

Klamath County News Notes

SOCIAL ITEMS FROM LORELLA

(Special to The Herald)

Mrs. Allen Gale, correspondent LORELLA, Ore., Oct. 28.—Will Campbell, George Nobis, Lord Gift and several others sold the last of their beef cattle Thursday. Will Campbell has been visiting at Medford for the past few days. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Campbell expect to go to Southernland to spend the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Turner. They will motor back Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hopkins are expected home from their vacation in Washington Sunday evening.

The Community club will give prizes with the supper boxes at the dances. Each box will contain a number, and the lucky one will draw a nice prize.

The men of the Grange and Community club gave a community supper at the hall Saturday night. A short program followed:

Song: "Oregon" Community
Song: "My Mother's Eyes" Girls Quartet
Song: "Wedding Bells" Boys' Quartet

Solo: Mrs. J. Keller
Recitation: Dorothy Dobler
Address by R. C. Groesbeck
Later in the evening the crowd enjoyed dancing. Mrs. Ayers played for the program and dancing.

Gallard Loomis is driving the Langell Valley Dairy association milk truck.

The Langell Valley Community club will give a hard-time dance at the hall November 2. Prizes will be given for best hard-time costume.

Mrs. Levi McDonald entertained the Ladies Aid at her home Thursday. The afternoon was spent in planning for the bazaar to be held at the hall November 15. Members present were Mrs. Hazel Turner, Mrs. Lizzie Powers, Mrs. Mabel Powers, Mrs. Margaret Monroe, Mrs. Madge Monroe, Mrs. Treasie Loomis, Mrs. Cora Ticknor, Mrs. Grace Thew, Mrs. Violet Dearborn, Mrs. Emma Kilgore, Mrs. Bessie Campbell, Mrs. Anna Walker. The guests of the afternoon were Mesdames Duncan, Gale, Petross and Jessie Turner.

The charivari crowd was abroad Monday night, and called at the home of M. T. Prince, where they charivariated George Casparian and bride. Tuesday and Thursday nights the crowd from Bonanza and later the valley crowd called at the Hilton home and charivariated Everett Malone and his bride (see Helen Crapser).

Miss Freda Ward of Lorella became the bride of George Casparian at a simple ceremony performed at the Full Gospel church at Lorella Sunday, October 13. The bride was attended by Miss Mary Franks of Medford, and Wm. Thompson acted as best man. Little Marion Campbell and Jane Simons were flower girls. After taking their place under a large floral bell, the service was read by Rev. Bell Kewell, in the presence of a host of friends and relatives. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward, and came here a short time ago from Colorado. Mr. Casparian is a minister of the Full Gospel church. Mr. and Mrs. Casparian will go to Lakeview in a few days to take up his church work.

Mrs. Dave Campbell and Mrs. Stella Bowen were in the valley Sunday to attend the wedding of Miss Freda Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. Gard Van Riper were at Lorella Sunday, visiting with Mr. Van Riper's sister, Mrs. Jessie Walker.

Mrs. Will Campbell, who has been confined to the Hillside hospital for several weeks, expects to be home soon.

Mrs. Fred Hilton has a new Durand car, which was delivered last Wednesday.

Kenith Wilkerson and his father, T. H. Wilkerson, have gone to Southern California for the winter.

L. HOLBROOK'S MOVE TO MALIN

(Special to The Herald)

WILMA OFFICE, correspondent MERRILL, Oct. 28.—Luther Holbrook and family have moved to Malin.

Mrs. Marion Penton and Mrs. Charles Waldrup motored to Ashland one day last week, where they submitted to minor operations on their throats.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Hartlerode and family visited in Paisley on Wednesday with Mr. Hartlerode's sister, Mrs. J. R. Collins, and his mother, Mrs. Melissa Hartlerode.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Haakins are the proud parents of an 8-pound son, born Sunday.

