

NEWS IN BRIEF

Elected To Position—

Jessie Puckett of Klamath Falls was recently elected vice president of the Women's Athletic association at the University of Oregon, where she is a junior. The W. A. A. is an active organization on the campus, creating an active interest in sports and activities for women. Margaret Cummins of this city holds the position of treasurer on the council.

Visiting Here—

Mr. and Mrs. Shives of Los Angeles, parents of Oscar Shives of the American National bank, are in the city visiting. They are guests at the Shives home on North Ninth.

On Hunting Trip—

Rex LaPrarie of this city, Harry Booth, Jim Storm and U. E. Reeder, all of the Henley district, are spending two weeks in the Summers lake district on a hunting trip.

In Medford—

Klamath Falls residents registered at Medford hotels include Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Tyler, Ruby R. Haney, L. D. Wilkins, Mrs. Everett Hotchkiss and Lester Geyssbeck.—Medford Tribune.

Alturas Visitor—

A. Brown is spending about two weeks in Klamath Falls from his home at Alturas, Calif. While here he is making his home in the Ewauna apartments.

Returned From Visit—

Mrs. Henry Semon, well known resident of the Merrill route, has returned from Glendale, Ore., where she has been visiting her father, C. L. Burnett, who has been ill.

Here Yesterday—

J. C. Boyle of Medford, former Klamath district manager for Copco, was in Klamath Falls yesterday on a business visit.

Transacting Business—

Richard G. Smith is transacting business in Klamath Falls today from Portland where he is commissary agent and buyer for the dining car, hotel and restaurant department of the Southern Pacific. Mr. Smith is conferring with local railroad officials while in the city.

Here For Week End—

Miss Winifred May arrived this morning to spend the week end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. May. Miss May attends school at the Southern Oregon normal school at Ashland.

Hermie Foster Back—

Hermie Foster has returned from a thirty day vacation which he spent in Tennant, Calif. Mr. Foster is chief clerk at the Southern Pacific. He was accompanied by his wife.

Passed Through Klamath—

R. E. Flackus of Martin, Calif., passed through Klamath Falls yesterday en route to Hildebrand where he will remain for some time.

Dunsmuir Resident Here—

Walter S. Jones has arrived here from Dunsmuir, Calif., and will remain indefinitely. He is stopping at 1134 Melrose.

Here From Fresno—

L. O. Caserio is in Klamath Falls from his home at Fresno, Calif., to spend about 10 days visiting relatives.

W. C. Dalton Here—

W. C. Dalton was transacting business in the city yesterday from his home near Malin.

Patient At Hospital—

Mrs. Bill Ferguson is a patient at the Klamath Valley hospital where she is receiving medical attention.

Returned To Salem—

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haytor returned this morning to Salem where they reside. They have been visiting in Klamath Falls for the past few days and were guests at the Willard hotel. Mrs. Haytor was honored with several social functions during the past few days. Mr. Haytor travels for the Smith Welding company from Lakeview.

Visiting Here—

J. M. Dodd and James Dodd are visiting in Klamath Falls from their home in Umatilla county. They are former Kansas neighbors and friends of Mr. J. S. Mills. This is the first time Mr. Mills has seen them since 1883.

In Medford—

Mr. and Mrs. C. Richmond of 355 East Main street, are spending several days in Medford on business and pleasure. Mr. Richmond is connected with the Pioneer Tobacco company of this city.

Bob Borland in City—

Bob Borland arrived this morning by motor from his home at Truckee, California, and will remain in Klamath Falls for a period of ten days. While here he is making his home at the Anchor hotel.

Miss McCauley Ill—

Miss Vernona McCauley was confined to her home on Crescent avenue today with illness. Miss McCauley is employed in the advertising and collecting department of the Evening Herald and Klamath News.

Baby Girl Born—

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer H. Moore on October 10th at the Cottage hospital. The baby weighed eight pounds at birth and has been named Bell Louise.

Announce Birth Of Son—

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Newport announce the birth of a baby boy at the Cottage hospital on October 10. The son was named Emery Lewis and weighed nine pounds.

