TROJAN HORDE GOES TO MEET PALO ALTOANS

Giants of Conference Will Play Before 88,000 Fans

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25, (A P)—The giants of Pacific Coast gridiron, Southern California and Stanford, will meet in Palo Alto tomorrow in the most important game to be played in the west this year.

Two other conference engagements are on tomorrow's bill of fare, as well as four non-conference clashes, but they fade into a second rate position before the battle at Palo Alto.

Cards Seek Quietude
The Trojans left Los Angeles last night for Palo Alto and the Stanford squad moved out to a secluded country club to get away from vociferous well wishers. Every seat in the stadium, over 88,000, was sold out last Wednesday, and tomorrow's battle will mark the first time in Cardinal history that the big bowl has been filled to capacity for a mid-season game. Fifteen thousand fans from the Southland began their northward trek today.

Tied For Lead
The two teams are tied for the leadership of the conference and the winner of tomorrow's battle will be on the inside track leading to the gridiron championship of the west.

Other Games Tossup
The other two conference games are to be played in the northwest. At Corvallis, Oregon State College runs up against the Idaho Vandals with the result of the game pretty much of a toss-up. At Seattle, the Universities of Washington and Oregon will meet in an interstate battle.

Others Non-Conference
Leading the list of non-conference encounters is the game at Berkeley between the University of California and the Olympic club. The Bears returned home Wednesday from a successful mid-season eastern invasion, and will take on the clubmen tomorrow in a preliminary to their important contest with Southern California next week.

Contests Between Washington State and Whitman at Pullman; U. C. L. A. and Pomona at Los Angeles; and Montana and Montana State at Butte round out the day's activities of the conference teams.

Willamette University and College of Idaho meet at Salem today in the first northwest conference game of the season for Willamette.

OREGON'S DADS WILL SEE GAME

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 25, (Special)—The ticket sale for the Oregon-University of California at Los Angeles football game which will be played in Eugene, November 7, opened from the graduate manager's office this week. Applications for reservations will be filled and mailed in the same order in which they were received.

At the annual clash between the Webfoots and the Bruins, the yearly University of Oregon Dads' day event will be celebrated. Dads from all over the state of Oregon and the Northwest will be guests of the school at the football game which will be only one of the features of the week end.

Reservations will be filled and information supplied concerning all Oregon games in the Northwest, upon application to the A. S. U. O. Graduate Manager's office at Eugene.

Sharkey to Knock Ashes On Oriental

By AL DEMAREE
(Former Pitcher N. Y. Giants)
Jack Sharkey, who appears from all indications on the cauliflower horizon, to be the heavy-weight champion, is a very colorful and peculiar young man.

Jack has two complexions, one the very natural one of trying to emulate Gene Tunney and run his bank roll up to a million dollars, and the other his refusal to pose for snapshots with any members of the fair sex.

Jack is also a great lover of his home.
"I've got a swell new home just outside of Boston," he told me last winter while we were playing golf a few days before his fight with Stribling. "and I'm counting the days till I get back in my old easy chair and light a cigar and knock ashes all over that new oriental rug I just bought!"

A very picturesque young fellow whose most endearing charm is his absolute candor.
He will make a very colorful champion.

ATHLETES GET NO FAVORS AT STATE SCHOOL

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 25, (A P)—Intercollegiate Athletics at Oregon State college form but one phase of a larger program of physical education for all, and an athlete is given the same treatment as students who participate in other activities," Dr. W. J. Kerr, president of the college, declared in commenting on the Carnegie foundation report.

"Oregon State College is in hearty accord with the work of the Carnegie foundation in its attempt to improve condition in intercollegiate athletics and to place it in its proper relation to the entire scheme of higher education," Dr. Kerr said.

"The report," Dr. Kerr continued, "said that fraternities at certain institutions, including Oregon State College, provide some athletes with board or room or both at a low figure. This, I am informed, is not true at this institution."

COLUMBIA MEETS ALBANY
PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 25, (A P)—Columbia University will attempt to repel the invasion of Albany College on the Columbia gridiron here today and under the coaching of Slim Balcolm, former Oregon State star center, the Albany outfit has a strong team. A clever passing attack has been worked out by the Albany gridmen.

BIG THREE OF EAST EMPLOY UNDERDOG ROLE

NEW YORK, Oct. 25, (AP)—It is no new thing for Yale, Harvard or Princeton to enter an October game in the role of underdog. All three will be in the role tomorrow. Some 120,000 enthusiasts will be present at Soldiers' Field, the Yale bowl and Palmer stadium. The Yale-Army game at New Haven tops the card for sectional and general interest, but the meeting of Dartmouth and Harvard at Cambridge will command attention both because of its historic background and because Harvard will be fighting to keep its head above water, the last remaining undefeated members of the Big Three.