A party of young people spent Sunday in the lava beds. Among those making the trip were Mesdames Riley Woods and Dave Lisker, the Misses Vivia Woods, Esther Atchison, Willie Lea Walker, Wilma Offield and Maxine Lisker; Messrs. Will Huse, Geo. Havlina, Harold Wilson and Eddie Petrasek.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fruits visited at the W. F. Fruits home last week. They were on their way

SHASTA VIEW DISTRICT NEWS

(Special to The Herald)

Dilla Bailey, correspondent SHASTA VIEW, Ore., Oct. 28.—Potato harvesters are still busy in this section, and the machines are turning out some fine tubers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bailey visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Griffith Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Waldrup of Merrill were also at the Griffith home Sunday.

Mrs. Alida Macken entertained the ladies of the Helping Hand Wednesday at her Lake Land home with a good attendance. Plans were completed for the entertainment and bazaar to be held at Community hall at Malin Friday evening, November 1st.

Better come and see "Twelve Good Men, and True," and buy some home-made candy and a Christmas present for your best girl. Mrs. Dilla Bailey will entertain the ladies at her home on November 6th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bath and three children, Mrs. J. F. Bath and Mrs. Carrie P. Stone of Adin returned to their homes Tuesday, after visiting a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McCoy.

Mrs. N. Y. Stoddard and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gosselt and son of Medford Point were recent visitors of their cousin, Mrs. C. B. Brown and family.

Main Grange held an interesting meeting October 16. Their next regular monthly meeting will be held Nov. 6, at which time officers will be elected for the ensuing year.

Twenty suits, eight overcoats, twelve hats, and 24 pairs of boots and shoes, with other garments in proportion, are necessary for the well-dressed man, according to American experts in male fashion.

W. T. GARRETT VISITS DORRIS

(Special to The Herald)

GOLDA HIXON, correspondent BLY, Ore., Oct. 28.—W. T. Garrett made a business trip to Dorris, Calif., Monday.

The Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. James Dixon Tuesday.

Mrs. Ward is assisting Mrs. Keffler in her cleaners shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Belpap of Medford are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Richardson.

Mr. Belpap was formerly a minister of Beatty and this district.

Mrs. O'Neill, Mrs. Haley and Mrs. Griffin were Klamath Falls visitors Tuesday.

John Ahman and family of Drews Valley were business visitors at the Whetstone home on Tuesday.

Miss Moore and Miss Grimes gave an invitation card party. A good time was reported by all who attended.

Mrs. Ines Snyder has been quite ill at the home of her stepmother, Mrs. E. J. Casebeer, but many friends will be glad to hear of her steady improvement.

George Hanan and family of Paisley were visitors in Bly on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Givan motored to Lakeview Thursday.

The Bly cleaners have many improvements now. Mrs. Keffler is also making a specialty of dry cleaning flannel shirts. The Bly cleaners started on a small scale, but have shown a steady improvement all along.

C. G. Campbell, Zeke Squeake of the Klamath News, was a visitor in the valley Friday.

The west wing on the Shafter hotel, intended as a garage, has been made over into an apartment, where Mrs. McMillan, proprietress of the Shafter Hotel cafe, will live.

Owing to the logging activities, the O. C. & E. railroad has put on two trains, one arriving from Klamath Falls about 10 p. m., and one about 5 a. m.

The pupils of the Bly school have been practicing for a Halloween play.

James Waldron made a business trip to Lakeview Thursday. The McMillan Bros. have begun logging on the Roberts tract. They plan to have ten or twelve men in the camp.

Lytle Redfield has received dishes and crockery, which will be added to the hardware department.

PROMINENT LAWYER DIES

SEATTLE, Oct. 27, (UP)—

William Allison Peters, leader of the Seattle bar, died at his home here today after an illness of two weeks.

He was 71 years old and had been a resident of Seattle for approximately 40 years.

SHASTA VIEW DISTRICT NEWS

(Special to The Herald)

Dilla Bailey, correspondent SHASTA VIEW, Ore., Oct. 28.—Potato harvesters are still busy in this section, and the machines are turning out some fine tubers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bailey visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Griffith Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Waldrup of Merrill were also at the Griffith home Sunday.