Returned Home—

Mrs. Anna Johnson who has spent the past several months in North Dakota visiting with relatives returned Thursday night to her home in this city.

Here on Business—

H. E. Eaton of Westwood, Calif., arrived in Klamath Falls recently and plans to spend about three months here looking over the business possibilities. He is living at 813 Pine street.

Here From Fresno—

A. J. Swearingin, resident of Fresno, Calif., is in the city for about a month and has taken up his residence at 531 South Fifth street while here.

Left Today—

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Holliday left this morning for San Francisco to spend several days on a combined business and pleasure trip.

At Rex Arms—

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bliss, nee Orlena Floyd, have taken an apartment at the Rex Arms, where they are at home to their friends.

Left for South—

W. E. Elliott left this morning on the Southern Pacific for Los Angeles to be gone for some time. Mr. Elliott is a resident of Modoc Point.

Here on Business—

George Taylor, assistant division engineer for the Southern Pacific is in the city today from his headquarters at Dunsmuir.

Leo Houston Here—

Leo Houston is in the city today from the Big Lakes camp and plans to remain for the week end.

Mrs. Frothingham in City—

Mrs. Irene Frothingham spent this morning in Klamath Falls visiting friends and shopping.

Woman Presides Over House

There's no news in the headlines above, because a lot of women do that. But this time it was the house of representatives, and Congresswoman Edith Nourse Rogers, of Massachusetts, pictured here, was the first woman in history to preside over an entire session of the chamber. She was speaker pro tem for four minutes.

Will Visit Son—

Mrs. H. A. Sprague left this morning on the West coast to visit her son, George, who is a student in the University of Oregon. Mrs. Sprague plans to remain in Eugene for several days.

G. W. Harvey Left—

G. W. Harvey, with the Transcontinental Weight Bureau with headquarters in San Francisco, left this morning on the Southern Pacific West coast for Portland to be gone on a short business trip.

Left on Vacation—

E. G. Childers, Southern Pacific train clerk, departed this morning for Oakland, where he will spend his annual vacation visiting friends and relatives in the southern city.

Returned Home—

Helen Sakelid of 417 South 14th street, Boise, Idaho, returned to her home in the north after visiting in Klamath Falls for a short time.

Left for San Francisco—

Mrs. Charles E. Morris left this morning for San Francisco to be gone for an extended visit.

OBITUARY

FRANK LESLIE KIRK

Frank Leslie Kirk, a recent arrival in this city passed away at an early hour Friday morning after a very brief illness. He was thirty four years of age at the time of his passing and a native of New York. The remains have been entrusted to the care of the Klamath Funeral Home, Pine Ave. and Eighth streets. Funeral notice will appear later.

CHARLES N. GORDON

The last rites for the late Charles N. Gordon were conducted from the Earl Whitlock Funeral Home Saturday afternoon with Rev. D. V. Haight, pastor of the First Presbyterian church officiating. Two vocal selections were rendered by Mrs. G. S. Newsom accompanied by Mrs. M. Helena Joyaux. Committal services were held and interment made in the family cemetery at Worden Station.

OTTO ANDERSON

The remains of the late Otto Anderson were laid to rest in Linkville cemetery Saturday afternoon. Arrangements were under the direction of the Earl Whitlock Funeral Home, Pine Avenue at Sixth.

Wife: "That Mrs. Dumbell dropped in this afternoon and said she wanted to know if I could tell her some reliable bootleggers."

Hub: "What! You don't mean to say—"

Wife: "She said her husband is sick and the doctor told her he must be kept in good spirits."

These strong and silent men remind us at times that the same qualities are found in the onion.

The Churches

Klamath Lutheran Church, meets in the chamber of commerce rooms every Sunday morning at 10:00 a. m. Send your children to Sunday school, Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. Rev. M. M. Landahl will preach and conduct the evening service. Everybody welcome.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Eighth and Jefferson Sts., 9:45 a. m. Church school and Bible class for adults; 11 a. m. Morning prayer and an address by Deaconess Phelps of Anking, China. 2:00 p. m. services at Langell Valley.

