on Friday

Honoring Herbert Campbell, who will leave Sunday to resume his work at Annapolis academy at Annapolis, Md., after spending the past two weeks re-visiting friends and relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Paul T. Jackson were host and hostess to a party last evening.

The affair was held in the gymnasium of the high school. Members of the Klamath Order of DeMolay, of which Herbert is a member, were invited, with their girl friends. More than 30 couples enjoyed the party.

Radio music furnished the music for dancing. The radio was installed by Lewis Clark, civic teacher. A number of the faculty were present.

Mrs. Newell Holds Musical

A lovely affair which served as the opening to the fall and winter social season in the city was presided over by Mrs. H. D. Newell when she entertained with an afternoon musical in the assembly room of the First Methodist church last Wednesday afternoon.

Previous to the program of music a 1 o'clock luncheon was served at eight individual tables. About 75 guests were present. In the receiving line were Mrs. Roy Nelson, Mrs. Roy Markham, Mrs. P. A. Albertson, Mrs. J. Fred Flock, Mrs. Harold Brown, Mrs. R. D. Bussard and Mrs. Ruth Olds Bathlyan. Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Markham, nieces of the hostess, also assisted about the room during the afternoon.

Guests of honor at the function was Bertram N. Haigh, a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Newell, who is a talented musician. Mr. Haigh visited here a short time en route to Seattle, Wash., where he will be one of the members in the Seattle Symphony orchestra this winter, and kindly consented to play in the musical while here.

The affair was held in a comfortable, homelike setting with large ferns, screens, flowers, and rugs adding a charm of their own. Each guest was presented with a printed program, which follows:

- Soloists
- Marjory M. Olds.....Soprano
 - Harry Borel.....Violin
 - Bertram N. Haigh.....French Horn
- Assisted by Lydia von Berthelsdorf at the piano.

Art Needle Club Meets

In a charming setting suggestive of early autumn Mrs. Z. J. Powell entertained members of the Art Needle club at her home on South Fifth and Walnut streets on Wednesday afternoon.

The next meeting, to be held on Wednesday, Oct. 2, will be held with Mrs. R. H. Dunbar as hostess.

Members present at the meeting this week were Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones, Mrs. J. F. Goeller, Mrs. George Werts, Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, Mrs. Charles Martin, Mrs. Jennie Purn, Mrs. Miriam Hanks, Mrs. W. P. McMillan, Mrs. Newman and the hostess, Mrs. Z. J. Powell.

Mrs. J. Welch Club Hostess

Mrs. James Welch was hostess to members of the Las Amigas Bridge club at her home on Auburn street last Tuesday afternoon.

The afternoon was spent playing bridge, high score being awarded to Mrs. Joe Fales and second to Mrs. Paul Campbell.

The house was beautifully decorated with cut autumn flowers. An abundance of asters was used effectively.

The guests were Mrs. William Akin and Mrs. R. D. Pardell. Members present included Mesdames Lester Cofer, Joe Fales, Paul Campbell, Chesleigh Moore, Vernon Lindsey and the hostess, Miss Joy Maurine Evans will entertain the members at the next meeting.

King Alfonso says he would be a mechanic in an automobile shop if he weren't King. There isn't much difference between a king and a bandit after all.

John Coolidge's Wedding Belle

She leads the procession of autumn brides. This is a new posed portrait of Miss Florence Trumbull, comely daughter of Governor John H. Trumbull of Connecticut, who will be married to John Coolidge, son of the former president, at Plainville, Conn., September 23.

Au Revoir for Miss Bradford

In honor of Miss Maryellen Bradford who will leave in the near future for Eugene to enter her freshman year at the University of Oregon, Mr. Culver Thomas was host to about 20 of her friends at a theater party given Friday evening at the Pelican theater.

Following the theater the guests enjoyed a luncheon at the DeLuxe cafe and then departed for the DeMolay dance which was given at the high school.