Mrs. Alida Macken entertained the ladies of the Helping Hand Wednesday at her Lake Land home with a good attendance. Plans were completed for the entertainment and bazaar to be held at Community hall at Malin Friday evening, November 1st.

Better come and see "Twelve Good Men, and True," and buy some home-made candy and a Christmas present for your best girl. Mrs. Dilla Bailey will entertain the ladies at her home on November 6th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bath and three children, Mrs. J. F. Bath and Mrs. Carrie P. Stone of Adin returned to their homes Tuesday, after visiting a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McCoy.

Mrs. N. Y. Stoddard and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gosselt and son of Medford Point were recent visitors of their cousin, Mrs. C. B. Brown and family.

Main Grange held an interesting meeting October 16. Their next regular monthly meeting will be held Nov. 6, at which time officers will be elected for the ensuing year.

Twenty suits, eight overcoats, twelve hats, and 24 pairs of boots and shoes, with other garments in proportion, are necessary for the well-dressed man, according to American experts in male fashion.

W. T. GARRETT VISITS DORRIS

(Special to The Herald)

GOLDA HIXON, correspondent BLY, Ore., Oct. 28.—W. T. Garrett made a business trip to Dorris, Calif., Monday.

The Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. James Dixon Tuesday.

Mrs. Ward is assisting Mrs. Keffler in her cleaners shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Belpap of Medford are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Richardson.

Mr. Belpap was formerly a minister of Beatty and this district.

Mrs. O'Neill, Mrs. Haley and Mrs. Griffin were Klamath Falls visitors Tuesday.

John Ahman and family of Drews Valley were business visitors at the Whetstone home on Tuesday.

Miss Moore and Miss Grimes gave an invitation card party. A good time was reported by all who attended.

Mrs. Ines Snyder has been quite ill at the home of her stepmother, Mrs. E. J. Casebeer, but many friends will be glad to hear of her steady improvement.

George Hanan and family of Paisley were visitors in Bly on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Givan motored to Lakeview Thursday.

The Bly cleaners have many improvements now. Mrs. Keffler is also making a specialty of dry cleaning flannel shirts. The Bly cleaners started on a small scale, but have shown a steady improvement all along.

C. G. Campbell, Zeke Squeake of the Klamath News, was a visitor in the valley Friday.

The west wing on the Shafter hotel, intended as a garage, has been made over into an apartment, where Mrs. McMillan, proprietress of the Shafter Hotel cafe, will live.

Owing to the logging activities, the O. C. & E. railroad has put on two trains, one arriving from Klamath Falls about 10 p. m., and one about 5 a. m.

The pupils of the Bly school have been practicing for a Halloween play.

James Waldron made a business trip to Lakeview Thursday. The McMillan Bros. have begun logging on the Roberts tract. They plan to have ten or twelve men in the camp.

Lytle Redfield has received dishes and crockery, which will be added to the hardware department.

PROMINENT LAWYER DIES

SEATTLE, Oct. 27, (UP)—

William Allison Peters, leader of the Seattle bar, died at his home here today after an illness of two weeks.

He was 71 years old and had been a resident of Seattle for approximately 40 years.

C. W. MURPHY RESUMES WORK

(Special to The Herald)

Mrs. O. O. Wingfield, correspondent TENNANT, Calif., Oct. 28.—C. W. Murphy, who was so very ill, is recovering nicely, and after two weeks rest will resume his duties as camp superintendent, which duties have been capably looked after by his assistant, Carl Kirstain.

Complimenting Mrs. Hugh McNally, a recent bride, Mrs. Geo. Nodson and Mrs. J. F. Duffy entertained at Bridge Thursday evening at the Nodson home on C street. Four tables of bridge were in play. At the close Mrs. F. M. Filson received first prize, Mrs. J. N. Friend second and Mrs. H. McNally the guest prize. Mrs. Nodson and Mrs. Duffy served refreshments at the card tables.