First Methodist Church, Tenth and High Streets, Frank L. Wemett, minister. Rally Day exercises will feature the Bible School session on Sunday morning at 9:45. Every boy and girl connected with the school is requested to be present on time for a perfect attendance. Mr. Wemett speaks at the eleven o'clock worship service on, "The Romance of Christian Missions." On Sunday night at 7:30 the pastor speaks on a subject of engrossing interest to the American people under the caption, "What are we to think of Prohibition?" A general invitation is extended to the public to hear this discussion. Strangers in the city will find a cordial welcome at all services.

Zion Lutheran Church, 1025 High Street, G. W. Hoffmann, pastor. Sunday school and Bible class at 9:30; Morning service begins at 10:30. The pastor will preach on the words: "Lead Us Not Into Temptation." The regular quarterly congregational meeting will be held after the morning service. All voters are asked to be present. Mid-week Bible class meets Wednesday evening at 7:30. Strangers and visitors are invited to attend our services.

Community Congregational Church, temporarily at 2027 Wantland Ave., Rev. Nelson F. Cole, pastor. The church school begins at 9:45. We plan to have classes for all. Come and enjoy our fellowship at the Communion Service at 11, the pastor will talk on "The Friendship Indispensable." We welcome strangers.

First Baptist Church, 8th and Washington, A. F. Simmons, pastor. Bible school 9:45 a. m. Mr. Welch, supt. senior department. Sermon by pastor 11 a. m. followed by evening worship and sermon at 8 p. m.; Bible study and prayer meeting Wednesday 7:30 p. m.; Choir practice Friday 7:30 p. m.

The Assemblies of God "Pentecostal" Evangelist J. H. Stevenson in charge, in khaki tent, corner Main and Spring Sts. Sunday services 2:30 and 7:30 p. m., subject for afternoon "The Ten Virgins," Matt. 25, who are they and where are they going? Evening Evangelistic, subject, "The word I have spoken shall judge you in the last day," Jno. 12:48; Week night services, every night at 7:30. "Whoever will may come."

First Christian Church, Bible school at 9:45 a. m. Our attendance goal is 315 which is our record attendance. At 10:45 a. m. The Lord's Supper is served followed by a sermon by Dr. R. L. Brown. Special music by Mrs. Roscoe Bethn. Both Endeavor societies have their prayer services at 6:30 p. m. At 7:30 the choir will sing an anthem. Dr. Brown will bring an evangelistic message. The public is cordially invited.

Klamath Temple Foursquare Lighthouse, temporary location in the big tent at the corner of 7th and Pine streets, tent comfortably heated. A great revival of the old time religion still continues. Tonight street meeting at 7:15 followed by an evangelistic service conducted by the young people, with a welcome awaiting all. Sunday services: A live growing Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Classes for all ages, Mrs. John Linfesty supt. If you are not an attendant at

"Be not therefore anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? For after all these things do the Gentiles seek; for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. But seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."—Matt. 6:31-33.

Do you live an inverted life—expending your spirit upon food, drink, and clothes? You say they are essentials. No; they are only necessities. "Is not the life more than the food? Food is necessary to life; but what is your life?"

First Presbyterian Church

Sixth and Pine Streets
Morning Worship, 11 a. m. Evening Worship 7:30 p. m.
Sunday School, 9:45 a. m.

any other bible school at the present we cordially invite you to visit us Sunday. Morning worship at 11 o'clock, message by the pastor, "In the Love of God." A blessing awaits all who attend this service. At 6:30 p. m. Crusaders service, all young people invited, Dwight McLaughlin in charge. At 7:45 o'clock great evangelistic song and preaching service, special musical, followed by the message, "Where is the God of Elijah?" God is manifesting Himself today in Klamath. Come and bring your friends.

Tuesday evening service at Dorris, Calif. Dwight McLaughlin in charge. Wednesday evening, Mid-week preaching service. Thursday Day of prayer, evening choir practice, Mrs. DeVries in charge. Friday evening "The Holy Spirit" a service for all, Saturday 2:30 p. m. Junior church, Mrs. Garland and Mrs. Spannaus in charge. 7:15 air service, followed by a great evangelistic service conducted by the young people, all welcome. Guy DeVries, pastor, 629 North Fifth street, Phone 915-W.

