STOLEN CHECKS FOUND BY BOYS

Boys playing in the drained reclamation canal near the Esplanade crossing Saturday found $1,836.54 in checks in a bank deposit bag and then turned them over to police.

The checks were stolen in July from the Skags Safeway store in this city, when about $270 in cash was also taken. Patrolman Hayes brought the checks to Chief Ambrose, who found that nearly 100 checks were in the bag, which had been weighted with rocks and a spark plug from a car to insure its sinking in the canal.

Checks Still Good
 The checks were all as good as the day they were written with the exception of two which were unreadable, Chief Ambrose stated. The bank deposit bag had protected them from the water in which they had been layed since July.

The Skags store had already recovered about $800 of the money which the checks represented, but the "find" yesterday represents about $1,000.

Thief Still Unknown
 The robbery of Skags' store took place after closing hours one evening. The store was broken into and the money and checks taken. The amount of the checks was not known exactly until yesterday.

It is thought that the thief after leaving the store found that the checks would be useless and that perhaps he thought the best way to hide them so they would not be found would be in the canal.

Police at the time blamed itinerants with the robbery, and although all vagrants in the city were jailed and questioned, the thief escaped.

There was no clue to the robber on the bag or on any of the checks which were found yesterday.

PROTEST ANSWERED
 WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 (AP)—President Hoover in reply to a protest from Florida over the appointment of a federal attorney has announced it is the duty of the chief executive to make selections on the basis of public service and not for political reasons.

The coal fields of China, Japan, Great Britain, Germany, Russia, and India contain apparently 303,000,000,000 tons which is said to be enough for 700 years at the present rate of consumption.

"Married Life" Not Worth While

Blames Wives "Nerves"
 "Weak nerves," said a New York doctor recently, "in my estimation wreck more happily married lives than any other cause."

Besides making the sweetest disposition sour and irritable, nervousness is a terrible drain on your vital forces—it saps your youth and your strength and dulls your beauty. What a difference from the bright-eyed, vibrant girl he married. No wonder married life seems unbearable!

But you can get rid of your nervousness—speedily too—and become the steady-nerved, radiant woman you once were. Try the effect of Tanlac after meals and before going to bed, and if it doesn't soon make a new woman of you—doesn't rid you of that tired, strained feeling—go back and get your money.

Go to your druggist now and get a bottle of Tanlac. Millions of folks have started back on the road to youth, health and happiness with this world-famous tonic and there is no reason why you, too, can't begin today to rebuild your worn-out tissues and revitalize your entire system.

SUGAR MAKES FOODS PLEASANT

Good Cooks Learn to Use Nature's Supreme Flavorer

No wonder sugar used to be considered a luxury of the rich. No wonder a noted scientist says that sugar is the greatest condimental food in the world.

Sugar's supreme importance to health is that it makes foods pleasant. No man, woman or youngster can live on one food alone. To eat a great variety of foods daily the year round is to promote health, and sugar adds flavor and delight to nearly every known food. As a noted scientist says, to try to eat most foods "straight" would result in a monotonous, unpalatable diet, and you simply can't get people to eat things they don't like.

Try a dash of sugar on your favorite cereal. Eat beautiful blackberries and other fresh fruits made delicious by a sprinkling of sugar. Profit by the experiments of four well-known women cooking experts in New York who recently redid the old art of using a dash of sugar in vegetables while they are cooking in a small amount of water. Note how the vegetable colors, freshness and flavors improve. This little added sugar makes eating vegetables a joy. Remember the value of custards, milk shakes, ice cream and other milk desserts in helping your family to eat enough milk. Remember stewed fruits, candy and cookies for the end of the meal.

Slimness is no longer stylish. Good food promotes good health. The Sugar Institute.

AT THE THEATRES

AT THE PINE TREE

One of the greatest and most romantic loves of history is the theme of "The Divine Lady," First National's epic production starring Corinne Griffith, at the Pine Tree theatre now.

Lady Hamilton, the role played by Miss Griffith, rose from obscurity birth—her father was a famous smith—to become a world famous beauty, the wife of a great diplomat, and a real power to be reckoned with in international affairs.

Lord Nelson, at the same time, was becoming England's great naval hero, the savior of his nation and the first man to defeat Napoleon in any sort of engagement.

The meeting of the two in Naples began an idealistic romance entirely sanctioned by the aged Lord Hamilton, which the world did not understand.

"The Divine Lady," from the historical novel by E. Barrington, is the biggest production First National plans this year, and under the direction of Frank Lloyd, tells a pictorial story of those dramatic days that is epic in its sweep.

H. B. Warner, Victor Varconi, Ian Keith, Marie Dressler, Montague Love, Dorothy Cummings and others of equal power are in the cast.