Those who enjoyed the evening were Mrs. Hugh McNally, honor guest, Mesdames Filson, Friend, Beeson, G. C. and P. J. Howard, Grimes, Doyle, Nesbitt, Willbanks, Hawkins, Kingsley, Tardy, Parker and Miss Pearl Murphy.

The regular meeting of the Tennant Lady Elks club met on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Dale Beeson at her home on B street. After the regular business of the club the ladies played bridge. Later in the afternoon Mrs. Beeson served refreshments at the small tables. Those who were present were Mesdames R. B. Hawkins, H. C. Nesbitt, Clay Parker, E. D. McDonald, M. Dickinson, F. B. Williams, O. O. Wingfield and the hostess, Mrs. Beeson.

The ladies of the Wildwood Guild held their monthly silver tea Wednesday afternoon in the Guild social hall. Thirteen members and two visiting ladies were present and enjoyed a pleasant social afternoon. The hostesses were Mrs. J. F. Kolda, and P. J. Howard, served pumpkin pie with whipped cream and coffee.

O. O. Wingfield received a letter recently from Frank (Shorty) Warren, who was employed for several years at this camp, and who left about two years ago to take a trip around the world in one of the Dollar liners, the S.S. President Monroe. In his letter Mr. Warren stated that he had been around the world three times, and would soon be off for the fourth trip. He also stated that he had a recent promotion, and was now ship's plumber, having learned that work while at Tennant, under Mr. Wingfield.

Mr. Warren's many friends will be glad to know he is well, as brown as a Filipino, and greatly enjoying the "life on the ocean waves."

Mrs. C. H. Foster and children, Hermie Jr. and Frances Jean, who have spent a month with Mrs. Foster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Murphy, left Thursday morning for their home at Klamath Falls.

Mrs. E. D. McDonald and daughter Hazel, who visited with friends and relatives at Tillamook and Blaine, Ore., for the past ten days, returned Friday morning.

TAKING WAYS

"How is your Emmy?"

"Dreadful! Last week she took the veil."

"But I didn't know she was so pious."

"No, I mean the veil that was stolen at the drapers."—Lustige Kolner Zeitung, Cologne.

DIDN'T FALL FOR IT

Mrs. McTavish: "A dozen handkerchiefs! Where did you get them, Jack?"

Jack (handsome son): "The girls keep droppin' 'em all over the place."—The Humorist.

MORE ENGLISH BY EAR

Teacher: "Give me a sentence with the word 'analyze'."

Small Boy: "My sister Anna says she never makes love, but oh, how analyze."

Detective Story Fan's Probe May Free Lifer Who Has Served Years For Girl's Murder

LANSING, Mich., Oct. 28.—

Because a rich Lansing lumberman is interested in murder mysteries, Albert Eichorn stands a good chance of being released from the Michigan state penitentiary at Marquette, where he has served 12 years of a life sentence for a murder that he says he didn't commit.

It is now becoming apparent that Eichorn probably is an innocent man. In the week of November 4 his application for a pardon will come up before Arthur D. Wood, state commissioner of pardons and paroles.

If he gets out he can thank Elmer Hammond, the Lansing lumberman who couldn't resist the temptation to look into a real-life murder mystery.

Boy Finds Body. The crime for which Eichorn was sent to prison occurred in the fall of 1917. A farm boy, taking cows to pasture, found the body of Beatrice Epler, 15-year-old daughter of Samuel Epler, a farmer living near Alma, Mich., lying beside a path. The girl had been criminally attacked, and finger marks on her throat showed how she had been choked to death.

For several months no trace of her slayer could be found, although a $2000 reward was offered. Then a deputy sheriff learned that the girl had been seen on her last night alive with one John Brennan, a carnival owner.

Then Mrs. Anna Gilson, a neighbor, came forward to tell a story that seemed to clear up the mystery.