First Presbyterian Church, Sixth and Pine Streets. Sunday, 9:45 a. m. Sunday school. Well-taught, cordial class for all ages. Come with the children. 11:00 a. m. Morning Worship. A worshipful, uplifting service. Sermon by the Rev. Drury V. Haight, "Christ in His Church." A vestal choir and excellent numbers on the pipe-organ. A nursery for the children during the service, and the Junior Christian Endeavor. 6:30 p. m. Inter-mediate and high school C. E. 7:30 p. m. Evening Worship. Sermon, "Radio Religion and the Church." A tuncful service with plenty of singing.

Tuesday, 7:30 p. m. Stewardship club. A cordial group of young business and professional men meet for fellowship and inquiry into the evidence of Christ in the Gospel of John. Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. Church Night Forum. A stimulating discussion of the book of Acts from an outline in each person's hands. The third chapter for this week—Opening Men's Eyes to Fulfilled Prophecy. Friday, 9:30 a. m. Women's Friday Morning Bible class. A large, interested, enthusiastic class studying God's plan for His people of today as revealed in the history of His Old Testament people.

First Church of Christ Scientist, 10th and Washington. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; Sunday service at 11 a. m. Subject "Are Sin, Disease and Death Real?" Wednesday—evangelistic meeting at 8 o'clock. Free reading and free leading. Library open afternoons, on week days from 2:30 to 4:30 except on Wednesday and holidays, also before and after the Wednesday evening meeting. The public is cordially invited to attend the services and use the reading room.

Sacred Heart Church, 8th and High. Rev. A. F. Looser, Rev. O'Connor. Sunday masses at 6:30, 8:00 and 10:30, evening devotion at 7:30; week day mass at 7 a. m. Merrill first and third Sunday. All are cordially welcome at our services.

Locke Motor Co.

wishes to announce the opening of a new and up-to-date used car lot at the corner of Eighth and Main. Our large volume of new car sales makes it possible for us to have the best assortment of used cars in Klamath Falls. We will be open Sundays and evenings.

GMAC TERMS

Report to the Comptroller of the Currency
(Condensed)
Of the Condition of

The First National Bank

Of Klamath Falls, Oregon

At the Close of Business, October 4, 1929

RESOURCES

Bills Receivable	$1,644,178.86
U. S. Bonds	923,646.47
Other bonds, warrants and securities	471,167.90
Federal Reserve Stock	7,650.00
Real Estate, Furniture and Fixtures	111,894.12
Five per cent Redemption Fund	5,000.00
Cash on Hand and Due from Banks	937,102.06
	$4,122,639.41

LIABILITIES

Capital Stock	$ 200,000.00
Surplus and Undivided Profits	130,371.06
Reserved for Taxes	7,585.58
Circulation	100,000.00
Deposits	3,684,789.92
	$4,122,639.41

So Easy to Laugh
WHEN YOU
SEE! and HEAR!

DOUGLAS MacLEAN

'Divorce Made Easy'
with
MARIE PREVOST

JACK DUFFY and JOHNNIE ARTHUR
(Comedy Star of "The Desert Song")

Hilarious happenings tumbling over one another! Snappy situations! Upstairs dialog! Smiling DOUG puts his finger into matrimonial pie and pulls out a lemon instead of a plum! "The Carnation Kid!" Showing you it's easier to stay married!

At POOLE'S PELICAN THEATRE
Starting SUNDAY

Don't Fail To Hear

Evangelist J. H. Stevenson, who is now holding Revival Services every night, at corner Main and Spring Streets

"In Khaki Tent"

Chart Lectures on Revelation Sunday afternoon at 2:30. He prays for the sick "and they are healed."

Notice

We, the undersigned firms, announce a new low price in dry cleaning, effective Monday, October 14.

Suits cleaned and pressed.....$1.50
Plain Silk Dresses..... 1.75
Other Garments correspondingly low.

Kapital Kleaners.

Standard Dyers & Cleaners.

Pelitorium Cleaners & Dyers.

Klamath Cleaning & Dye Works.