AT THE PELICAN

Along Broadway in New York, the name of Morton Downey, known as "Broadway's golden-voiced tenor," is far better known these days than any other night club entertainer. Since his appearance in the Pathe all dialogue and singing production, "Mother's Boy," which was shown for weeks at the Cohan theatre, he has become known to every radio fan, and his popularity throughout the country has increased by leaps and bounds.

Mr. Downey's second appearance in a Pathe dialogue and singing picture is in "Lucky in Love," written by Gene Markey and produced by Robert T. Kane. It is a splendid story of Irish life and some of the action transpires in a department store. In the cast Betty Lawford as leading woman, Halliwell Hobbes, Colin Keith-Johnston, J. M. Kerrigan and many other noted stage players. "Lucky in Love" is at the Pelican theatre now.

Mr. Downey was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., and from his earliest infancy he has been known as a singer with a superb voice which in time developed into a tenor often compared to John McCormack's. He was for many years identified with Paul Whiteman's famous musical organization as soloist. He was in Europe for several years, and on his return in October, 1923, he was given his first dialogue and singing role in "Syncopeation." This was followed by his appearance in a stellar role in "Mother's Boy," and in "Lucky in Love" he has the part of an Irish stable boy, whose golden voice wins the love of Lady Mary Caradigan, an Irish beauty.

The story, written by Gene Markey, affords Mr. Downey numerous opportunities for the display of his mimetic and vocal talent. There is plenty of drama, comedy and fine melody. Betty Lawford plays opposite the star, and the supporting players, all artists of distinction, include Colin Keith-Johnston, Halliwell Hobbes, J. M. Kerrigan and Mackenzie Ward. Eddie O'Connor, Louis Sorin, Edward McNamara, Elizabeth Murray, Tyrrell Davis, Richard Taber and Mary Murray.

AT THE ORPHEUS

During the filming of David Butler's Fox Films "Prep and Pep," David Rollins and John Darrow, who are featured in this comedy-drama of youth, had as their guest and pal on the set, Nick Stuart, who was working in a picture on the next stage.

These three juveniles won their first acclaim together a year ago in "The High School Hero," which also was directed by Butler. Since that time each one has made good in different productions.

"Prep and Pep," which closes tonight at the Orpheus theatre, is one of the best filmed stories of a military school and the transition of a timid boy to the highest honor student in the school.

KLAMATH FALLS HIGH IN STATE

Klamath county now ranks fifth among counties of Oregon in volume of manufacturing, according to an article in the October 19 issue of the Oregon Voter. This county has passed Clatsop which ranked fifth in the 1927 manufacturing census. It is stated.

The census stated that in 1927 Klamath had 51 manufacturing establishments, 3,760 wage earners, a payroll of $5,327,985, and its products were valued at $14,159,477. This past year it is estimated that lumber alone has exceeded the $14,000,000 mark.

The ranking of other counties shows that Marion has passed Clatsop in volume of manufacturing, and now is second in Oregon as an industrial county, exceeded only by Multnomah. Columbia has passed Clatsop and now ranks fourth. Lane has passed Coos, their rank now being 7th and 8th.

Winter is coming. The ladies have quit wearing fur neckpieces and are taking up bead necklaces.

AT THE LIBERTY

Frankie Darro is soon to celebrate his ninth birthday. The diminutive FBO star, like most children, is anxious to attain his majority, so that he may wear long pants and drive an automobile. Frankie owns two automobiles, purchased out of his picture earnings, but, of course, is not allowed to drive them. His driving is limited to a miniature car, fitted up like a big auto, but propelled by the feet.

Tom Tyler, with whom Frankie appears in "The Prides of Pawnee," is now running at the Liberty theatre, promises him a new saddle for his pony.

"The Prides of Pawnee" is the child star's eighteenth picture with Tom, and it has long since been a rule with Tyler that he will not make a picture unless Frankie is in the cast. These two FBO stars are inseparable pals, both on and off the screen, and it is natural that they should want to work together.

Others in the cast include Ethylene Clair, Barney Furey, Jack Hilliard, Lew Meehan and Jimmy Casey. Robert DeLacy directed the picture.

MANY LICENSES ARE ISSUED

Among those taking out licenses to wed yesterday at the office of the county clerk was B. W. Bates, member of the printing firm of Smith and Bates, who secured a license to marry Bernice Crawford. Mr. Bates, former publisher of the Roseburg News-Review, gave his age as 48 while Miss Crawford states that she is 28.

Howard Cantrill, 26, and Hazel E. Starr, 31; Charles C. Lovely, 21, and Mildred Johnson, 17; Charles Jacob Bacon, 51, and Nora Nellie Walker, 18, and Glen Gardner, 22, and Fay Cone, 16, were other Klamath Falls couples securing licenses.

Roy Radon, 31, Klamath Falls, secured a license to be married with Helen Stanley, 16, of Marshfield.

Lawrence Woodworth, 27, and Alberta Wineinger, 18, were married yesterday by Justice of the Peace W. B. Barnes shortly after they had obtained a license.