On the night of the murder, she said Brennan, Eichorn, Beatrice and another woman had attended a party in her home. All were intoxicated, she said, and Beatrice had been attacked by Eichorn, after which the guests left, carrying Beatrice, semi-conscious and moaning.

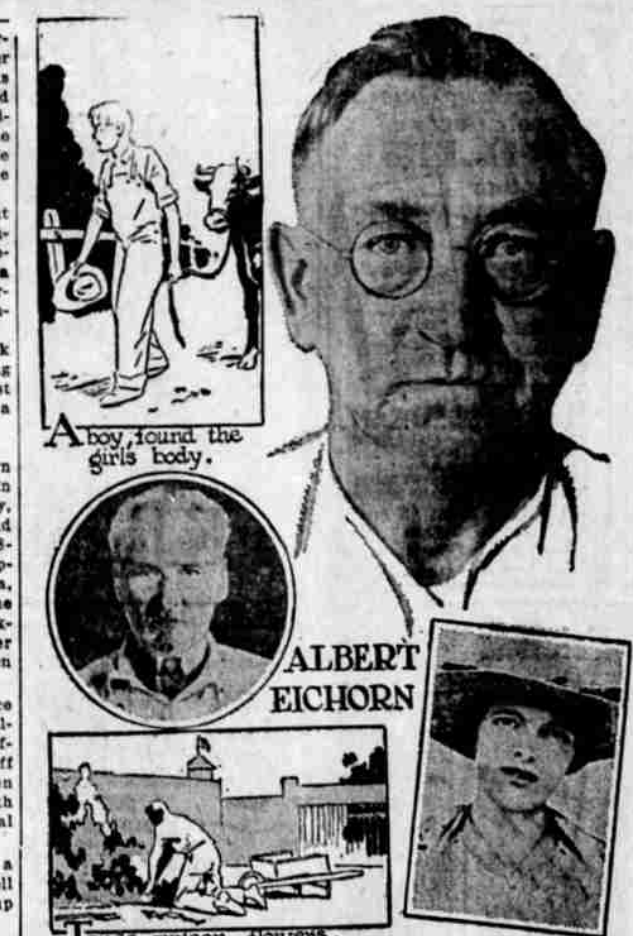

All Are Arrested. Brennan, Eichorn and the woman—a Mrs. Ines Johnson—were promptly arrested. Mrs. Johnson was convicted and sent to the Detroit house of correction for life. After serving eight years she was pardoned, and her present whereabouts are not known.

Brennan was tried next. He won a change of venue and was acquitted.

Then Eichorn was tried. He could not get a change of venue, and sentiment ran strongly against him. In the first place, he was known as a heavy drinker. Then, in the second place, he was a German—and this was in wartime. He was convicted and sent to Marquette for life.

The case was quickly forgotten. Then Elmer Hammond took a hand.

This Lansing lumberman was fond of mystery stories. Especially he liked stories in which the solution hung on fingerprints. So, after a time, just for diversion, he took to studying real-life murder cases, to see what part fingerprints played in home; a confession that she had not seen Eichorn and Beatrice together, and that everything she had said about them was false.

Albert Eichorn, who has served 12 years of a life term for a murder he says he didn't commit, is shown above. Below are David Beaudrais, said to have been instrumental in obtaining his conviction, and Beatrice Epler, the slain girl.

A neighbor named David Beaudrais, she said, had come to her posing as a private detective, saying that he wanted to get the $2000 reward. He told her to tell a story implicating Eichorn, she said, threatening to kill her if she did not, and promised to split the reward with her. She agreed, and the story she told in court was the result.

Action Due Soon. An affidavit setting forth these facts has been obtained, and will be presented to the pardon commissioner early in November.

Beaudrais was finally found, dying in New York sanitarium. He feebly denied Mrs. Minnaugh's story and then refused to discuss the case at all.

Meanwhile, Eichorn's wife is still living in Alma, confident that her husband will be freed, and as firmly convinced now as ever that he is an innocent man.

And Eichorn, stooped and gray, works among the flower beds at Marquette prison, insists that he is innocent, hopes that he will be released—and says, "Twelve years is a long time to take out of a man's life."

