Carrier Boy Proud of Job Under System

Klamath Herald carriers boys like the "merchant plan" which makes of them business men who purchase papers wholesale and then retail them.

One carrier who has been a consistent worker under the old system gave a reporter the "straight dope."

"Yeah! I make about $25 a month on my route now and before I made about $11," he stated.

"Do your customers pay you on time and without trouble?" the reporter asked knowing that collections have something to do with business.

"Yes, you bet. I don't have any trouble at all," he said and related how every one he had called upon that day had paid him.

BEST SERVICE YET

Last night was the best service yet at the big tent when a large audience listened to Evangelist Parrott bring a very forceful and convincing message on "Naaman the Leper" and his restoration to health by his obedience to God. The evangelist compared Naaman's leprosy to sin in the hearts of men today, and Jesus as the great physician of soul and body today. Many responded to the altar call at the invitation of the evangelist. Tonight the evangelist will bring a message of interest to all and tomorrow night he will speak on the unusual topic, "Chickens go home to roost."

FUNERAL NOTICES

Young people will find the Epworth League service at 6:30 a fine place to get acquainted and to gain inspiration for right living.

Community Congregation—

"Behold then the goodness and severity of God toward them that fell, severity; but toward thee, God's goodness; otherwise thou also shalt be cut off."—Rom. 11:22.

THE consequences of trifling with God are seldom considered. That His goodness constitutes a claim upon our attention, our gratitude, and our service, is continually overlooked. It is this sin which the first chapter of this book of Romans indicates was the reason for God's giving men up to "their hearts' lusts," their "vile passions," and "a reprobate mind." "because that, knowing God, they glorified him not as God, neither gave thanks; but became vain in their reasonings." How then dare God's severity today by disregarding His goodness? LIFE INSURANCE TRUSTS

Customer: Sure, I carry plenty of life insurance—$50,000 of it. My wife will be well fixed when I die.

Trust Officer: Fine. How will the life insurance be paid to her?

Customer: By check, I suppose.

Trust Officer: You mean, payable in cash. Does she handle your other investments now?

Customer: No. She doesn't know anything about them. I make all investments.

Trust Officer: Do you think it well, at such a crisis in her life, to put $50,000 in her lap and ask her to invest it?

Our Trust Officer will gladly explain how a Life Insurance Trust can be arranged to pay your wife a regular income, with extras for emergencies, and protect every dollar of the insurance money you so thoughtfully provided for her.