A twice-defeated Princeton eleven takes its last chance to save something from its eastern preliminary season, but all the odds rest with Bill Ingram's fine Navy team.

Yale will deploy against the Cadets in the Yale Bowl with the slashing Warner offense only half mastered and depending upon an air attack to turn in a possible upset. Even with Ben Ticknor absent from his post at center, Harvard will present a favored Dartmouth eleven far more of a problem than Columbia was able to offer last week. Carnegie Tech will attempt to make it three straight over a great Notre Dame eleven at Pittsburgh, with the Irish favored to break their Scotch jinx.

SAY CAVEMEN RARIN' TO GO

By HUB MAGUIRE
The K. U. H. S. grid team will meet G. P. H. tomorrow at Grants Pass in the most important game so far this season.

The red and white of Klamath will tackle the blue and white of Grants Pass, in an effort to wrest another win from the husky "It's the climate" boys.

The Klamath squad won a decided victory over the G. P. athletes when they played here September 25, the final score being 26-7.

The "Pelicans" are all in good condition, with no one on the injured list.

Swisher, fullback, has completely recovered from a badly sprained ankle, and will don the moleskins for the first time in three weeks. "Ray" Sheard, a strapping youth who fills one of the tackle berths, has been nursing a "charley horse" for a couple of weeks, but will be "rarin' to go" when the whistle blows Saturday.

According to the Grants Pass dope-bucket, the Cavemen have so improved that they are three times as good as when they first played Klamath.

All in all, a fast, hard game of football is assured the beauty and chivalry of the two towns when they collect to back their respective teams.

FROSH READY FOR WU BABES

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 25, (AP)—Resplendent in new white jerseys the University of Oregon Frosh football team went through one of the snappiest workouts of the season last night in preparation for the University of Washington babes here Saturday. The game will start at 1 o'clock on Hayward Field.

The Frosh team showed more steam and enthusiasm than at any stage of the game so far. The starting lineup has not been announced but it is expected the same lineup will be used that went against the Chemawa Indians.

Cleveland team of the American League, arrived in the city for a fishing trip. Lou Fiesera, recently voted the most valuable player and first baseman of the same team will join him tomorrow.

STATE BOARD CALLED ON TO SIFT CHARGES

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 25, (A P)—Harold G. Bronson of Mil-ton Freewater was appointed today to act for Austin Landreth on the Oregon State high school athletic association board of control when it meets here tomorrow to sift charges of ineligibility by La Grande and Corvallis high school against five Baker football players.

A protest against Landreth acting as member of the board of which he is chairman was received yesterday by Roy E. Cannon, secretary of the state board of control.

The board consisting of Landreth, Cannon and B. H. Conkie, Medford, was called upon by Cannon to meet with representatives of Baker, La Grande and Corvallis high schools to investigate the charges. In answer to Baker's protest against Landreth acting on the board, the board selected Bronson.

H. W. Adams of the Corvallis high school declared in a report received at Cannon's office that two of the players under protest, Clayton Crawford and Harold Joslin were from Corvallis and probably had been solicited.

NEW LINEUPS FORMING FOR O-W CONTEST

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 25, (A P)—The University of Oregon football team, due here today from Eugene, Ore., will probably be without three of its regulars when it meets the University of Washington eleven Saturday.

George Stadelman, giant center, broke his ankle in the Oregon-Idaho game last week and remained in Eugene. He will be out for the remainder of the season. Bobby Robinson, halfback, and Austin Colbert, tackle, also were injured and may not see action against the Huskies.

A different backfield combination than any the Washington team has had to date will probably start against Oregon. Coach Enoch Hagshaw plans to start Bill Mittlestedt at quarter, Merle Hufford and Bill Marsh at the halfback posts and Charles Rosenhan at fullback. Mittlestedt has been considered the second string signal barker. Marsh has been playing fullback and Rosenhan has been an understudy to Marsh. Hufford is the only regular in the new combination.

Alas! The ones who scatter ticker tape on a visiting celebrity aren't the ones who make treaties.

VANDALS ARE CHANGED CREW

MOSCOW, Ida., Oct. 25, (AP)—A chastened crew of Idaho Vandals entrained last night on their second Oregon invasion of the season to meet the Oregon State College football team at Corvallis Saturday.

All week Coach Leo Calland and his crew have worked hard and said little while they attempted to eliminate the defects that caused Idaho to lose, 34 to 9, to Oregon last week, and to work out some plan of attack that would upset the Beaver Orangermen. In the absence of a statement by Calland, it was presumed that a rejuvenated aerial offense and defense would be exhibited Saturday.

Twenty eight men, including all regulars left last night.