Confesses She Lied. Then Mrs. Minnaugh made a confession—a confession that she had lied about the party at her

MALIN HIGH BROADCASTER

Vol. 1

Malin, Oregon

Number 4

Bertha Paulsen, Editor

Published by Junior Class

MALIN ELEVEN ARE VICTORS

The Malin eleven won a hard-fought game with Lakeview last Saturday to the tune of 15-0. Both teams played their last game of the season so far. The Malin eleven was somewhat outwitted but was the faster team.

The first touchdown was made in the first three minutes of play by George Havlina, and the extra point was made by a pass to Willie Hajas. This was the only one in the first quarter.

The second score was made in the second quarter by Frank Kamarad, who played the stellar role during the game. The extra point was made when Louis Kalina kicked a goal.

Lakeview came back hard in the second half, and were fully determined to score, but failed to get any breaks. Frank Kamarad made another touchdown and the extra point was made by a pass to Claude Layman.

The Silver and Gold team's strength was ebbing fast in the last quarter, and two touchdowns were made in the last seven minutes of play. Layman took a beautiful 40-yard pass from Mervyn Wilde and ran almost half the length of the field, outstripping the Lakeview tackles. Layman himself converted for the extra point by taking another pass.

Lakeview kicked, and Layman again threatened to score when he made another long run after receiving a pass, and was downed on the ten-yard line. Frank Kamarad completed the touchdown with a wide end run, and the extra point was made by a pass to Enoch Petrasek.

The game was exceptionally clean and the only penalties were for off-side or second incomplete passes.

The starting lineup for Malin was as follows: Layman, left end; Kandra, left tackle; Bradshaw, left guard; Jackson, center; Hundley, right guard; Streeter, right tackle; Rajanus, right end; Havlina, fullback; Wilde, quarterback; Kalina, right half; Kamarad, left half.

The lineup was changed when Havlina went out on account of a twisted ankle in the second quarter. Streeter took fullback, Hundley moved over to tackle and Williamson came in as right guard. The other substitutions were: Stastney for Williamson, Petrasek for Layman and Chapman for Hundley.

MALIN-HENLEY CLASH FRIDAY

Malin will play Henley on November 1, 1929, on Henley's ground.

This will be the last game the girls play in volleyball.

The boys will play two games after the game with Henley. Those two being with Klamath Falls and Alturas. Both of these games will be away from home.

Personals

Miss Thelma Payne was in Roseburg over the week end visiting her parents.

Miss Marie Ransler was visiting at the Ashland hospital Sunday, to see her brother, who was injured.

The members of the Helping Hand society are rehearsing the play which will be given November 1st.

Laverne Ransler of the Malin grade school was injured while playing baseball last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hilman and family and Miss Esther Burgland of Klamath Falls were visitors of the Hundley family Sunday.

Neoma Pover has returned to Red Bluff after visiting her parents in Malin.

A Kalina has installed a new meat case, which greatly improves the appearance of the store.

Esther Atchison and Vera Woods of Merrill, George Havlina, Bill Hughes and Edwin Petrasek of Malin enjoyed Sunday at the Lava Beds.

Miss Rita Hundley was in Klamath Falls Saturday to have the glasses she received a short time ago re-adjusted.

Two aeroplanes of unknown whereabouts flew over Malin October 21st.

PLAY PROGRESSING

The play, "Fixing It for Father," which the Juniors and Seniors are putting on the state November 22, is progressing very rapidly.

Practice is being held twice a week. Everyone in the cast is present at every practice.

The play will be a three-act farce. It is very humorous, and the complications cause many laughs.

Enoch Petrasek has been selected as prompter.

FOOLISH QUESTION

Teacher: "What author is known for his vocabulary?"

Willie: "Webster."

PERFECT PRESCRIPTION

Mervyn: "I say, old dear, what's good for biting finger-nails?"

Bertha: "Sharp teeth, silly."