This was one of the number of affairs given during the past week for departing college students.

Program Is Being Planned

The Teachers of Klamath Falls are looking forward to the affair which will be given in their honor on Friday, Sept. 27. The entertainment is being sponsored by the Ministerial Association of Klamath Falls and is for the purpose of welcoming the new teachers and letting them become better acquainted with the old ones.

An interesting program is being planned in honor of the guests. Refreshments will be served.

The churches of the city cooperate yearly in giving this affair. All teachers are extended a cordial invitation to attend.

"Nature" Topic Next Subject

"Nature" will be the topic for discussion at the meeting of the Oregon Iota chapter of the University Guild which will be held at the city library club rooms on Sept. 26.

Plans for the year's work have been outlined and committees have taken charge of the work for the coming year.

Date Given For Bridge

A meeting of the Wednesday Bridge club will be held on Sept. 25. Bridge will be the diversion of the afternoon and prizes will be awarded.

The club will be entertained by Mrs. W. D. Butler at her home on North Tenth street.

THE WOMAN'S DAY

The "ideal husband" was recently found by the sociology department of Pennsylvania state college aided by 100 graduates of the University of Kansas.

Earmarks of that rara avis, the husband ideal, seem to be that he must take his due and just care of the children; must be a plumber; not forget how to make love; comfortably provide; manage the furnace; not argue; control his temper; take care of the garbage; and take care of plumbing work.

AS TURN

An ideal husband investigation is much rarer than the ideal wife one. Ministers and writers are constantly discussing the qualities of wifehood and making demands even more arduous than combining the efficiency of a good plumber with that of a good father. It is only fair that they go running for the "ideal husband" occasionally, making the male spouse realize that efficiency is demanded of him in that relationship, as much as of the wife.

DON'T HAVE TO BE

The rarity of "ideal husband" investigations only reminds us again that it's much easier to go by as a husband than as a wife; that the former are in so much greater demand than the latter that most women ask little more than that they have just "a husband," let alone an "ideal husband."

SHOVEL OR BROOM?

The investigation reminds us, too, that the much wanted "home duties" of married women who argue that because they labor for hire in an office all day they should not be expected to cook meals and wash dishes at night, rather pale into insignificance when contrasted with "the home duties" of a married man, and one hears surprisingly few of them complain that they must carry on at a business desk all day and come home at night to mow the lawn or put up screens or rake out the furnace ashes.

They happen to be used to two irons in the fire. Working married ladies aren't.

FRIENDSHIPS

Two old ladies of Lisbon, O., who had been close companions since the death of their husbands, died within a few hours of each other, the other day, shock of grief being given as cause of death of the woman who died last.

Such rich affection between friends is becoming rarer and rarer. Is it the busy life, the poisonous ideas of an age familiar with pathological phenomena once reserved for the medic, or are we too selfish and individualistic to have time for or need friends?

Still, a companionship so all-in-all that life could not be endured one without the other is as bad for the individual as too much self-sufficiency.

HUSBAND BEFORE PRISONS

A prisoner in a state penitentiary recently received a wire telling him to come home at once as his wife was dying from a rattlesnake bite. The interest in the incident does not lie in the rattlesnake bite, but in the fact that society so puts the human relationship of husband and wife first that a social relationship of state and prisoner is not even considered when the first relationship is threatened. What's more, prisoners are generally released long enough to visit their close sick and dying, proving that even the state realizes what comes first.

Earl Whitlock's History of Oregon

When, in February, 1846, the resolution of notice passed the House, "the country at once became alarmed by the growing rumors that the resolution of the House was a direct challenge to Great Britain for a trial of strength as to the superior title to the Oregon Country."

Needless to say, however, the trouble that was feared did not materialize; as we shall see, the matter was settled without trouble or bloodshed.

MOST MODERATE

It is our sincere aim to keep our prices at all times very moderate, in order that we may meet the needs of those in most moderate circumstances.
